

YANKTON DAILY PRESS AND DAKOTAIAN.

Vol. 1. YANKTON, DAKOTA TERRITORY, MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 26, 1875. No. 1.

NOT A FULL REPORT.

Owing to some misunderstanding between the operator at Sioux City and the parties with whom we have contracted for our telegraphic dispatches, we are unable to present to-day a full report. The matter will be arranged, and probably to-day.

The Reaction Around Porktown.

We have been shown a letter received yesterday morning by Mr. A. J. Sweetser, of Yankton, from Maj. Birkett, late U. S. agent of the Ponca Indians, written from a point not far from Sioux City, in which he states on the authority of one of the leading business men of western Iowa, that "The Black Hills clubs, I understand, of this section, are terribly down on Sioux City folks, and a reaction of feeling—cooling of enthusiasm about it—seems growing here."

THE SIOUX CITY SAND HILL PILGRIMS!

THEY DAMN SIOUX CITY!

And Threaten to Hang John Gordon!

From the Niobrara Pioneer, April 22.

Last Sunday we took a r.d. down to Kenma, a settlement about 10 miles north-east of Creighton on the Sioux City Black Hills route, and we had occasion to interview several of the heart-sickened immigrants to the land of gold. The person whom we gleaned most from was a leader of a Kansas party. We asked him as an introduction, how he liked the Sioux City route to the Black Hills. He replied, "It was a h—ll of a route," and went on to curse Sioux City in the strongest terms for sending them to make a road for that place. He said that this was their second Sunday out, and they only had made, in a bee line, about 100 miles and had gone over 75 miles out of their way to do that. They were obliged several times to let their wagons down by ropes over ravines, and often went around bluffs 10 or 20 miles to make a distance of 5 miles. Superintendent Meckling, of the Dakota Southern Railroad, offered them free passage to Yankton if they wanted to go, and just as they had almost made up their minds to go,

A SACK OF FLOUR TO A WAGON, with the promise of plenty more when they reached Creighton, at Sioux City prices, was given them as an inducement to cross at Sioux City. He says that the best men were very anxious and willing to help them away from the city, but they were by no means fulfilling their agreement in furnishing flour and a short route. If matters continued like this, the first opportunity. Captain Cox further said that it was represented to his party that all the country in Dakota beyond Yankton was an Indian reservation, but we informed him that they were obliged to enter no Indian country in going to the Hills by way of Yankton, Springfield and Niobrara. He said that he had written to other parties not to come this way, but to go the Cheyenne route. Captain Cox was very free with his declarations, and indeed so were all with whom we had any conversation. The Pioneer says further in a short editorial:

"Infinitely better for the whole Northwest would it have been had Sioux City acted fairly and squarely towards its supporters in directing the Black Hills parties on a traveled road to that spot. As it is, she has received the condemnation of every man, and Cheyenne, which is the farthest from the East than any other route, will receive a greater share of the travel to the Hills. Sioux City, for the sake of spitting Yankton, has in the end spited itself and lost the confidence of the miners, and probably will be the means of the death of Capt. John Gordon, one of their own citizens, for threats of hanging him have already been declared, which we have heard with our own ears."

I cut off twenty-seven from the ponies and demanded their surrender. My demand was answered by a volley, when I attacked them again, and after a desperate resistance they were all killed. Nineteen warriors, including two chiefs and medicine men, were among the dead. I captured one hundred and twenty-five ponies. The remainder of the Indians escaped with a part of their camp, consisting of 12 lodges and all of their effects. Sargent Passier and private Liggers of my command were killed.

OMAHA, April 24.—The situation on the U. P. railroad is unchanged since yesterday. A snow storm has prevailed over the entire line from Evanston to North Platte. Snow has fallen to a depth of five inches. All the delayed east bound passengers and mails passed the break this afternoon. It is supposed that all west bound passengers will move to-morrow. To-night it is difficult to tell just when the road will be in running order, but it is thought that by Tuesday the road will be passable.

His family was in a very destitute condition, Mrs. Mason approaching confinement. It is considered a very sad case as Mason stood well in the community. The Free Masons raised over $100 to send the family to Fon du Lac, Wis., where the parents of Mrs. Mason reside.

The flood here shows signs of abatement and trains are expected to run regularly by Monday.

Golden News From the Hills.

CHEYENNE, W. T., April 23.—The miners taken out by troops from the Union stockade in Custer's Gulch, Black Hills, are now on their way to this city from Ft. Laramie, and will arrive here to-morrow. Three of the party came in this evening in the stage in advance of the command, bringing back with them a sufficient amount of placer gold, and gold and silver bearing quartz to demonstrate that under more favorable auspices mining can be made profitable. There were two feet of snow in the hills at the time they left, and they reported the winter as having been unusually severe, rendering it all but impossible to do successful prospecting. It snowed for 3 days previous to their leaving the hills. They left on the 10th and arrived at Ft. Laramie under the military escort on the 18th. The party, composed of sixteen men one woman and a boy, are in good health, and all unite in praising the advantages and rich resources of the Black Hills and they desire to return to the hills. On account of the haste of the military to remove them from the hills one-half of the outfit and cattle were left behind. From the time they entered the hills until they departed they never saw an Indian.

They report deer, mountain sheep and wolves abundant, and say beaver are also plenty in the streams. The cattle and horses brought from the hills by the military got fat there on the grasses found in the valleys and hills. Chas. Collins, who left for Ft. Laramie last night, came in advance of the miners on the stage. They will come in government wagons Sunday and leave here on Monday.

Reports from Red Cloud and Spotted Tail agency say that numerous bands of miners are constantly pouring into the hills.

The Chiefs who go to Washington for the purpose of treating for the Black Hills are expected to leave here in a few days.

Religious Ceremonia.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Monsieur Renicotti, after delivering the pallium, the insignia of Arch Bishopate rank to Bishop Henry, of Milwaukee, will visit Canada himself with other members of the legation. They will return to New York this evening, accompanied by the very reverend Vicar General Quinn and right reverend Bishop Bayley, who has been dispatched by the Pope to the office of imposing the berretta on his eminence, Cardinal McCloskey. The only primates who have arrived thus far are the most reverend Archbishop Connelly, of Halifax, and right reverend Bishop Salpent, of Arizona. The demand for tickets of admission to the cathedral to witness the ceremony is extraordinary. In addition to archbishops, bishops and chiefs of the regular clergy of the country, almost one thousand persons are expected.

Brigham and His Ann Eliza.

SALT LAKE, April 24.—Brigham Young was supposed to appear to-day before Judge Lowe to show cause why he should not be held for contempt of court for failing to pay a fine of $100,000, the sum of five hundred dollars.

Death on the Mississippi—Three Vessels Burned and Several Lives Lost.

NEW ORLEANS, April 24.—About 4 o'clock this afternoon a fire broke out in the steamer John Kyle lying at foot of Poydras street. She drifted out in the stream and burned, communicating the flames to the steamers Bodman and Exporter, which also burned. Several lives were lost, among whom was the daughter of Capt. Rees of the Exporter, and Capt. Shrinkle of the Bodman. The three vessels were a total loss, amounting to $80,000.

NEW ORLEANS, April 24.—Mrs. Bettie Musgrave, daughter of Capt. Reese, of Pittsburgh, is the only person lost from the steamer Exporter, whose name has been ascertained. When the steamer John Kyle was discovered to be on fire many persons from shore rushed on board the Bodman and expected to get a better view of the burning steamer and they were still aboard when the boats were set adrift. It is supposed quite a number of those people were lost.

Threatened Destruction by Flood.

ST. PAUL, April 24.—A good deal of consternation is reported at Minneapolis caused by another break in the celebrated tunnel which has given so much trouble before. An immense amount of private and government money has been expended in endeavoring to patch up this unfortunate hole and preserve the falls and the water power. The extent of the present disaster is not known; those who are conversant with the matter being extremely reticent for fear that the credit of the city and its business men will suffer.

Suicides.

NEWARK, April 23.—Chas. C. Lewis, of the firm of Webster, Lewis & Co., which recently failed, committed suicide at his home yesterday.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., April 24.—Nellie Cleford, a frail one and a resident here for some years attempted suicide to-day by taking morphine. Dr. Guyton was summoned to the bedside of the girl, and upon investigation the case was considered past assistance as she turned purple in the face and was apparently dying; but skillful remedies leaves now good prospect of her recovery.
