A WORLDWIDE EVIL.

REV. DE. TALMAGE CONDEMNS RESIDENCE IN HOTEES.

Contrasts it With the Wholesale Influences That Surround Life in a Pris vate Home-Childeren Get Into Bad Company

(Cpyright, Louis Klopsch, 1899.) Home life versus hotel life is the theme of Dr. Talmage's sermon for today, the disadvantages of a life spent at more or less temporary stopping places being sharply contrasted with the blessings that are found in the real home, however humble. The text is Luke x, 34, 35: "And brought him to an inn and took care of him. And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence and gave them to the host and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again I will repay thee."

This is the good Samaritan paying the hotel bill of a man who had been robbed and almost killed by bandits. The good Samaritan had found the unfortunate on a lonely, rocky road, where to this very day depredations are sometimes committed upon travelers, and had put the injured man into well to do man had walked till they got to the hotel, and the wounded man was put to bed and cared for. It must have been a very superior hotel in its accommodations, for, though in the country, the lanlord was paid at the rate of what in our country would be $4 or $5 a day, a penny being then a day's wages and the 2 pennies paid in this case about two days' wages. hearted landlords who are wrapped up in the happiness of their guests, because the good Samaritan leaves the poor, wounded fellow to his entire care. promising that when he came that way again he would pay all the bills until the invalid got well.

Hotels and boarding nouses are necessities. In very ancient times they were unknown, because the world had comparatively few inhabitants, and wants of sojourners, as when Abrahad rushed out at Mamre to invite the three men to sit down to a dinner of veal, as when the people were positively commanded to be given to hospitality, as in many places in the east these ancient customs are practiced today. But we have now hotels presided over by good landlords and boarding houses presided over by excellent host or hostess in all neighborhoods, villages and cities, and it is our congratulation that those of our land surpass all other lands. They rightly become the permanent residences of many people, such as those who are without families, such as those whose business keeps them migratory, such as those who ought not, for various reasons of health or peculiarity of circumstances, to take upon themselves the cares of housekeeping. A PRESENT EVIL.

Many a man falling sick in one of these boarding houses or hotels has been kindly watched and nursed, and by the memory of her own sufferings and losses the lady at the head of such a house has done all that a mother could do for a sick child, and the slumberiess eye of God sees and appreciates her sacrifices in behalf of the stranger. Among the most marvelous cases of patience and Christian fidelity are many of those who keep boarding houses, enduring without resentment the unreasonable demands of their guests for expensive food and attentions for which they are not willing to men and women who are not worthy to tie the shoe of their queenly caterer. The outrageous way in which boarders sometimes act to their landlords and landladies shows that these critical guests had bad early rearing and that in the making up of their natures all that constitutes the gentleman and lady was left out. Some of the most princely men and some of the most elegant women that I know of today keep hotels and boarding houses.

But one of the great evils of this day is found in the fact that a large population of our towns and cities are giv- can cast no such glorious sanctity. ing up and have given up their homes and taken apartments, that they may have more freedom from domestic duties and more time for social life and perpetually steaming and meats in because they like the whirl of publicity better than the quiet and privacy of a residence they can call their own. The lawful use of these hotels and boarding houses is for most people while they are in transitu; but as a terminus they are in many cases demoralization, utter and complete. That is the point at which families innumerable have begun to disintegrate. There never has been a time when so many families, healthy and abundantly able to support and direct homes of their own, have struck tent and taken permanent It is an evil wide as Christendom, and by voice and through the newspaper press I utter warning and burning protest and ask Almighty God to bless the word, whether in the hearing or read-

PANDEMONIUM OF GOSSIP.

In these public caravansaries, the demon of gossip is apt to get full sway. All the boarders run daily the gantlet of general inspection-how they look when they come down in the morning and when they get in at night, and what they do for a living, and who they receive as guests in their rooms, and what they wear, and what they do not wear, and how they eat, and what they eat, and how much they eat, and how little they eat. If a man proposes in such a place to be isolated and reticent and alone, they will begin to guess about him: Who is he? Where did he come from? How long is he going to stay? Has he paid his board? How much does he pay? Perhaps he not want to be known. There must be something wrong about him or he would speak. The whole house goes into the detective business. They must find out about him. They must find his door unlocked by accident, he will find that his rooms have been inspected, his trunk explored, his letters folded differently from the way they were folded when he put them away. Who is he? is the question asked with intenser interest, until the subject has

The best landlords and landladies cannot sometimes hinder their places from becoming a pandemonium of whisperers, and reputations are torn to tatters, and evil suspicions are aroused, and scandals started, and the parliament of the family is blown to atoms by some Guy Fawkes who was not caught in time, as was his English pred-

minds his own business.

The reason is that, while in private them busy, in these promiscuous and multitudinous residences there are so many who have nothing to do, and that always makes mischief. They gather in each other's rooms and spend hours in consultation about others. If they had to walk a half mile before they got to the willing ear of some listener to detraction, they would get out of breath before reaching there and not feel in might, because of the distance, not go at all. But rooms 20, 21, 22, 23, 24 and 25 are on the same corridor, and when one carrion crow goes "Caw! Caw" all the other crows hear it and flock together over the same carcass. "Oh, I have heard something rich! Sit down and let me tell you all about it." And the first guffaw increases the gathering, and it has to be told all over again. and as they separate each carries a spark from the altar of gab to some other circle until, from the coal heaver in the cellar to the maid in the top room of the garret, all are aware of the defamation, and that evening all who leave the house will bear it to other houses until autumnal fires sweeping across Illinois praires are less raging and swift than that flame of consuming reputation blazing across the village or city.

HERDING TOGETHER.

Those of us who were brought up in the country know that the old fashioned hatching of eggs in the haymow required four or five weeks of brooding, but there are new modes of hatching by machinery, which take less time and do the work by wholesale. So, the saddle, while this merciful and while the private home may brood into life an occasional falsity and take a long time to do it, many of the boarding houses and family hotels afford a swifter and more multitudinous style of moral incubation, and one old gossip will get off the nest after one hour's brooding, clucking a flock of 30 lies after her, each one picking up its little worm of juicy regalement. It is no advantage to hear too much about your Moreover, it was one of those kind neighbors, for your time will be so much occupied in taking care of their faults that you will have no time to look after your own. And while you are pulling the chickweed out of their garden yours will get all overgrown with horse sorrel and mullen stalks.

One of the wost damages that come from the herding of so many people into boarding houses and family hotels is inflicted upon children. It is only and their whereabouts, but by 12 years of age in these public resorts they will have picked up all the bad things that can be furnished by the prurient minds of dozens of people. They will overhear biasphemies, and see quarrels, and get precocious in sin, and what the bartender does not tell them the porter or hostler or bellboy will.

Besides that the children will go out into this world without the restraining, archoring, steadying and all controlling memory of a home. From that none of us who have been blessed of such memory have escaped. It grips a man for 80 years, if he lives so long. It pulls him back from doors into smites him with contrition in the very midst of his dissipatons. As the fish, already surrounded by the long wide net, swim out to sea, thinking they can go as far as they please, and with gay toss of silvery scale they defy the sportsman on the beach, and after awhile the fishermen begin to draw in the net, hand over hand, and hand over hand, and it is a long while before the captured fins begin to feel the net, and then they dart this way and that hoping to get out, but find themselves apthe memory of an early home sometimes seems to relax and let men out ten years, 20 years, 30 years; but some day they find an irresistible mesn pay an equivalent-a lot of cranky drawing them back, and they are compelled to retreat from their prodigality and wandering; and though they make desparate effort to escape the impression, and try to dive deeper down in sir, after awhile are brought clear back and held upon the Rock of Ages.

A LASTING INFLUENCE. If it be possible, O father and mother! let your sons and daughters go out into the world under the semiomnipotent memory of a good, pure home. About your two or three rooms in a boarding house, or a family hotel, you They will think of these public caravansaries as an early stopping place, malodorous with old victuals, coffees everlasting stew or broil, the air surcharged with carbonic acid, and corridors, along which drunken boarders came staggering at 1 o'clock in the morning, rapping at the door till the affrighted wife lets them in. Do not be guilty of the sacrilege or blasphemy of calling such a place a home.

A home is four walls inclosing one family with identity of interest and a privacy from outside inspection so complete that it is a world in itself, no one entering except by permissionbolted and barred and chained against abode in these public establishments. all outside inquisitiveness. The phrase so often used in lawbooks and legal circles is mightily suggestive-every man's house is his castle, as much so as though it had drawbridge, portcullis, redoubt, bastion and armed turret. day, to walk or ride farther than is deenter to serve a writ, except the door to his destination in the eventide he Brunswick county, the ruins of which the following gentlemen a committee other words, of the 473 Confederate genbe voluntarily opened unto him; bur- will find something worthy of being may be seen to this day, and the gift of correspondence, to-wit: A. J. Grady, eral officers only 115 still remain—not jaws on any one who attempts it. Un- | "home." less it be necessary to stay for longer or shorter time in family hotel or boarding house-and there are thousands of instances in which it is necessary, as I showed you at the beginning -unless in this exceptional case, let neither wife nor husband consent to such permanent residence.

The probability is that the wife will have to divide her husband's time with public smoking or reading room or with some coquettish spider in search of unwary flies, and, if you do not entirely lose your husband, it will be behas committed some crime and does cause he is divinely protected from the disasters that have whelmed thousands of husbands, with as good intentions as yours. Neither should the husband, without imperative reason, consent to such a life unless he is sure his out about him right away. If he leave wife can withstand the temptation of and sing and romp without being oversocial dissipation which sweeps across hauled for the racket. Have a kitchen such places with the force of the At- where you can do something toward lantic ocean when driven by a September equinox. Many wives give up their homes for these public residences, As Napoleon lost one of his great batso that they may give their entire time tles by an attack of indigestion, so to operas, theatres, balls, receptions become a monomania. The simple fact and levees, and they are in a perpetual is that he is nobody in particular, but whirl, like a whip top spinning round and round and round very prettily un- life, and, though your wife may know til it loses its equipoise and shoots off how to play on all musical instruments into a tangent. But the difference is, and rival a prima donna, she is not well in one case it is a top, and in the other educated unless she can boil an Irish

> BLESSED IS THE HOME. Besides this there is an assiduous ac-

ecessor of gunpowdery reputation. izen of one of these public residences is out of the public library or of your homes families have so much to keep no place to keep them if I should take family intelligent, and checkerboards, them." Mementos, bric-a-brac, curi-osities, quaint chair or cozy lounge, up-sional blind man's buff, which is of all And yet they are the case in which the pearl of domestic happiness is set. You can never become as attached to the appointments of a boarding house or full glow of animosity or slander, or family hotel as to those things that you can call your own and are associated with the different members of your household or with scenes of thrilling import in your domestic history. Blessed is that home in which for a whole in the same boat, no harm can haplifetime they have been gathering, un- | pen." And whatever storm of adversity til every figure in the carpet, and every or bereavement or poverty may strike panel of the door, and every casement of the window has a chirography of its have Christ the king on board. Make own, speaking out something about fa- your home so far-reaching in its influther or mother, or son or daughter, or a sacred place it becomes when one can age the Demosthenes of the American say: "In that room such a one was born; in that bed such a one died; in | mean Henry Clay, of Kentucky. His that chair I sat on the night I heard such a one had received a great public honor; by that stool my child knelt for her last evening prayer; here I sat to greet my son as he came back from sea of his boyhood, and he kept saying in voyage; that was father's cane; that was mother's rocking chair!" What a mother, mother, mother!" May the joyful and pathetic congress of remi- parental influence we exert be not only The public residence of hotel and boarding house abolishes the grace of hospitality. Your guest does not want to come to such a table. No one wants to run such a gantlet of acute and merciless hypercriticism. Unless you have a home of your own you will not be able to exercise the best rewarded of all the graces. For exercise of this grace what blessing came to the Shunammite in the restoration of her son to life because she entertained Elisha, and to the widow of Zerephate in the perpetual oil well of the miraculous cruse because she fed a hungry prophet, and to Rahab in the preservation of her life at the demolition of Jericho because she entertained the spies, and to Laban in the formation of an interesting family relation because of his entertainment of Jacob, and to Lot in his rescue from the destroyed city because of his entertainment of the angels, and to Mary and Martha and Zaccheus in spiritual blessings because they entertained Christ, and to Publius in the island of Melita in the healing of his father because of the entertainment of Paul, drenched from another way of bringing them up on the shipwreck, and of innumerable those were not much given to dravel, the commons. While you have your houses throughout Christendom upon here, and whist contests, high teas, and private hospitality met all the own private house you can, for the which have come blessings from generation to generation because their doors swung easily open in the enlarging, ennobling, irradiating and divine grace of hospitality! I do not know what your experience has been, but I have had men and women visiting at | trick, of Clinton, have received many my house who left a benediction on every room-in the blessing they asked at the table, in the prayer they offered at the family altar, in the good advice they gave the children, in the gospelization that looked out from every lineament of their countenances—and their departure was the sword of bereave- Fear river, where the visitor may ever ment. The queen of Norway, Sweden be sure of an old-time, cordial southern and Denmark had a royal cup of ten curves, or lips, each one having on it the name of the distinguished person which he otherwise would enter. It who had drunk from it. And that cup which we offer to others in Christian God can read on all its sides the names of those who have taken from it refreshment. But all this is impossible unless you have a home of your own. A COMMON DELUSION.

> sary for a home that hinders so many from establishing one. Thirty rooms are not necessary, nor 20, nor 15, nor proaching the shore, and are brought 110, nor 5, nor 3. In the right way plant up to he very feet of the captors, so a table and couch and knife and fork, and a cup, and a chair, and you can raise a young paradise. Just start a farther and farther from God, and far- home on however small a scale, and it ther and farther from shore; five years, | will grow. When King Cyrus was invited to dine with a humble friend, the king made the one condition of his coming that the only dish be one loaf of bread, and the most imperial satisfactions have sometimes banqueted on the plainest fare. Do not be caught in the delusion of many thousands in postponing a home until they can have an expensive one. That idea is the devil's trap that catches men and women innumerable who will never have any home at all. Capitalists of America, build plain homes for the people! Let this tenement house system, in which hundreds of thousands of the people of our cities are wallowing in the mire, be broken up by small homes, where people can have their own firegreat continent there is room enough the collapse of the side which circumfor every man and woman to have a home. Morals and civilization and religion demand it. We want done all over this land what George Peabody and Lady Burdett-Coutts did in England, and some of the large manufacturers of this country have done for the villages and cities in building small houses at low rents so that the middle classes can have separate homes. They are the only class not provided for. The rich have their palaces, and the poor have their poorhouses, and criminals have their jails, but what about the honest middle classes, who are able and willing to work and yet have small income? Let the capitalists, inspired of God and pure patriotism, rise and build whole streets of small residences. The laborer may have, at the close of the Even the officer of the law may not sirable to reach it, but when he gets congregation of St. Philip's church in glary, or the invasion of it, a crime so called by that glorious and impasoffensive that the law clashes its iron sioned and heaven descended word-

It is the delusion as to what is neces-

PLEA FOR CHILDREN.

Young married man, as soon as you can, buy such a place even if you have to put on it a mortgage reaching from base to capstone. The much abused mortgage, which is ruin to a reckless man, to one prudent and provident is the beginning of a competency and a fortune for the reason he will not be satisfied until he has paid it off, and all cial instructors. The purice of tuition, the household are put on stringent economies until then. Deny yourself all superfluities and all luxuries until you can say, "Everything in this house is mine, thank God-every timber, every brick, every foot of plumbing, every doorsill." Do not have your children born in a boarding house, and do not yourself be buried from one. Have a place where your children can shout the reformation of evil cookery and the lessening of this nation of dyspeptics. many men have such a daily wrestle with the food swallowed that they have no strength left for the battle of potato and broil a mutton chop, since the diet sometimes decides the fate of families and nations.

make a great attraction, while the den- take turns at sitting in it, and books Atlanta, is with him.

apt to say: "What is the use?" I have own purchase for the making of your holsteries, pictures and a thousand games my favorite. Rouse up your things that accrete in a home are dis- home with all styles of innocent mirth carded or neglected because there is no and gather up in your children's nature homestead in which to arrange them. a reservoir of exuberance that will pour down refreshing streams when life gets parched, and the dark days come, and the lights go out, and the laughter is smothered into a sob.

First, last and all the time have Christ in your home. Julius Caesar calmed the fears of an affrighted boat man who was rowing in a stream by saying, "So long as Caesar is with you your home, all is well as long as you ence that down to the last moment of friend that was with us awhile. What with a heavenly charm. At 76 years of on February 27th last met at the court senate lay dying at Washington-1 pastor sat at his bedside, and "the old man eloquent," after a long and exciting public life, transatlantic and hisatlantic, was back again in the scenes his dream over and over again, "My potential, but holy, and so the home on earth be the vestibule of our home in heaven, in which place may we all meet-father, mother, son, daughter, brother, sister, grandfather, grandmother and grandchild, and the entire group of precious ones, of whom we must say in the words of transporting Charles Wesley:

One family we dwell in him, One church above, beneath, Though now divided by the stream-The narrow stream of death; One army of the living God, To his command we bow: Part of the host have crossed the flood And part are crossing now.

CLINTON'S FAIR DAUGHTERS

They Receive Many Pleasant Attens tions-Rushing Mill Work-Reminiscence of Moore's Creek

(Correspondence of The Messenger.) Fayetteville, N. C., July 15. The "heated term" has brought about little diminution of social pleasures mer carnival. The fair guests of Mrs. Ronald McMillan on upper Hay street, Misses Morrissey, Beaman and Parattentions-a complimentary evening tea by Miss Robbie Hall, a morning whist party by Miss Lillie Linebury, and a house party by Major and Mrs. W. B. Draughon, at their hospital homestead on the east side of Cape

Mr. Lane, representing the extensive silk factories of Messrs. Ashley & Co., has been here for the past few days hospitality, though it be of the plain- and every effort is making to complete est earthenware, is a royal cup, and the superstructure of the silk spinning mill, and have it ready for the machinery. The Atlantic Coast Line R. R. Co., will run a siding to the mill to expedite the delivery of engines, spindles, boilers, etc., and for the handling of freight hereafter, and this track will be in due time extended to the Tolar, Holt and Hart factory now building a third of a mile southeast. Yesterday's Fayetteville Observer contained a very interesting reprint account of the celbration of the battle of Moore's Creek in 1854, at which Hon. Geo. Davis, of Wilmington, and Major James Banks, our own gifted and inimitable "Jimmie Banks," as his Scotch friends were wont to affectionately dub him, delivered eloquent speeches. Flora McDonald is perhaps a trite theme nowadays, but there are certain facts which the upper Cape Fear section has inherited by tradition with regard to attitude of Flora and her husband as Tories which may not be uninteresting. Despite the fact that history knows her only as the romantic heroine in the lost cause of a fugitive prince, she was a woman of strong sides and their own altar. In this character and fine mind, who foresaw stances rendered it absolutely necessary for her to espouse, and there was no little political shrewdness in her complaint that she had "gained mickle of thanks or profit by her devotion to the houses of Stuart and Hanover." The late mented scholarly Jno. D. Cameron, control of the Asheville Citizen, was wont to say that the McDonalds and their followers came to the colonies, not for political reasons, but because they were "mighty hunters," and the whole stretch of territory embracing Cumberland, Moore, Harnett, etc., was the habitat of the red deer, the pelts of which were in great demand at high prices in the old country. His majesty, choliric little George II, presented a communion service to the was conveyed, it is said, through the hands of our Flora.

Summer School for Colored Teachers The third annual summer school for colored teachers begins at the Agricultural and Mechanical College for the colored race, Greensboro, N. C., July Alfred M. Moore, John D. Moore, Dr. 19th, and will continue three weeks. John R. Haines, Edmond A. Haines, President J. B. Dudley and his faculty | Henry Colvin, John H. Murphy, Henry will be assisted by a corps of six speboard and lodging for the session will

On account of the summer school the various railroads in the state will seli tickets to Greensboro at reduced rates.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have provedthat Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidney and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by R. R. Bellamy

Hon. Hoke Smith, who is at Morecumulation of little things around the Have a sitting room with at least one head, is threatened with appendicitis. private home, which in the aggregate easy chair, even though you have to His family physician, Dr. Nicholson, of MOORE'S CREEK MONUMENT

The Meeting in Wilmington in 1857 to Take Steps for Its Erection-The Committees Appointed

(Correspondence of The Messenger.) Point Caswell, N. C., July 14. In a copy of The Journal of February, 1857, is printed the list of committees of various counties. As most of these persons are dead it would, no doubt, be of interest to their descendants to know who constituted the Moore's Creek Monumental Association. I herewith send a true copy if you wish to publish them:

MOORE'S CREEK MONUMENT. The committee appointed by the meeting of citizens at Moore's Creek house in Wilmington at 11 o'clock a m. on the 6th instant. Present: Dr. Frederick P. Moore, Colonel John Nixon, James P. Moore, Colonel John McRae, T. H. Ashe, Dr. P. M. Walker, Daniel Shaw. Tht chairman stated that the object of the meeting was to take immediate action to raise funds necessary for the erection of a suitable monument on the ground where the battle of Moore's Creek was fought on February 27, On motion, Atlas J. Grady was invited to take a seat with the committee, share in its deliberations, and actas secretary. The following resolutions were unan-mously adopted. "Resolved, That the chairman appoint committees in the following counties to solicit subscriptions for erecting a suitable monument on Moore's Creek battle ground; to-wit: New Hanover, Duplin,, Lenoir, Wayne, Sampson, Cumberland, Bladen, Columbus and Bruns-

"Resolved, That " our senator and representatives in the general assembly be requested to apply to that body to make an appropriation to aid in the D. C. erection of a monument at Moore's Creek battle ground commemorative of the gallant deeds of our ancestors in the battle fought there on February 27, 1776, and of the important effects resulting therefrom upon the successful termination of our revolution.

ary struggle. "Resolved, That in the opinion of this committee the time is now too short between this and the next anniversary of the batttle of Moore's Creek to give all who desire to do so an opportunity of contributing to the erection of said monument; at the same time they deem it indispensible that at least the cornerstone should be laid at the meeting on the next anniversary; therefore

"Resolved. That a committee of three be appointed to make arrangements for commencing the work on that day and that they obtain plans for a monument to cost about $5,0t0 and submit the same at that time." The chairman appointed under the first resolution the following committees, who are respectfully requested to report to the secretary of this meeting on or before February 27, to-wit: New Hanover County-Owen Fennell, James Kerr, James P. Moore, Owen Alderman, John Eaken, R. L. Bordeaux,

John Jones, W. S. Larkins, D. Mc-Intyre, W. J. Hand, John D. Powers. Lott Croom, Daniel Shaw, John Shepard, John Howard, Joseph M. Foy, Reuben Everett, John A. Sanders, R. Beasly, E. Porter, J. G. Pickett, W. S. Pridgeon, Charles Henry. Duplin County-Isaac B. Kelly, Hargett Kornegay, Grady Outlaw, W. R. Ward, Edward Armstrong, O. R. Keenan, Zack. Smith, Jr., A. O. Grady, Dr. James H. Hicks, Henry B. Hurst. Lenoir County-Council Wooten Jackson Pollock, Pinckney Hardee, John F. Wooten, John C. Washington, John H. Jackson, John H. Peeples, Alexander Rouse, Whitfield Grady, Ar.

etus Jones.

Blocker.

Wayne County-W. K. Lane, J. J. Baker, W. T. Dortch, William Robinson, John V. Sherrard, Louis Whitfield, John D. Pearsall, John Wright, William Carraway, H. R. Nixon. Sampson County-Dr. William Mc-Koy, Dr. Thomas Bunting, William Faison, John R. Beaman, Richard C. Holmes, W. T. Kirby, J. P. Tredwell, P. Murphy, Charles Harrison, A. Monk. Cumberland County-James Banks E .J. Hale, General John Winslow, J McKethan, John Elliott, Colonel A. 8 McNeil, David Murphy, John

Bladen County-Rev. Colin Shaw W. A. Melvin, T. C. McDowell, Dr. William Beatty, T. J. Jones, John B. Brown, Thomas O. Brown. Columbus County-Colonel A. Smith Calvin Haynes, Farry George, James Foy, Josiah Maultsby. A. C. Dicken-

Brunswick County-Owen D. Holmes, Samuel Langdon, Daniel L. Russell James H. Pritchett, H. H. Watters Moses Hewett, Dr. L. Frink, Asa Ross, R. W. Rutland, William Wilson. Town of Wilmington-Henry Nutt,

Dr. J. D. Bellamy, W. T. J. Vann Thomas H. Lane, Dr. A. O. Bradley. The chairman appointed under the third resolution the following gentlemen as the monument committee, towit: Dr. E. A. Anderson, P. R. Dickinson and Donald McRae. On motion, the chairman appointed the following gentlemen a committee to select an orator for the celebration of the next anniversary of the battle of Moore's Creek, to-wit: Hon. W. S. Ashe, John L. Holmes, Dr. F. J. Hill and George Davis.

Thomas H. Ashe, Dr. P. M. Walker and Colonel John McRae. On motion the chairman appointed the following gentlemen a committee to make suitable arrangements on the battle ground at Moore's Creek for the celebration at the next anniversary, towit: Dr. J. F. Simpson, D. McDuffle, Moore, Daniel McAllister, Joseph E. Lewis, Joel L. Moore, John F. Moore, C. W. Murphy, John Jones, Thomas H.

Williams. "Resolved, That the name of A. Grady, W. T. J. Vann and Dr. J. D. Bellamy be added to the general committee of arrangements." "Resolved. That the papers of the town be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting, and mat all other papers in the state are requested to copy the same. A. J. GRADY. F. J. HILL, Secretary.

Chairman, The above is a true copy. R. P. PADDISON. Secretary Moore's Creek Monumental Association.

The Best Prescription for Chills and Fever is a bottle o. Grove's Tasteess Chill Tonic. The formula is plainly printed on each bottle, showing that it is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Imitators do not advertise their formula because if they did they know that you would not buy their medicine. Be sure then that you get John W. Scott, of Sanford, is in

OFFICERS OF THE CONFRDERACE.

Only 115 Now Living of the 473 in Sere vice-List With Addresses of These Who Have Survived War and Time

Colonel Charles E. Jones, the Geora gia historian, furnishes The Atlanta Constitution the following roster of surviving confederate generals:

LIEUTENANT GENERALS. James Longstreet, Washington, D. C. Alexander P. Stewart, Chickamauge

Stephen D. Lee, Columbus: Miss. Simon B. Buckner, Glen Lily, Ky Wade Hampton, Columbia. S C John B. Gordon, Atlanta, Ga. Joseph Wheeler, Washington. D. C. MAJOR GENERALS.

Samuel G. French. Pensacola, Fla. John H. Forney, Jenifer, Ala. Dabney H. Maury, Richmond, Va. Henry Heth, Washington, D. C. Fitzhugh Lee, Havana, Cuba William T. Martin, Natchez, Miss. William R. Bate, Nashville, Tenn. Robert F. Hoke. Raleigh. N. C. Camille J. Polignac, Orleans, France. L. L. Lomax. Washington, D. C. Matthew C. Butler, Washington, D. C. Thomas L. Rosser, Charlottesville, Va. G. W. C. Lee, Burke Station, Va. E. M. Law, Yorkville, S. C. Matt. W. Ransom, Weldon, N. C. Thomas J. Churchill. Little Rock,

BRIGADIER GENERALS. E. P. Alexander, Savannah, Ga George T. Anderson, Anniston, Ala. Frank C. Armstrong, Washington,

Arthur F. Bagby, Cuers, Texas. Lawrence S. Baker, Suffolk, Va. Cullen A. Battle, New Berne, N. C. Tyree H. Bell, Fresno county, Cal. William R. Boggs, Winston, N. C. Pinckney B. Bowles, Evergreen, Ala. Joseph L. Brent. Baltimore, Md. Robert Bullock, Ocala, Fla. William L. Cabell, Dallas, Texas. Ellison Capers, Columbia, S. C. John B. Clark, Jr., Washington, D. C. Francis M. Cockrell, Washington,

John B. Cosby, Sacramento, Cal. John Z. Cox, Tennessee. William R. Cox, Penelo, N. C. Alfred Cumming, Augusta, Ga. H. B. Davidson, California Bassil W. Duke, Louisville, Ky. Clement A. Evans, Atlanta, Ga. Samuel W. Ferguson, Greenville,

Jesse J. Finley, Lake City, Fla. John W. Frazer. Memphis, Tenn. Daniel M. Frost, St. Louis, Mo. Richard M. Gano, San Antonio, Tex. William M. Gardner, Memphis, Tenn. George W. Gordon, Memphis, Tenn. Daniel C. Govan, Marianna, Ark. Colton Greene, Memphis, Tenn. James Hagan, Mobile, Ala. N. H. Harris, San Francisco, Cal. George P. Harrison, Jr., Opelika, Ala. Eppa Hunton, Warrenton, Va. William H. Jackson, Nashville, Tenn. A. R. Johnson, Marble Falls, Tex. Bradley T. Johnson, Amelia county,

George D. Johnston, Tuscaloosa, Ala. Robert D. Johnston, Birmingham,

John R. Jones, Harrisonburg, Va. William H. King, Sulphur Springe, William W. Kirkland, New York City. James H. Lane, Auburn, Ala. Joseph H. Lewis, Frankfort, Ky. William G. Lewis, Tarboro, N. C. Thomas M. Logan, Richmond, Va. Robert Lowry, Jackson, Miss. H. B. Lyon, Eddyville, Ky. Robert P. MacLay, Cook's Landing,

George Maney, Nashville, Tenn. John McCausland, Mason Courthouse, W. Va. William McComb, Gordonsville, Va.

Thomas H. MCrary, Arkansas. James A. McMurry, Tennessee Evander McNair, Hattiesburg, Miss. William R. Miles, Miles, Miss. William Miller, Point Washington, John C. Moore, Mexia, Texas.

John T. Morgan, Selma, Ala. Thomas T. Munford, Uniontown, Ala. Francis T. Nicholls, New Orleans, La. William H. Payne, Warrenton, Va. Edmund W. Pettus, Selma, Ala. Roger A. Pryor, New York City. Daniel H. Reynolds, Arkansas City, William P. Roberts, Jamesville, N. C.

B. H. Robertson, Washington, D. C. Felix H. Robertson, Waco, Texas. Jacob H. Sharp, Jackson, Miss. Charles M. Shelley, Birmingham, Ala. James E. Slaughter, Washington,

James A. Smith, Jackson, Miss. Thomas B. Smith, Nashville, Tenn. John L. T. Sneed. Memphis, Tenn. G. M. Sorrel, Savannah, Ga. George H. Steuart, Baltimore, Md. James C. Tappan, Helena, Ark. Thomas H. Taylor, Louisville, Ky. Allen Thomas, New York City. Bryan M. Thomas, Dalton, Ga. Thomas F. Toon, Whiteville, N. C. Robert B. Vance, Asheville, N. C. Alfred J. Vaughan, Memphis, Tenn. Henry H. Walker, New York City. James A. Walker, Wytheville, Va. William H. Walllace, Columbia, S.C. Thomas N. Waul, Neyland, Texas. Gabriel C. Wharton, Radford, Va. William F. Perry, Bowling Green, Marcus J. Wright, Washington, D.C. William H. Young, San Antonio, Tex. It thus apppears that of the 19 lieutenant generals, Confederate States of America, but 7 still survive; of the 81 major generals, Confederate States of America, only 16 are now in life, while of the 365 brigadier generals, Confederate States of America, but 92 still On motion the chairman appointed linger in the land of the living. In a fourth of those valorous chieftans, to whom Dixie intrusted the command of her regular armies in the greatest of defensive wars.

Two Lynched in Texas

Houston, Texas, July 14.-Specials to The Post tell of two lynchings in Texas today. Abe Brown, a negro who murdered and outraged a Bohemian woman Monday, was shot to death near Gilead, and an unknown negro was lynched near Iola, Grimes county, for murdering Lemuel Sharp, a white

Remarkable Rescue Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill. makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine cou cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great

Raleigh News and Observer: medicine. Be sure then that you get city. He says the new cotton factory at Sanford will be erected and in opera-NO CURE NO PAY. Price 50 cents, tion within a few months.

Discovery at R. R. Bellamy's Drug

tore, large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.