

Don't Forget

Our repair department strictly high class workmanship and scientific principals employed. Fine watch repairing and adjusting a specialty. Diamonds remounted, jewelry, repairing and special order work of all kinds. Have your work done right and at lowest prices consistent with quality.

GEO. E. BISANAR
Jeweler and Registered Optometrist.

TOILET REQUISITES

For Lady, Gentlemen, Baby, For Face, Hands, Nails, Hair, Teeth. Let us tell you about any or all of them.

GRIMES & MURPHY Druggists
"On the Corner."

The Hickory Daily Record
$4.00 a Year in Advance

HATS - TRIMMINGS

---We Have What You Want---

ONLY THE BEST IN MILLINERY

Miss Mary Rosebrough

Bowles Furniture Co.
Sells Coffins, Caskets, Robes, Etc.

JUST ARRIVED

A Full Line of Fresh Candies

From the factory. Regular prices 30c, our special price 20c per pound. Don't forget to buy your bread, cakes and pies at

The City Bakery
Phone 235

Boys Clothing

Now is the time to supply your wants in Suits and you will find our stock unusually complete with the best the markets afford. All the new patterns priced very reasonable.

$2.50 to $10.00

Moretz-Whitener Clo. Co.

"The Quality Shop."

Woman and Society

Mrs. E. L. Shuford and Miss Esther Ransom spent yesterday in Lenoir.

Mr. Joe Redmond of Lumberton is spending a few days in the city the guest of Mrs. T. T. Hamilton.

Miss Estelle Blackwell of Lenoir arrived in the city today to visit Miss Katherine Whitener a few days.

Miss Ethel Whitener of Davenport College, Lenoir, arrived in the city today to visit Miss Mabel Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cilley, Mr. and Mrs. Earl N. Carr and Messrs. G. N. Hutton, L. H. Warlick and W. J. Reid attended the Caldwell County Fair last evening and report that it was "good." The fireworks and balloon ascension last night were witnessed by a large crowd.

Miss Bonner Hostess.
Miss Emma Bonner was hostess to the Do-As-You-Please Club yesterday afternoon. It was decided to leave the club as an embroidery club until after the first of the year, then changing it to a book club. After an hour spent socially, refreshments were served. The next meeting of the club will be with Miss Constance Bost.

Entertains Embroidery Club.
Mrs. Joe Abernethy Frida" afternoon entertained the Embroidery Club when twelve members responded to roll call with anecdotes. During the hour devoted to needle-work the hostess read the opening chapter of "Martha by the Day" which the club has decided to use for club reading. Before adjournment dainty refreshments in two courses were served and all lingered long with this popular hostess in her lovely suburban home.

With Miss Martin.
The As-You-Like-It Club met with Miss Marv Blount Martin Friday afternoon. Seven members were present, and they played their favorite game "Elain Dodge and the Missing Torpedo," with Miss Louise Cilley as Elain Dodge, Miss Alice Lyerly as Professor Arnold, Miss Clarissa Abernethy as Walter Jameson and Miss Charlotte Garth as Marcus Del Mar. Misses Catherine Menzies, Alice Cilley and Mary Blount Martin were confederates of Del Mar. Delicious refreshments were served and the club adjourned to meet with Miss Clarissa Abernethy.

The J. S. J. A. Meets.
The J. S. J. A. Society composed of the girls of the Junior and senior classes, met in the high school Thursday. The meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Oneita Miller. The roll was then called and each answered with quotations from Shakespeare. The constitution of the society was read by Miss Lenore Sourbeer. Miss Aliene York was elected literary critic. The motto was then voted to be—"Git up and git, not sit up and sit." After the business was transacted the following literary program was carried out: Reading—Life of Shakespeare, by Hattie Fox. Reading—Portia's Speech, Neva Edminister. Song—Juanita, by five girls. Recitation—Sweet and Twenty, by Frances Peterson. Current Events—Amy Cansler. Recitation—"The Retort," Oneita Miller. Recitation—From Shakespeare, by Mary Abernethy. Reading—Mark Anthony's speech, by Essie Newton. The meeting closed with a song by the entire society.

Mr. W. J. Shuford and Mr. Aldis Henderson attended the fair at Marion yesterday.
Mr. Alex Shuford returned last night from Charlotte, where he spent several days.
Mr. Geo. E. Bisanar has returned from New York, where he selected fall and holiday goods for his jewelry store.
Mr. W. A. Self and Mr. A. S. Abernethy are attending court at Morganton.
Mr. James Fry of Newton is spending the week-end with his parents on Tenth avenue.

SPECIAL SERMON TO JUNIORS TOMORROW

Rev. S. B. Stroup, rector of the Church of the Ascension, will deliver a special sermon tomorrow morning to the local council, Jr. O. U. A. M., and all members are urged to be present. Hickory Juniors are standing with their brethren in all parts of the country in all good works, notably public education, and the local council is extending its usefulness. Mr. Stroup will have a message for the members tomorrow.

Doctor—"Your throat is in bad shape. Have you ever tried gargling with salt water?"
"Rather. I've been shipwrecked twice."—Life.

Church Directory

Reformed.
Joseph L. Murphy, pastor. Sunday school at 9:45. B. B. Blackwelder, superintendent. D. P. Smith, president of the Baraca class, Miss Mabel Miller, president of the Philathea class. Mrs. H. C. Menzies, superintendent of the primary department. Preaching at 11 o'clock by the pastor, subject, "Selling the Birthright." Evening services at 7:30 o'clock, music by junior choir. Two enthusiastic meetings were held during the week. The first was held on Monday and was a meeting of the women, when plans were laid to hold the quarter-centennial reception in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of Doctor Murphy's pastorate. The second was held Wednesday night and was a meeting of the men. An organization was formed with J. W. Warlick president, Hugh D'Anna secretary and S. L. Whitener treasurer. This organization is composed of persons who have united with the church under the pastorate of Doctor Murphy and will hold the first public meeting on Sunday, Nov. 7, when a popular meeting will be held at 3 o'clock. The program for the celebration of Doctor Murphy's twenty-fifth anniversary is as follows: Friday night, November 5, reception; Sunday, November 7, at 11 a. m., anniversary service, 3 p. m., services by persons who have united with the church under present pastorate. Sunday night, untied services under the auspices of the "Pastors Association of Hickory."

Church of the Ascension.
Rev. S. B. Stroup, rector. 7:30 Holy Communion. 11, morning prayer and service. 7:30, evening prayer and sermon. Sunday school at 9:45. M. H. Yount, superintendent. Wednesday evening service at 7:30. The Jr. O. U. A. M. will attend the morning service in a body.
West Hickory Methodist.
Rev. E. O. Smithdeal, pastor. Service at 11 o'clock a. m., and at 7:15 p. m. Sunday school at 9:45. W. L. Newton, superintendent. Prayer meeting Wednesday night at 7:15. Subject of sermon Sunday morning, "The Witness of the Spirit." Subject at night, "The Social Gospel."
First Presbyterian
Services Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and evening at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. C. B. Heller of Spencer, will preach at both services. Christian Endeavor Society meets at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday night. All are cordially invited.
Christ Evangelical Lutheran.
(Mo. Synod.)
Martin J. Heinicke, pastor. Morning services at 10:45. Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Evening services at 7:30. Subject of evening service: "The Parable of the Wicked Husbandmen." Mt. 21:33-44.

HOFFMAN-CARTER.

Forthcoming Marriage of Popular Young Couple Announced. Invitations reading as follows have been received in the city:

Mrs. Elizabeth Carter requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter Lilly Basselt to Mr. Joseph Filson Hoffman, Jr. on the afternoon of Thursday, November the fourth, nineteen hundred and fifteen, at half after four o'clock At Home Albemarle North Carolina At Home after November the twentieth Hickory, North Carolina.

Mr. Hoffman, who is a registered pharmacist with the Lutz Drug Store of this city, has a statewide acquaintance and in addition to his hundreds of personal friends is known everywhere as an unusually fine athlete. During his college days at the University of North Carolina, where he secured his pharmacy and master's degrees, Mr. Hoffman made a reputation as a sprinter, having broken the southern intercollegiate half-mile record in 1909 and the quarter-mile record in 1910. He is an unusually popular young man and has added numerous friends during his residence in Hickory.

Miss Carter was educated at Asheville and for the past four years has been teaching. She is a cultured and charming young woman and will receive a cordial welcome to Hickory.

OBSERVATIONS

Rev. J. G. Garth, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will be absent over Sunday, holding a series of meetings in Spencer, for the Rev. C. B. Heller.

Mr. J. L. Bloggt and family have recently moved to Hickory and are residing on 17th street. Mr. Bloggt is with the C. & N.-W. Railway.

Rev. W. E. Murray will preach at both services at Holy Trinity Lutheran church tomorrow. The Brotherhood will meet at 3 o'clock the second and third commandments being discussed. Mr. William P. Huffman is president.

PERSONALS

Mr. W. J. Shuford and Mr. Aldis Henderson attended the fair at Marion yesterday.

Mr. Alex Shuford returned last night from Charlotte, where he spent several days.

Mr. Geo. E. Bisanar has returned from New York, where he selected fall and holiday goods for his jewelry store.

Mr. W. A. Self and Mr. A. S. Abernethy are attending court at Morganton.

Mr. James Fry of Newton is spending the week-end with his parents on Tenth avenue.

INCREASED INTEREST IN HICKORY LIBRARY

At a meeting of the governing board of the Hickory Library Association yesterday evening a very favorable report was received as to increased interest in the association and its work. A gratifying increase in books taken out was reported, and Mrs. J. W. Elliott reported good progress in her efforts to raise more funds for new books. A committee was appointed to look over the constitution and by-laws for any suggested amendments that may be desired. A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Charles Baoby for the interest he has manifested in getting the active support of college alumni in library work in the county.

Lutz's Drug Store
"ON THE CORNER."
17—Phones—317.

Hub Theatre Today

"MIKE'S ESCAPE,"
Detective Drama.
Kalem, in two parts and a good Comedy.
Monday.
"NEAL OF THE NAVY."
A Paramount feature Wednesday.

Open From 2:30 to 10:30

HICKORY LIBRARY ASSOCIATION
Second Floor Elliott Building.
MISS JESSIE JOY, Librarian.
Reading Room Open
Every Afternoon (except Sunday)
3 to 5.
Tuesday and Saturday Evenings
7 to 9.
Current magazines on the table.
Everybody welcome.

PRESIDENT HINSHAW TO PREACH HERE TOMORROW

In the absence of Rev. A. L. Stanford who is conducting a revival meeting at Elizabeth City, the pulpit of the First Methodist church will be filled tomorrow by President Hinshaw of Rutherford College. President Hinshaw is a man of power, and Mr. Stanford assured his congregation last Sunday that they would get much out of the services tomorrow.

Cotton planters in Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Texas are warned by the national department of agriculture of a wide-spread movement of the boll weevil and advised to take immediate steps to kill off the pest this winter.

Studebaker

FOUR-FORTY $885.

Abernethy Hardware Co.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The same strong, serviceable Ford car—but at a lower price. Prices lower than ever. Runabout $390; Touring Car $440; Town Car $640, f. o. b., Detroit. On sale at Hickory Garage Co.

ELLIOTT BUILDING

PHONE 265

A New Shipment

OF

Nunnally's Candies

By Todays Express

Menzies Drug Company

The Jexall Store
Phone 46.

See Us for Good Printing

$10.00

Will Buy You A-No. 1 All Wool Man Tailored

Satin Lined Suit

Will look and wear like it had cost twice the money. Other suits at $12.50, $15.00, $18.00 $20.00 and $22.50 in

Pain and Fur Trimmed

If you haven't visited our Suit Department you should do so.

J. A. BOWLES