A REAL PRICE REDUCTION

The long deferred hope of many homes is about to be realized: the hope that some day Piano prices would be back to something like old-time prices. Our sole aim and desire in inaugurating this price reduction on all Pianos and Player-Pianos is to reduce our stock down to the lowest notch possible. We are overstocked. We admit it. And we are willing to sacrifice profit in order to unload. The Piano buyers of this community will be gainers. Every instrument will go at a remarkable saving. The stock, while complete and varied, is limited, and our advice to you is to make an early visit to our display room, in order to secure choice selection.
