TRY A RECORD WANT

1916 Studebaker SIX Fifty H.P. $1050

50 Horse Power

And the price is $1050, remember. $1050 for a 50 horse power car!

Never before in the history of the automobile industry has so powerful a car been priced so low. It is the most powerful 6-cylinder car ever built for its weight. The new motor has a 5-inch stroke and a 3 3/4 inch bore and exhibits many important improvements in design that make it a wonder to drive. It's the snappiest, most responsive and smoothest running motor you ever sat back of.

And we are eager to have you come in and see the car and ride in it. For you can never appreciate how good that new motor is until you have had your own hands on the wheel—and taken the car up a hill or thro' a stretch of rough going.

So come in. But—don't expect a "Little Six" built to fit that price of $1050. This 1916 Studebaker Six is a big, roomy, handsome, 7-passenger 122-inch wheel base car, and yet it is not heavy! And with even higher quality than ever.

"The German government has had no reason to ask for the withdrawal of Mr. Whitlock, since his personality and his personal activity have never caused dissatisfaction."

Hoffman-Carter. An Albemarle special to the Charlotte Observer today says:

"This afternoon at 4:30 o'clock the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Carter was the scene of one of the most beautiful home weddings solemnized in this section for many years, when her daughter, Miss Lily Carter, became the bride of Mr. Joseph Filson Hoffman, Jr., of Hickory. Mrs. J. R. Price sang 'At Dawning' just before the bride entered the parlor.

"To the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. R. E. Brooks, neice of the bride, little Miss Johnnie Mabry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Mabry, Jr., entered bearing the wedding ring on a silver tray on which was engraved the wedding invitation. The groom entered with his brother, Mr. P. S. Hoffman of High Point. The bride entered on the arm of her sister, Mrs. John H. Hawley of Goldsboro. Mr. G. Tuttle, pastor of Central Methodist church performed the ceremony. Mrs. Hawley was matron of honor.

"Mr. Hoffman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hoffman of High Point. The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Carter. Following the ceremony they left on a southern bridal tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman will arrive in Hickory November 15 and will be at home at Mrs. W. T. Sledge's. The bride will receive a warm welcome here.

Sparrow Whips Ostrich

An English sparrow, drunk on a whiskey tonic prepared by an American eagle, fought a winning battle in Woodland Park, Seattle, with a California-bred ostrich. The sparrow got the tonic by stealth. "I put down the pan for a moment," Dr. Gustav Kundsens, keeper, explained, "and returning found the sparrow helping himself. When I attempted to remove the pan he pecked my hand sharply several times and then flew in my face. I hit him a sharp rap, and he flew to the ostrich enclosure. Big Jim, the male, came strutting along and made a thrust at the sparrow. "Cussing in sparrow talk, the bird alighted on the head of his adversary and tried to shake him. Failing in this, he attacked Jim's eyes with beak and claws. Jim didn't have a fighting chance, and finally hid his shamed head under his wing of his companion for protection."—New York American.

WILMINGTON'S WAY

A Bulletin by the State Board of Health

A bulletin by the state board of health says:

Wilmington now employs two whole time district nurses. The Wilmington Dispatch says: "This community has for a long time had a district nurse, a graduate nurse and one of the best who has done this work, being backed by an organization, and several months ago another trained nurse was placed in the field by the health department. So with this combination, we believe Wilmington can claim to be the leader in this fine work, though there is glory enough for all."

If other towns wonder why Wilmington affords two district nurses with so much ease when they are not yet affording one, a few facts and figures relative to the sale of Red Cross Christmas seals from Mrs. Suthbert Martin of Wilmington, will be more or less explanatory. According to Mrs. Martin, a Red Cross Society was organized there in 1908 with only eight members. That year they purchased Red Cross seals and sold seals to the value of $415.70. Early the next year a graduate nurse was secured "whose work and worth to the community," says Mrs. Martin, "became invaluable." In 1909, $473.68 were realized from selling seals. Each year brought an increase, raising as high as $1,006.14 in 1913. Last year, owing to the general financial depression, they fell back to $927.43.

What Wilmington is doing with Red Cross Seals is not only of great importance in a material way to that city but is an inspiration to other towns needing the services of a district or community nurse.

Her Part.

On Saturday a crowd of children were playing war in the back yard. Some were English soldiers, some French, some German. One little girl, who was told she was too small to play, began crying audibly, and kept it up in spite of all they could do, and even after the warring: "If you don't shut up mother will hear you and make you come in the house."

Finally the difficulty was settled by a bright boy of ten. "Oh, let her bawl!" he counselled. "She can be the widows and orphans."—Liverpool Post.

INJURED BY AUTOMOBILE

The Statesville Landmark says: Messrs. Wade Surratt and Henry Hill, two young men of Statesville were en route home from Charlotte yesterday afternoon when their machine turned over about seven miles out from Charlotte and young Hill was seriously if not fatally injured. Surratt escaped injury.

The car was rounding a curve, at rapid speed, when it struck a depression and turned over. Surratt was caught under the car and escaped injury. Hill was thrown some distance and suffered internal injuries. He was taken to the Presbyterian hospital in Charlotte and underwent an operation last night. SEVENTY YEARS OLD

Raleigh, Nov. 5.—Governor Craig presided for the celebration of the 70th anniversary of the founding of the North Carolina state school for the blind, and in brief remarks that he made took occasion to treat the matter of paying taxes from the viewpoint that the citizenship as taxpayers are not paying so much for the salaries of office holders as they are for the maintenance of the great institutions of the state, such as that for the blind children, and for internal improvements, construction of highways, and the support of the public schools for the education of the masses of the people.
