

GOLDSBORO GOSSIP.

McKinley Memorial Meeting—Resolutions Adopted—An Immense Crowd Present.

(Correspondence of the Messenger.)

Goldsboro, N. C., September 16. In obedience to the proclamation of the mayor some 1,200 of Goldsboro's citizens assembled at the opera house yesterday afternoon to do honor to the memory of our late president.

The associated choirs of the city churches rendered most touchingly, patriotic and sacred selections. On assembling the choir sang "America," which was followed by an invocation by Rev. G. P. Somerville, of St. Stephens church. Other selections in their order were: "Lead Kindly Light," and "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say," Miss Helen Priddy and Mr. Robert Shaw alternating the verses, the choir joining in the chorus; also "Thy Will Be Done," and "Nearer My God to Thee."

Judge W. S. O. Robinson presided over the meeting. Mayor George E. Hood in calling the meeting to order spoke briefly in feeling terms.

Judge Robinson on taking the chair spoke briefly, and tenderly of the dead chieftain, naming W. R. Allen, E. B. Eorden, Henry Wells, W. F. Farries, J. F. Dobson, G. A. Norwood, C. J. Rivenbark, Joseph E. Robinson, a committee on resolutions.

During the interim of the committee's retirement patriotic addresses were made by the federal judges, ex-Congressman C. Davis. Following in the committee's report which was adopted by a rising vote:

"The president of the United States is dead—at the hands of an assassin in broad daylight, in a public place, in the midst of a great gathering of American citizens doing him high honor as the beloved head of their free government, chosen by them, and doing their will in his appointed sphere as it was given him to see their will and conscientiously administer it under the precepts of our established institutions."

"In all the annals of history, since the world began, covering a period of well nigh six thousand years, there is not to be found a form of government comparable to that of the people that have ever fostered and prospered their government as have the American people of this republic."

"Indeed it would seem that God in His inscrutable providence had withheld this great western hemisphere from the knowledge and occupancy of the inter-coursing peoples of the earth through all the lapsing centuries and cycles, until such time as there should come men who were capable of forming a system of government based on the principles of equal justice to all and special privileges to none, and then, and not till then, did He reveal America for this purpose. And here was established by the father of our country a government which we enjoy today—the grandest in all the world."

"We love it for what it is, and will cherish and defend it for its priceless privileges to us and for what it promises to posterity; therefore be it that we resolve by the citizens of Goldsboro in mass meeting assembled to do honor to the memory of our murdered president. That we recognize in him a martyr to the principles of free government at the hands of anarchy that has no place save in damp, dark dungeons where vipers creep and lie in wait to strike."

"Resolved, that it is the sense of this meeting in common with all patriotic American citizens that congress shall dress itself at the earliest possible moment to the enactment of such legislation as shall speedily rid and forever after hold free this country of the presence of anarchists, be they imported or native born."

Resolved, that in the death of President McKinley the country is deprived not only of a respected ruler, but of a citizen brave, intelligent, patriotic and liberal. God-fearing and God-serving, exemplary in every sphere of service and citizenship, one who approached alongside the standard of the full measure of ideal man; knowing no section but desiring to be considered and loved as the president of the whole people."

"Resolved, that in his bereaved invalid wife who was his dearest care through all their wedded life—in adversity and success—and in which their mutual love was beautiful to behold, the heart of this people goes out with inexpressible solicitude, that God would sustain and succor her in her irreparable loss, thankful, as we are, that she has the sweet consolation that his life was Godly and that when his feet went down into the shadow of the valley of death he still had faith to say: "It is God's way: His will, not ours, be done."

"Resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon our city record and a copy be sent Mrs. M. K. Key, and furnished the press for publication."

Miss Mary Kingstrey, daughter of Dr. T. B. Kingsbury, the veteran quill driver and able editor of the Messenger, is in the city on a visit to the family of Hon. W. R. Allen.

Held in Raleigh Churches—The Governor's Escort to the McKinley Funeral—Cause of the Epidemic Among Stock in Eastern Carolina.

Messenger Bureau.

Raleigh, N. C., September 16.

At all the churches here the morning services bore upon the death of the president. In the evening there were union services at two white churches, the audience being the largest ever seen here and at one colored church. The deepest sympathy was expressed for Mrs. McKinley.

The work of draping buildings in mourning continues. The confederate monument, in the capital square, is draped and so are the statues of Washington and Vance.

Governor Aycock, his entire staff headed by Adjutant General Royce; General Toon, the representative of the council of state; more than 150 representative citizens of the state, named by the governor, a company and perhaps a battalion of the state guard, will go to Washington; the guard, General Toon, and part of the delegation going also to Canton. To each of the 200 a telegram was sent last night, and today responses poured in, nearly all saying they would go.

The commissioner of agriculture and Dr. Tait Butler, the new state veterinarian, have returned from the north-eastern counties, where they investigated the fatal disease among horses.

Dr. Butler says an autopsy confirmed the opinion that it was due to forage poisoning, most of the forage being mouldy, owing to the hot and damp weather, and that the use of water from shallow surface wells aided the disease. The result of the trip in Hyde, Pamlico and Beaufort counties.

The diagnosis in Dare county, where the disease is now abating, Dr. Butler left today for Gregory, upon news of the outbreak of the same disease among the cattle and horses. The commissioner of agriculture says Dr. Butler is admirably informed as to his problem of government.

Today the commissioner of agriculture, State Chemist Kilgore, Professor W. F. Massey, Professor of Agriculture Burkett and others left for Tarboro, to hold a farmers' institute, at the request of the chief Justice Furches Attorney General Gilmer will tomorrow at 1 o'clock formally announce to the court the death of President McKinley. The court has not been in session since last Friday. All the local bar will be present. The court will take appropriate action.

FAYETTEVILLE'S ACTION

Public Meeting in Town Hall—Negro Loses His Foot—Two Children Drowned—Other Local News.

(Correspondence of the Messenger.) Fayetteville, N. C., September 14.

At 12 o'clock today a large number of representative citizens both white and black, gathered in the town hall, to give expression to their sense of the loss sustained by the death of President McKinley, and were called to order by Colonel W. S. Cook, mayor of the city, in remarks full of force and strong feeling. Messrs. L. B. Hale, of the Observer, and H. I. McDuffie, of the Era, were appointed secretaries, and a committee on resolutions was chosen, consisting of Mr. A. H. Slocomb, chairman; Colonel C. W. Broadfoot, Major E. J. Hale, Messrs. J. A. Oates and H. L. Cook.

In the absence from the hall of the committee, the meeting was addressed eloquently by Hon. J. G. Shaw, ex-member of congress, an acquaintance of the dead president, and afterwards by Messrs. J. H. Myrover, G. R. McKethan, A. A. McCaskill, E. R. Rose, W. C. Troy, H. McDuffie, H. L. Cook, Messrs. J. A. Oates, H. I. McDuffie, and H. L. Cook.

Colonel C. W. Broadfoot, Major E. J. Hale, Captain A. B. Williams, Dr. T. D. Haigh, Dr. J. W. McNeill, with a closing excellent address from Professor E. E. Smith, principal of the State Normal school, who was minister to Liberia under Cleveland's administration.

The resolutions offered by the committee through the chairman, Mr. A. H. Slocomb, were adopted by a rising vote. It was decided that during the funeral services of the late President McKinley, the bells of the city will be tolled, the places of business will be closed and the citizens of Fayetteville will assemble in the churches or in some public hall in solemn observance of the occasion.

While at work on a gravel train of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad yesterday, Joe Hollen, a negro, fell from the car, and his foot was crushed under the wheels. It was amputated by Dr. J. V. McGowan, and the man was sent to the company's hospital at Rocky Mount.

Funeral drapings in tribute to the dead president adorn the fronts of the armory of the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, the Hotel Lafayette, the Bank of Fayetteville, the insurance office of Mr. John Underwood, the postoffice, the National Bank and the stores of Messrs. M. F. Crawford & Co., Williams and Jessup Bros., King Bros., Cape Fear Dry Goods Company, F. W. Thornton.

Fayetteville, September 16. Yesterday afternoon two negro boys and three girls, between the ages of 10 and 14 years, children of Harrison and Roberts, fishermen, got into a boat at the mouth of the river, and were pulled out the bateau was overturned by striking against a flat, and two of the girls were drowned, though Jim Harris, by efforts that were little short of heroic, saved one girl and the other boy. Up to noon today only one body had been recovered.

High praise from scholarly and discriminating critics is liberally bestowed upon the sermon delivered in St. John's Episcopal church yesterday morning by the rector, Rev. Isaac W. Hughes. Its subject was the death of President McKinley, which was handled with matchless force.

This afternoon the committees meet to arrange the booths and make other preparations for the forthcoming fair of the Knights of Pythias, which promises to be an entertainment of unusual attractions.

(Special to the Messenger.)

Raleigh, N. C., September 16.—Governor Aycock refuses to pardon Mallett and Mehegan, convicted of swindling at Tarboro. They must serve their two year term of imprisonment.

The governor when asked today what he thought of the suit brought by the sheriff of Washington county to force the corporation commission to assess railway franchises this year, said the commission had recommended that there be no assessment until 1903, and that in a special message to the legislature upon which the legislature had promptly acted and that it was the legislative will that there be no assessment this year. The obligation and agreement was one he intended to observe.

A telegram to the governor this afternoon informed him that there would be no place for state troops in the funeral ceremonies. The order for the Raleigh companies to go was therefore, revoked.

The state board of education today, in compliance with the rural free library act, issued warrants covering ninety-nine such libraries these being in following counties: Alamance 5, Alleghany 1, Anson 6, Beaufort 1, Chatham 1, Durham 1, Forsyth 3, Franklin 1, Gaston 2, Greene 6, Henderson 3, Iredell 6, Lincoln 4, Madison 6, Nash 6, Northampton 3, Orange 6, (including one colored), Randolph 1, Rockingham 1, Rowan 4, Union 4, Warren 4, Wayne 2, Wayne 6, Wilkes 2. "I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so weak from the effects of the diarrhoea that I could do no kind of labor, could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after taking several bottles, am now pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in reach of all who suffer as I have." Washington, September 16.—Several militia organizations in the south, including the Georgia City Guard of Atlanta, Ga., have applied to the war department for a place in line in the procession at Canton, Ohio, on the occasion of the funeral ceremonies of the late President McKinley. ## John Most Arraigned

New York, September 16.—John Most was arraigned in police court today charged with having violated section 575 of the penal code, by publishing an article tending to disturb the public peace. He told the magistrate that he would conduct his own defense. The article in The Freiheit which constituted alleged offense and which was headed "The Freiheit's Reprint from a book published fifty-five years ago and previously re-produced by him in The Freiheit fifteen years ago. He argued that as the number of The Freiheit in which the article last appeared was not distributed until Friday September 6th it could not have inspired the assassination of President McKinley.

At the afternoon session Most presented a receipt from a news company to show that the paper, containing the article headed "The Freiheit's Reprint," was not published until Friday, September 6th. On the request of the district attorney, the magistrate said he would hold Most for trial, although he did not think that the article had been printed because of the Buffalo crime. He fixed bail at $500.

CZOLGOSZ IN THE COURT

ARRAIGNED ON INDICTMENT FOR MURDER FOUND BY GRAND JURY.

HE DECLINES TO PLEAD OR SPEAK

Trying to Play the Insanity Dodge—He Pays no Attention to Questions From the Court as to Employment of Counsel or Pleading—Arraignment Postponed and Two Prominent Lawyers Assigned to Defend Him—Precautions to Protect Him From Mob Violence.

Buffalo, September 16.—Leon Czolgosz alias Frederick Neiman, was indicted today by the county court grand jury for the crime of murder in the first degree in fatally shooting President William McKinley at the Temple of Music in the Pan-American exposition grounds at 4:15 o'clock on the afternoon of September 6th.

When arraigned before Judge Edward K. Emory in the county court, the prisoner stubbornly refused to answer questions repeatedly asked of him by District Attorney Penny as to whether he had counsel or wanted counsel. The district attorney then suggested that, inasmuch as the defendant refused to answer, counsel should be assigned.

Judge Emory assigned Hon. Lorain L. Lewis and Hon. Robert C. Titus, former supreme court justices of this city, whose names had been suggested by the Erie county bar association.

Czolgosz probably will be arraigned at the morning session to plead to the indictment.

District Attorney Penny presented the evidence in the murder case to the grand jury.

Aside from the surgeons and physicians in the case, no witnesses were sworn other than those who were in the Temple of Music and witnessed the shooting. The complete list of witnesses in the order in which they appeared to testify is as follows: Dr. Herman Myer, Dr. H. P. Gafford, Dr. H. G. Matzinger, Dr. M. D. Mann, Secret Service Detective Gallagher, Attorney James I. Quackenbush, Attorney Louis L. Babcock, Harry Henshaw, Capt. J. Damer and Patrolman Merkel of the Buffalo police; Corporal Louis Perschey and Privates Neff, O'Brien, Fennelbaugh and James, of the Seventh coast artillery; A. C. Knapp, Mrs. Vanderburg Davis, Captain Valley, chief of the Erie county detectives; Superintendent Bull and Assistant Superintendent P. V. Cusack, of the local police department; Fred Leisher, Charles J. Close, Exposition Guards Westfelder and James and Detectives Carey and Cusack of this city.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon exactly ten days after the shooting, the grand jury voted unanimously to indict Czolgosz for murder in the first degree.

At 4:41 o'clock the secret indictment was presented to Judge Emory in the county court.

Then ensued a wait of an hour, but the rumor that the murderer was to be arraigned spread and in short time the court room was crowded.

The secrecy was maintained as to the place of confinement of the prisoner, but it is believed that he was located in the temporary jail at the Erie county penitentiary where prisoners have been kept while the jail has been undergoing repairs. After the indictment was reported, the prisoner was driven from the penitentiary, a mile from the city hall, to the jail across the street from the hall. Czolgosz was then taken under strong guard from the jail through the tunnel under Delaware avenue to the basement of the city hall and up the stairs to the court room on the second floor.

The prisoner was shackled to a detective and another detective held him under the guard rails. Superintendent Cusack marching in front and a number of patrolmen behind. When the prisoner was taken before the bench, the crowd in the court room surged about him on all sides. They were compelled to resume their seats.

Czolgosz is of medium height, of fairly good build and has light curly hair, but a ten days' growth of beard on his face gave him an unkempt appearance. Apparently feeble, nervous, and nervous, but his eyes were always downcast. Not once did he look the county prosecutor or the judge in the face.

"Czolgosz have you got a lawyer? Do you wish a lawyer? You have been indicted for murder in the first degree; do you wish a lawyer?"

"No," he answered, "I do not wish a lawyer."

"Do you wish a lawyer?"

"No," he answered, "I do not wish a lawyer."

"Do you wish a lawyer?"

"No," he answered, "I do not wish a lawyer."

"Do you wish a lawyer?"

"No," he answered, "I do not wish a lawyer."

"Do you wish a lawyer?"

"No," he answered, "I do not wish a lawyer."

"Do you wish a lawyer?"

"No," he answered, "I do not wish a lawyer."

DO YOU WANT A LAWYER TO DEFEND YOU?

Czolgosz look at me and answer? District Attorney Penny asked these at the prisoner, his voice rising with each succeeding question, but Czolgosz stubbornly refused to answer. The district attorney respectfully suggested that counsel be assigned to defend the prisoner and ascertain what he had better do as to his plea to the indictment before the arraignment. Judge Emory then asked the prisoner before the bar if he had counsel, but there was no answer, despite the fact that the police officers told him the judge was speaking and that he must answer.

The court then said: "Czolgosz, you having appeared for arraignment in the court, without counsel, the law makes it the duty of the court to assign counsel. The bar association of our county has considered the matter and suggested the names of certain gentlemen of high character for such assignment. The court has seriously considered the question and after much consideration has concluded to follow the suggestions made by the association. The court, therefore, assigns the Hon. Lorain L. Lewis and Hon. Robert C. Titus as your counsel."

Judge Emory directed the officers to notify the attorneys and remove the prisoner.

Czolgosz was handcuffed to the detectives who started out of the court room with him. The crowd surged after them, but found the exit barred by policemen.

Outside the court room door, the prisoner was surrounded by the policemen and hurried down stairs into the basement, whence he was taken through the tunnel to the jail across Delaware avenue. Whether he was left there for the night or taken elsewhere, the police refused to say.

District Attorney Penny said that Judge Lewis and Titus would be notified and given an opportunity to talk with the prisoner and that he hoped to arraign Czolgosz tomorrow.

REBUILD THE KIDNEYS

Any kidney or bladder trouble is a serious one and should be early and thoroughly treated. The kidneys are slow to yield to disease and when they do, overwork is the usual cause. An affected kidney is an exhausted one, impure blood has weakened it; the remedy needed is one that will restore strength and rebuild the kidney itself. This Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic will do. It has been doing it for forty-five years and no other remedy has ever been held in such universal favor.

The kidneys filter impurities out of the blood. When the blood is bad the kidneys get clogged with these poisons. Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic cures by neutralizing the impurities, by hastening their expulsion, by building up the tissues of the kidneys, and by giving these troubles it is also repairing all the delicate machinery of the body.

This is the best of all tonics. It does everything that any ordinary tonic can do and very many important things that other remedies cannot do. Nor can it do anything but good; it is absolutely harmless, and can be given to support the strength and to hasten the cure of any invalid, young or old. Ordinary iron sometimes harms, but the iron in Harter's Tonic is in such form that it does no harm. It enriches the blood, strengthens the stomach, and aids digestion. Made by Dr. Harter Medicine Co., Dayton, Ohio. Sold everywhere.

ROOSEVELT OUTLINES HIS POLICY

Extension of Reciprocity—Abolition of Certain Tariff Duties—An Isthmian Canal—American Merchant Marine.

Buffalo, September 16.—President Roosevelt has outlined in some detail the policy he will follow during his incumbency of office. It will be remembered that when he took the oath of office he stated with much definiteness: "It shall be my aim to continue absolutely unbroken the policy of President McKinley for the peace and the prosperity and the prosperity and the prosperity of the country."

Yesterday the President gathered together some personal friends in Buffalo and those members of the cabinet who were here and gave to them such ideas as he had already formulated for the conduct of public affairs and his own policy. In no sense are they divergent from what has been understood as Mr. McKinley's policy. This policy, as outlined to his friends at yesterday's conference, will be for:

A more liberal and extensive reciprocity in the purchase and sale of commodities so that the over-production of this country can be satisfactorily disposed of by fair and equitable arrangements with foreign countries. This abolition entirely of commercial war with other countries and the adoption of reciprocity treaties.

The abolition of such tariff on foreign goods as are no longer needed for home use, if such abolition can be had without harm to our industries and labor.

Direct commercial lines should be established between the eastern coast of the United States and the ports in South America and the Pacific coasts of Mexico, Central America and South America.

The encouraging of the merchant marine and the building of ships which will carry the American flag and be owned and controlled by Americans and American capital.

The building and completion as soon as possible of the Isthmian canal so as to give direct water communication with the coast of Central America, South America and Mexico.

The construction of a cable owned by the government connecting our mainland with our foreign possessions, notably the Philippines.

The use of conciliatory methods of arbitration in all disputes with foreign nations so as to avoid armed strife.

The protection of the savings of the people in banks and in other forms of investments by the preservation of the commercial prosperity of the country and the placing in positions of trust men of only the highest integrity.

Pan-American Exposition to Close October 31st

Those who have not yet visited this marvelous wonderland are reminded that the time is growing short. In order to permit every citizen in the territory traversed by its lines to take this trip, the Seaboard Air Line railway has placed in effect a rate of practically one fare for the round trip to and from the exposition.

Tickets will be on sale September 30 to October 20th, inclusive, tickets good to return within twenty days from date of sale. This liberal concession should meet with a hearty response on the part of the traveling public, and many will doubtless avail themselves of the opportunity of attending this last and largest of national expositions.

AT THE UNIVERSITY

Professors and Students Hold Joint Memorial Exercises

(Special to The Messenger.)

Chapel Hill, N. C., September 16.—Very appropriate exercises were held at the university today at the last morning recitation hour in memory of the late President McKinley.

Dr. Venable called the meeting to order and made a short talk about the sad event.

Dr. Hume offered a most touching and feeling prayer.

Mr. Whitehead Klutts, on behalf of the students, made a most eloquent talk.

Judge MacRae delivered a few remarks and the appropriate resolutions were unanimously adopted.

All the addresses were very sincere and genuine in their expression of deep sympathy and universal indignation. President McKinley's private life was beautifully portrayed and his public life. He was cited as an example for young men. Confidence was expressed in President Roosevelt and in the continued life and growth of the republic. The meeting was largely attended and feeling of grief was very pronounced.

THE CHICAGO ANARCHISTS

Not Sufficient Evidence to Hold Them. To Be Released Today

Chicago, September 16.—Efforts to connect the Chicago anarchists with a plot to assassinate President McKinley will be abandoned and the prisoners probably will be released tomorrow. This decision was reached by the local authorities today.

Chief O'Neill received a letter from Chief of Police Bull, of Buffalo, early in the day announcing that, while the police there were still working to establish the connection of the assassination with the anarchists in Chicago and Cleveland, they had secured no tangible evidence.

Chief O'Neill is concerned for the safety of the anarchists, who probably will be released tomorrow on habeas corpus proceedings. He regards it as likely they will want, for the present to be allowed to stay in the county jail. It is feared their release just before the observance of the obsequies of the late president will be taken advantage of by violent persons.
