Williams-West.

A marriage of unusual beauty was that on Wednesday evening at the Methodist church, when Miss Mamie Nicholson West was united in marriage to Mr. William Archibald Williams.

The church was beautifully decorated with southern smilax on a white background. In the center over the choir rail was a white wedding bell suspended over a pedestal on which was a flower basket of smilax, and on the posts at the entrance of the chancel were smaller baskets of smilax.

Just before the appointed hour Mrs. Fred Dickinson entered with Mr. Perry West and took her place at the organ, gowned in a yellow crepe meteor trimmed in white, wearing a corsage of lilies. Mr. James Withers, accompanied by Mrs. Dickinson at the organ, sang delightfully "The Message of the Rose."

Immediately afterwards Mrs. Dickinson played Mendelssohn's march and the wedding party entered the church, down opposite aisles, crossing in front of the altar and took their places; Messrs. Perry West and Marshall French, Misses Concord Leak wearing periwinkle crepe meteor, and Addie Webb in rose charmuse; Messrs. Pittman and James West, Misses Emma Lucas Warde in Nile green taffeta and Miss Frances Armfield in Harding blue satin crepe, followed by Messrs. Frazier Croff and James Withers. Then came the little flower girls, Jessie Steele Simmons and Sarah McNair, both dressed in bouffant dresses of blue tulle, carrying each a white lily.

Then came the ring bearer, Master Russell West, with the ring in the heart of a lily. Following came Miss Berta West, sister of the bride, and maid of honor, gowned in a yellow crepe meteor and net embroidered in crystal beads. The bridesmaids all carried arm bouquets of Easter lilies and ferns. The bride was petite and beautiful in her wedding gown of brocade satin and lace, with train draped from the shoulders. Her veil, reaching to the end of the train, was arranged coronet fashion, with a bandeau of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white bride roses and valley lilies, with the shower of valley lilies. The bride came in with her father, Mr. Jas. T. West, and met the groom with his best man, Mr. George Entwistle, Jr., at the altar. The ceremony was read by Rev. Bruce Benton and Rev. A. L. Ormond, using the double ring ceremony. The bridal party left the church by opposite aisles. During the ceremony Mrs. Dickinson played softly, "To a Wild Rose."

The reception following the ceremony at the church was a very elaborate affair. The presents were numerous and handsome, attesting the popularity of the bride and groom. The couple left on the 11 o'clock train for a week's stay in New York.

Tuesday Mrs. J. W. Leak entertained at a beautifully appointed luncheon in honor of the West-Williams wedding party. Spring flowers were used in profusion, the center piece being an exquisite basket of yellow jonquils. Covers were laid for ten, the places being found by dainty hand-painted pompadour place cards. Cream tomato soup and accessories, turkey with dressing, English peas, new potatoes, olives, hot biscuit, scalloped egg plant, tomatoes stuffed with celery, nuts on lettuce, crackers, orange ice with fruit cake, and mints were served. Guests were Misses Mamie West, Geraldine Smith, Emma Lucas Ward, Frances Armfield, Addie Webb, Berta West, Mesdames Clements and Frank Leak.

Saturday evening of last week, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall French entertained at a very beautiful party, honoring the bride of this week, Miss Mamie West. Spring flowers were used throughout the house, in baskets and vases. Games of all kinds were enjoyed, dancing, singing, a bit of conversation, etc. The hostess served delicious refreshments during the evening.

Wednesday Mrs. Frank Leak entertained at a perfectly appointed luncheon in honor of Miss Mamie West and her bridesmaids. The color motif was white and green. The center piece on the dining table was a basket of lilies, candy tuft and snow drops. Plates were laid for ten and a four-course luncheon served, consisting of lemon ice, fried chicken, peas, creamed potatoes, baked apples, rice and gravy, congealed fruit salad and tipsy pudding. Present were: Misses Mamie West, Frances Armfield, Emma Lucas Ward, Geraldine Smith, Berta West, Addie Webb, Concord Leak, Ruth Harrison, Elizabeth Cole.

Mesdames LeGrand Everett and W. N. Everett will go Tuesday to Greensboro to attend a Social Service Conference, it being the tenth annual meeting.

Mrs. Harvey Boney, of Rose Hill, corresponding secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary of the State, will spend Sunday here with Mrs. LeGrand Everett, on her way to attend and Council meeting in San Antonio.

Miss Concord Leak, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leak for several days, goes today to be the guest of Mrs. W. C. Leak for a few days.

The friends of Mrs. Mary Miles will regret to learn that her physician has advised her to go to Asheville for treatment; she will go about April 1st.

Mr. Ed. Patterson and family this week moved from Steele's Mills to Kannapolis.

Lonnie L. Williams, Jr.

On March 8th, 1922, the Death Angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Williams, Norman, and took their little son, Lonnie Williams, Jr. He was a very bright, sweet child, loved by all who knew him. It was such a shock to his parents, and so hard for them to give him up, but we must all submit to the Lord's will. He lacked only a few days of being two years old. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community in their loss.

Ninth Grade Gives Party.

The ninth grade of the Rockingham High School gave a very enjoyable party Friday night, March 17, St. Patrick's Day, in honor of the triangular debaters and the teachers of the High School at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Everett. After games, conversation, and music were indulged in for two hours, refreshments were served, including ice cream, cake and mints, carrying out the color scheme.

Important to all Women Readers of this Paper.

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease. If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased. You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition. Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be despondent; it makes any one so. But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions. Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine will do for them. By enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., you may receive sample size bottle by Parcel Post. You can purchase medium and large size bottles at all drug stores.

Saturday afternoon Miss Florence Covington was hostess at a very attractive party, honoring Miss Mamie Nicholson West—bride of this week. The parlor and living room were decorated in spring flowers and ivy. Tables were arranged for rook, and dainty heart-shaped cards, tied with real orange blossoms, directed the guests to their places, where two progressions were made, after which the hostess gave each a sheet of paper on which there was written an "Automobile Contest," with blanks left to be filled in with the parts of the automobile which were suggestive of the coming wedding and a honey-moon. Guests' favors, dainty bride and groom candy boxes filled with candies. To the honoree the hostess presented a exquisite white satin camisole. Misses Crawford Covington and Mary Little Steele served a salad course, with accessories, to the guests present: Miss Mamie West, honoree, Misses Berta West, Laura Page Steele, Mary Louise Everett and guest, Suzanne Pegues, Addie Webb, Concord Leak, Caroline Covington, Lucille Shores, Elizabeth Cole, Marie Covington, Mary Entwistle, Agnes Head, Anna Leak Ledbetter, Kate Finley, Rosa Steele, Mesdames Marshall French, Sam Steele, Steele Lowdermilk, Harvey Terry, L. J. Bell.

Miss Mattie Yates, who is nursing at Montrose, spent the week-end with Miss Esdale Shaw.

The Librarian is discontinuing the Sunday afternoon hours until further notice, as the attendance does not justify remaining open in the Spring and Summer months.

Mrs. LeGrand Everett spent two days last week in Wilmington where she went to attend a federation of Methodist women.

How Firestone Has Reduced the Cost of Tire Service

Size	Jan. 1921 Prices	Jan. 1922 Prices	Reduction
30 x 3 Fabric	$18.75	$ 9.85	47%
30 x 3 1/2 "	22.50	11.65	48%
30 x 3 1/2 Cord	35.75	17.50	51%
32 x 4 "	56.55	32.40	43%
33 x 4 1/2 "	67.00	42.85	36%
33 x 5 "	81.50	52.15	36%

HOW the cost of building quality tires has been brought down to the lowest level in history was explained by H. S. Firestone, President of the Company, to the stockholders at the annual meeting on December 15, 1921.

1. All inventories and commitments at or below the market.
2. Increased manufacturing efficiency and volume production reduced factory overhead 58%.
3. Selling costs reduced 38%.

Mr. Firestone stated, "This reduction in prices is made possible by our unusually advantageous buying facilities, and the enthusiasm, loyalty and determination of our 100% stockholding organization."

"Due credit must be given to Firestone dealers who are selling Firestone tires on a smaller margin of profit. This brings every Firestone saving direct to the car-owner."

The saving through first cost plus the saving through high mileage doubles Firestone economy and is daily adding new fame to the Firestone principle of service.
