ADVICE to YOUNG MEN.

Here are the ten commandments for the guidance of prospective bridegrooms given by the Rev. Robert J. MacAlphine, of the Central Presbyterian church in a sermon at Buffalo.

1. Don't bank on beauty; it is unreliable as the weather.
2. Don't marry for talent, popularity, or wealth. Without love these would be as insipid as an egg without salt.
3. Don't let sentiment rule you. Like a flower, it is apt to fade before tomorrow.
4. Don't marry a woman whose stock of common sense is no greater than her dollars and cents. As no amount of the latter can buy the least amount of the former, you would likely soon be a hopeless insolvent.
5. Don't propose to a young woman whose tongue isn't silent during the sermon. She has a sermon in store for you.
6. Don't marry a girl who thinks more of a good time than a good name. Your good time would very probably never arrive.
7. Don't choose a young woman who is more concerned about how she looks than how she acts. One is what she appears to be, the other is what she is.
8. Don't marry your opposite in religion. Your religion is likely to outlive your love.
9. Don't marry till your heart and hand are as clean as those you have won. Black and white mixed makes both a dull gray.
10. Don't marry in haste. For the sake of at least two lives keep in mind, the modern key-words: "Safety first" and preparedness."

A man can be against the proposed bond issue and be just as good a citizen as the man for it. Men differ in their views and both sides are entitled to their opinions. Evidently at the last election there were many good men voting against the measure.

Captain Dallas Zollicoffer spent Sunday here.

CAREFUL WORDS

For many a High Point Household

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed—to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has suffered will prove helpful to hundreds of High Point readers.

Mrs. R. B. Welborn, 313 E. Washington St., High Point, says: "I am always willing to testify to the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills, for I know that they live up to the claims made for them in every way. I was afflicted with kidney complaint for more than five years and my back was so lame and sore that it was hard for me to move. Spots often appeared before my eyes and I became so dizzy that I could not stand. I took Doan's Kidney Pills according to directions and they restored me to better health than I had known for many years."

Here at last is the GOOD WORD for those who have been looking for those beautiful dinner sets The Review announced two months ago. As a word of explanation: We confidently expected the shipment in March but strikes at the factory delayed it until now. Prices since have soared to twice the amount at which we placed our order and we could have canceled the order and made far more out of it than we will get by our offer, but we never disappoint our readers or make a promise we don't expect to fulfill without the impossibility "turns up" afterwards. In fact we can now sell the 500 sets at wholesale AT A HIGHER FIGURE than we are asking you at retail. The very same sets we are now offering you retail everywhere for more than three times what we are asking.

We are Making You this Wonderful Offer to Get You to Subscribe to The Review.

Or if a present subscriber, pay up to date and the amount asked and you get the dinner set and The Review one year.

The sets are made by the celebrated Worcester China Co., and are guaranteed REAL CHINA.
