ELIZABETH COLLEGE.

Work Progressing Rapidly.—Local Contractors Secure First of the Minor Contracts.—President King to Move Here Soon.—Will Open Oct. 12th.

The work at Elizabeth College is progressing so rapidly that there is now a question about its being ready for the opening on October 12th.

It is a matter of congratulation and a source of pride to the city that the local contractors and business men in a fair competition were awarded most of the sub-contracts for erecting and furnishing the buildings and improvements.

TO BE TORNDOWN.

The Old Court House to Give Way to a Handsome Brick Block.—Will for an Opera House, is the Wish of Charlotte.

Mecklenburg's old court house which stands a landmark as well as an eyesore for many years will soon be no more.

The News learns that at no distant date the old building will be torn down and a handsome building probably three stories high will be erected.

The day of sale this property was bid in by Mayor E. B. Springs for $15,000. Since that day Mr. H. G. Springs has purchased the front portion of the property.

Mr. E. B. Springs only retaining the lot on which the stand pipe is located.

The News learns today that it is Mr. H. G. Springs intention to build on the entire front 29 feet of the property.

He is six stories, and as to the upper floors that has not yet been determined.

It is understood that the gentleman who has been selected to build the new building will be a credit to our progressive city.

Who will win Temple Cup? Boston and Baltimore will be the Teams to Play the Series.

Win or lose the pennant, Boston has earned the right to play for that Temple Cup, as there is no one else who would be awarded it.

The series for the temple trophy will not be started in Boston in order to avoid the cold weather as much as possible, and for the same reason the games will be started as soon as possible.

The week of October 4 will no doubt find the Baltimore and Boston boys in the city of the South.

Three games will be played there, three in Baltimore, if required, and the odd game, if necessary, on neutral ground.

All the money taken at the games goes into one pot, to be divided, 60 per cent to the winner and 40 to the loser.

The grounds are well kept and will keep the extras from privileges, such as score cards, etc.

The Boston men will have a Manager Seise making nineteen to share in the division.

At the present time the games will not attract unusually large crowds, as they have seen the teams play before.

No better attraction could be offered, and the Boston men should Boston win the pennant the attendance at the games here would be doubled.

ROBEY PRACTICABLE.

The Mayor of Wilkesboro Says the Building of an Electric Road From Taylorville to Wilkesboro is Entirely Feasible.

The people around Wilkesboro and those living along the line of the proposed electric railway from Taylorville to Wilkesboro are heartily in favor of building the road, a gentleman tells the News.

The mayor of Wilkesboro has written the following endorsing the scheme. He says the route is entirely practicable and the road can be built at a moderate cost.

He has spoken to merchants and residents of his section and they seem ready and anxious to ship their freight and produce by this route if the road is built.

Charlotte is interested in this proposed line because it would bring a large amount of the mountain trade here.

It is understood that the gentleman who has been selected to build the new road will be a credit to our progressive city.

YOUNG LESTER TURNER DIED EARLY THIS MORNING.

William McGinn, His Slayer, is Committed to Jail Without Bond. McGinn's Father Also in a Critical Condition.—McGinn's Version of the Affair.

Mr. R. Lester Turner who was shot Wednesday night at the corner of Sharon church by William G. McGinn, died Friday morning from the effects of the wound.

The News Thursday afternoon gave a full account of the shooting and the circumstances that led up to it.

Thursday afternoon the wounded man seemed to be resting easy, and the attending physician, Dr. Hunter, did not think that the wounds would prove fatal.

Last night about 10 o'clock Turner began to complain very much of pains in his side. Dr. Hunter went to him and remained with him to the last.

He died at 11 o'clock, and the wound was a fatal one. McGinn's father, who was with him at the time, was very much distressed.

The deceased was born in Sharon township January 28, 1878, and would have been 21 years old next January.

The funeral took place from Sharon church Sunday at 11 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Thomas.

McGinn's side of the case. The following is Mr. McGinn's version of the affair:

The trouble occurred between McGinn and Lester Turner on Friday afternoon, as they were returning home from Charlotte Wednesday evening.

They were together at the time Turner was shot. McGinn was with him at the time he was shot.

McGinn reached home Lester Turner came to his house and commenced swearing before the family and cursing around the house.

McGinn at that time was very much distressed. He had been with Turner for some time and was very much distressed.

WELL OF SENATOR VEST.

Was Benefited by Nature's Greatest Remedy, Paine's Celery Compound.

So many testimonials are coming in from every part of the country to the proprietors of that greatest of all remedies, which stands so prominently above all others in its wonderful curative powers, that it generally has been thought best to select almost at random a small percentage of them for publication.

The accompanying letter from the wife of the great Missouri senator, however, is one of a great many that have come first and last from families of national reputation.

The health of the wealthiest and most highly cultivated is of course no more dear to them and their relatives than is that of the humblest persons who depend upon their daily toil for their week-to-week living.

But the first class of people certainly have at their command every facility that money and good judgment can secure to benefit them when their health is threatened.

For that reason the almost endless number of hearty testimonials that are received from those who have the best medical advice at their instant disposal is doubtless assurance of the unequalled value of this Paine's celery compound, which has come to be known throughout the world as the remedy that makes people well.

Why should one waste the opportunity of gaining health and vigor by temporizing with any of the worthless remedies that quacks offer, when this wonderful discovery of America's ablest physician, Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., of Dartmouth college, the very foremost medical authority of this generation, Paine's celery compound, is now within reach of everyone?

Not only these disorders, but all other effects of low nervous vigor can be cured by the use of this celery compound, by building up the nervous strength and purifying the blood with Paine's celery compound.

An "ailing habit" is easy to fall into. Many persons with no serious organic disease, but who are suffering from a nervous condition, find it difficult to get well until they become a nuisance to their friends and a burden to themselves. What they need is to drive out the clogging, stupefying humors from the blood and disengage the brain nerves by means of Paine's celery compound.

Paine's celery compound will absolutely cure rheumatism, neuralgia, those frequently recurring headaches which weary the nerves, the nervous and sinking spells, the nervous system to take on flesh, the pain in the back which is the result of a long and arduous career, and all other ailments of the nervous system. By means of this superb nutriment every part of the body is nourished and built up.

Vigorous health stands on a tripod, on one leg, of pure, rich blood, a thoroughly nourished and healthy brain, and depending on these a capable healthy digestion and assimilation. Poor health and disease are the result of something wrong with the blood or nerves.

Paine's celery compound at once tends first to these two great essentials, and whatever else is wrong is soon corrected when the blood and nerves are right.

Using this great invigorator, the tired, thin, bloodless body begins at once to take on flesh; the pain in the back ceases, showing its healthful action upon the kidneys, the skin becomes clear and clean, and that unmistakable feeling of well-being gradually takes the place of the gloomy foreboding that always accompanies a tired, under-fed nervous condition.

Messrs. Wells & Richardson

St. James me

pleasure to say

I have used

Paine's Celery Compound

with great benefit, not only is it a fine Nervine tonic, but with my self it is a liver regulator

I think it is a most excellent

tonic and can be used by the most delicate without harm
