

The Daily Press and Dakotian is published EVERY EVENING, EXCEPT SUNDAYS.

LOCAL LACONICS.

The Third street variety show has closed doors. New hay has already appeared in our market.

The Benton's load will just about empty the railroad warehouse. The base ball party of the Yankton club last night was a success, both in point of attendance and interest.

A man was detected yesterday, below Yankton, plowing in his cornfield with a buffalo overcoat on. He promises not to do it again.

Johnnie Pennington has got a new pony, but the pony and Johnnie had a falling out yesterday. The young man's head was somewhat injured by the rapid manner in which he descended to earth, but he is bound to conquer that pony if it takes all summer.

The Merchants hotel is undergoing a thorough fixing up. Sweetser is having every room in the hotel calcimined and newly papered, besides adding fresh paint to the wood work.

We understand that several well known young gentlemen of this city have in contemplation the idea of adding their names to the roll of Good Templars. They are credited with the possession of the requisite qualifications—able to hold a quart without stopping over.

The last heard of Charley Allen's party, which left here about the first of June, was that it was about one hundred miles up the Nebraska river, and that the boys were having a good time. This party is out on a health-seeking tour, and does not intend to go to the Black Hills.

The Black Hills base ball club of this city went out to Clay Creek to-day to play a match game with the Ploughboys, of that place. The Black Hillers have got back, with colors drooping. The Ploughboys were too much for them. The result of the games was, Ploughboys, 23; Black Hillers, 21.

A petition is in circulation, and is being extensively signed, asking the council to appoint B. M. Williams as a special policeman for lower Yankton. The inhabitants of that quarter complain that they have to harbor all the bad characters and are left without adequate protection, which is clearly a wrong state of affairs.

Kenner's Summer Garden will be open to-morrow afternoon and evening. It is hoped that reasonable attendance will be accompanied by ladies. Special police will be in attendance for the protection of visitors.

PERSONAL.

Sheriff Baker has been out all day searching for Ed Dewitt.

Dr. Miller arrived this evening from a visiting tour eastward.

T. B. Faulk, of Kittanning, Pa., son of ex-Gov. Faulk, is in the city, making a brief visit.

Gen. W. H. H. Beadle arrived this evening, having come through with the Sioux delegation.

M. T. Woolley, Esq., has so far recovered from his illness as to be able to visit his store to-day.

O. A. Smith, agent for M. C. Bogue & Co., of Sioux City, will spend the Sabbath at Sweetser's.

Mrs. Gen. McCook will arrive in Yankton next week. It is her intention to remain during the summer.

Rev. S. D. Hinman, who came with the Indian delegation from Washington, is stopping at the Merchants.

Dr. Mathews arrived from Standing Rock last night and put up at the Merchants. For a number of years past he has been stationed at the above named post, but has recently been assigned to duty in San Francisco and is now on his way to that place.

Mrs. S. A. Gordon and Miss E. M. Shaw, of Chicago, will take passage on the Benton (which leaves some time to-morrow) for Helena, Montana, where they visit till September. This is their first trip to Dakota, and they are much pleased with the looks of the country.

St. CHARLES—J. H. Filber, St. Helena; C. E. Bailey, Carroll, Ia.; Mrs. W. R. Marrie and daughter, St. Louis; Jno. Sampson, Des Moines.

MERCHANTS.—Mrs. S. A. Richardson, Grand Haven; Mrs. M. E. Stevenson, New York; Dr. Washington Mathews, U. S. A.; L. Benard, Nebraska; Geo. J. Davis, Canada; Jas. Lawrence, J. C. Blanding, Otto Spangnegal, city; Jas. B. Crown, Chicago, H. I. Chapman, Sioux City; Rev. S. D. Hinman, Henry Hinman, Santee agency.

Chapt. Sgd. That Brown has the nextest parlor and makes the most delicious ice cream to be found in town. Open to-night.

John Beckmann having purchased the Blue (Water) Line, is now furnishing clear water at 20 cents a barrel. Will furnish plasterers and builders and fill cisterns at reasonable prices.

A situation to do plain sewing in a private family. Address Mrs. Ingalls, P. O.

Inspecting a Manufacturing Establishment.

On yesterday, in company with several distinguished gentlemen, we went through Judge Rossteuscher's brewery, and saw how summer drinks are manufactured. Going through a brewery is a delicate transaction for a young man of fixed principles, but this establishment represents one of the industries of Yankton, and our great interest in whatever pertains to the progress of Dakota's capital city led us to brave temptation for the moment and recklessly take our chances. On the way through we looked into a great number of large vats, ranged along in rows in the vaults, and by the appearance of what we saw there, it seems no more than right that we should give Rossteuscher credit for making good beer. We have forgotten exactly the number of barrels he sells in a year, but it is enough to indicate that public taste runs largely in the direction of this brewery. The establishment is fitted up with modern machinery and appliances, and is in a condition to turn out an excellent quality of the nation's favorite beverage. The vaults are under a large ice house, and as they are well washed in everything is kept at the required low temperature. Rossteuscher gets all his barley in California, and that is one explanation of the excellent quality of his goods. As a youthful manufacturing enterprise it bids far to become of large importance at no distant day.

Fowler & Ketchum will give you a benefit by selling you a pair of Kid Gloves for 50 cents.

Escaped from Jail.

We have had occasion to make several references, of late, to the performances of Ed Dewitt, of Bon Homme county, and a sequel to the whole now comes in the shape of an announcement that the aforesaid Edward has escaped from the Yankton county jail and is probably now far on the other side of the Nebraska border. Dewitt was held on a horse stealing charge. Last night, about dark, as the jailor opened the door leading from the stairway into the main room of the jail, he was seized by Dewitt and Kennedy (the latter serving out sentence for shooting at L. M. Koe) and pushed violently to one side. Recovering himself the jailor grappled with Kennedy and pushed him back into the room, but Dewitt got by him and escaped. The jailor followed as soon as he had locked the door on the other prisoners and fired a couple of shots after the retreating horse-thief, but without effect. Dewitt made off rapidly through lower Yankton, closely pursued, and succeeded in losing himself from the officers. Kennedy, who made a miserable failure of his stroke for liberty, will probably have to account for the act before Judge Shannon. Dewitt went off in such a hurry that he forgot to settle with his attorneys.

Fowler & Ketchum sell the Peerless carpet warp at 40c. The best article in the market.

Wintermute—Change of Venue.

Peter P. Wintermute was again before the court, this morning, and further hearing was had on a change of venue. The affidavits of Erick Iverson, Newton Edmunds, Jacob Brauch, O. H. Platt, Fred Schnauber, L. W. Case, Wm. Leeper, Bartlett Tripp, S. A. Bentley and G. C. Moody were presented in support of the motion. The parties named made affidavits that, in their opinion the defendant could not secure a fair trial in Yankton county. Several copies of the local papers were also produced containing articles which the counsel argued were calculated to prejudice the community against Wintermute. After a hearing of the case Judge Shannon granted a change of venue, to Judge Bennett's district, the time and place of the trial to be designated next Monday evening.

Old Papers for sale at the Press and Dakotian office at fifty cents per Hundred.

The River.

The steamer Benton starts for Benton to-morrow evening with a full cargo and a good passenger list.

The steamer Western arrived at Fort Thompson at seven o'clock this morning, on her way up, and left at ten.

The government inspectors will arrive on Tuesday evening, and Wednesday, and Thursday will be devoted to an inspection of the Silver Lake, just off the ways. She will start up the river on the Friday or Saturday following.

Kid gloves worth one hundred cents for 50 cents at Fowler & Ketchum.

Sight Seeing.

The Rev. C. T. Stout, of Fort Dodge, and Burr Shelton, of Chicago, left town this morning, in one of Yankton's best turn-outs, for Springfield. It is their intention before returning to visit Yankton, Santee and Ponca agencies; also Fort Randall, on their sight-seeing tour, returning to this place Tuesday evening. Mr. Shelton informs us that it is the intention of several gentlemen of his acquaintance to visit Yankton in a few weeks, bringing their ladies along. A grand trip to Wall Lake and Sioux Falls is contemplated, with some of our citizens as an escort.

Hallroad Items.

The Cheyenne river Indian delegation in charge of Maj. Bingham and Rev. S. Hinman arrived at Sioux City to-day via the Illinois Central railroad. They dined at the Hubbard and after being duly refreshed took the train for Yankton in charge of Rev. S. D. Hinman, Maj. Bingham remaining at Sioux City. The following are the names of this distinguished delegation: Lone Horn, Long Wadon, White Swan, Bull Eagle, Duck, Charger, Red Shirt, Rattling Ribs, and Spotted Elk, chiefs; Wm. Fielder, interpreter, Rev. S. D. Hinman, of the Episcopal mission, and Maj. Bingham, Indian agent at Cheyenne agency. Gen. Beadle, of Yankton, and Delegate Kidder, of Clay county, accompanied them from Washington. The chiefs will leave for the agency on the steamer Benton to-morrow. DAK. SO.

About Grasshoppers.

Reports from up rivers upon the interesting subject of grasshoppers, dated this morning, are as follows:

St. Thompson—The hoppers seem to be on the increase along the bluffs back of the fort, but they are of the native variety and not members of the destructive branch of the gryllus family. No eggs have been deposited here.

Yankton Agency—No hoppers and no eggs here.

St. Sully—No hoppers and no eggs here.

St. Randall—No hoppers and no eggs here.

All of which is comforting intelligence to the people.

Boots and Shoes made to order at I. Piles & Co's.

Distinguished "Injuns."

The Cheyenne members of the delegation of Indians which have been to Washington to talk Black Hills arrived here this evening by the Dakota Southern train and went immediately on board the steamer Benton, lying at the levee. They will take passage up the river to Cheyenne agency on that boat. Each Indian had a rifle. The fastidious Rattling Ribs was clad in a summer style silk hat, which he wore with heroic grace over his scalp lock. The names of this delegation appear in our Dakota Southern correspondence.

The Evening Daily.

From the Vermillion Republican. The Daily Press and Dakotian, on Tuesday changed its issue from morning to evening. The paper so far has more than fulfilled its promises, which is saying a good deal for a newspaper. We wish it success as it deserves and doubt not it will secure it.

From the Union County Courier.

We learn from the columns of the Yankton Press and Dakotian, that they have changed the hour of publication from the morning to the evening. This has been determined upon in view of a falling off in advertising, and because less expensive in the reception of telegraphic dispatches. If it cannot be sustained as an evening paper without a too great sacrifice, financially, the proprietors, after the trial will suspend its publication. Messrs. Bowen & Co., deserve much credit for the enterprise and energy thus far displayed, and if the people of Dakota, and especially Yankton, will not give the enterprise a liberal support, then no blame can be attached to a notice of suspension of their daily. And if the people want a daily now is the time to do something, for should the Press and Dakotian die for want of a living patronage the last hope for years to come, of another venture of the kind is gone.

Union County News.

From the Courier (Elk Point) of the 9th. Hon. Runyan Compton informs us that the "cut worm" is doing an immense amount of damage to his corn. He has already had to plant about one-third of his field the second time.

Rev. M. Hoyt, D. D., of Yankton, will visit Elk Point on Thursday next, and will hold service in the Episcopal Church, at 7:40 p. m. All are invited. Preparatory steps will be taken for establishing a resident clergyman of the Episcopal denomination at this place. All interested are requested to converse with Mr. Hoyt on this subject.

The pastor informs us that as soon as the public school closes, preparations have been made to paint and repair, and otherwise beautify the U. B. Church, after which a bell weighing five hundred pounds will be hung in the tower, and the audience room furnished with a first-class organ. When these improvements are made it will be the finest looking church edifice in town.

The board of county commissioners of Union county, held an adjourned session on last Friday for the purpose of receiving a petition, praying for aid to establish a ditch across the Missouri valley, from the region of the lake to the Big Sioux river, and thus drain the land through which it passes. It will be acted upon at the next regular session in July.

A correspondent from Virginia, D. T., informs us that Mr. N. H. Edwards, of our county, was arrested by the Deputy U. S. Marshal against him by the U. S. grand jury, for selling tobacco without license, and on a charge of three years, and I think we know it comes that he has been indicted. Hon. Alex. Hughes has been retained by defendant as counsel.

The Missouri is "becoming" full. It has been the rise for a week past, and the water has backed up the various streams emptying into that river, for miles, in some places flowing over the bottoms, rendering travel exceedingly difficult. There is no sign of a fall, and from present indications fears are entertained that the June rise will be greater than that of the past spring. The Missouri is so full, and the preparations that have been made by building levees and ditches will prevent any great amount of damage to the country.

Union county district court convened yesterday, Hon. G. G. Bennett, president judge, who presides with a dignity and grace seldom surpassed in deciding questions of law with a promptness not often equaled, showing conclusively that he is master of the situation, as if to the manner born. We have heard but one expression from the bar and visitors, and that is highly commendatory to the presiding officer. Prominent among the court officers the rotund form of the clerk shows conspicuously, while his readiness in the discharge of his duty materially hastens the proceedings.

A strange case of poisoning occurred in the French settlement last week, that nearly resulted in the death of four children. Mrs. Greenwood, a widow lady, residing about four miles from Elk Point, left home, and while absent her four children started for the prairie to gather "greens," which they ate, without any other preparation than merely sprinkling salt on them. In doing this they also ate of a poisonous weed, gathered by mistake. It soon made them sick, and they started for home, and getting into bed were soon asleep under its effects. In this condition they were found by a neighbor, who hastened immediately for Dr. W. J. Conly, who administered an emetic, thus dislodging the whole contents of the stomach. For a few days the little fellows "moped" around, but are at this writing as bright as usual.
