

YANKTON DAILY PRESS AND DAKOTAIAN.

Vol. 1.

YANKTON, DAKOTA TERRITORY, THURSDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 4, 1875.

No. 166.

TELEGRAPH 4 o'clock, P. M.

[NOTE.—Election news is very meagre. We sent to Sioux City for the morning dispatches and have word that they are very indefinite and unsatisfactory.

ELECTIONS.

Both Parties Claim Wisconsin.

Nothing Heard from any Other Section.

A Colored Wharf-Master Threatens a Colored Orator in Tennessee.

Prominent Journalists Connected With the St. Louis Whisky Frauds.

The Missouri Pacific R. R. Accused of Gross Dishonesty.

WISCONSIN.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 4.—A personal dispatch from Madison states that the republicans there concede the election of the democratic state ticket except Governor, and a democratic majority in the legislature. Returns received here, however, indicate the success of the republican state ticket, except perhaps, Baltz and Graham, and a republican majority in the legislature.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—A special to the Journal, and Post and Mail from Madison states that the returns received last night and this morning change materially the complexion of election in that state. The democrats now claim they have carried the whole state ticket, electing Taylor by a small majority, and other candidates by larger majorities. Both parties claim the assembly. The republicans still claim to have elected Ludington by 3,000 majority. Further returns are awaited with anxiety.

Railroad Rascality.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—An adjourned meeting of the unsecured creditors of the Missouri Pacific railroad was held yesterday. A letter from Gen. Clinton B. Fisk, treasurer of the A. & P. R. R. was read in which he stated it was impossible for him to be present. F. J. Bowman, attorney of the city and county of St. Louis, stated that at the time the company were advertising for the sale of $1,874,000 of bonds for 75 cts. on the dollar, they did not have any bonds in their possession to dispose of, and the advertisement was merely a blind to deceive their creditors. The bankrupt proceedings have terminated by the action of Judge Treat, at St. Louis, who appointed receivers.

Shot Dead.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—About 9 o'clock last night, Jas. Shoney, a member of the fire department was shot dead in front of the engine house by George Fletcher, who had been discharged from the department. Fletcher was arrested.

The Direct Cable All Right.

NEW YORK, November 4.—The superintendent of the direct U. S. cable says the cable was successfully repaired this morning; that the Faraday reports the cable, after 115 months submerison, in as perfect condition as when manufactured. The fracture which was found in 70 fathoms of water, was such as would be caused by either an anchor or grapnel.

Whisky Frauds.

St. Louis, Mo., November 4.—The Globe-Democrat this morning, referring to indictments found yesterday by the U. S. grand jury against prominent citizens for implication in whisky frauds, alluded to in these dispatches last night, connects with them Wm. McKee, the principal proprietor of that paper, and Constantine Maguire, late U. S. internal revenue collector of this district. The Globe-Democrat says Mr. McKee is ready for trial and that the public may rely upon his full and complete vindication, when the question of his guilt or innocence is made an issue in the courts.

Busted.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The following firms were yesterday reported to have failed or become embarrassed: Wm. I. O'pless, dealer in woollens; Hathaway & Kerr, trimmings; Geo. Bletter, wool and wood fibre combined wool co., and Joseph Herron, fruits. There were several minor failures also.

Personal.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Dr. J. A. Bryan, of Logansport, Ind., one of the delegation from the U. S. medical association to the international medical congress in Brussels, has arrived from Europe.

A Centennial Item.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—A large building will be erected on the centennial grounds for the display of goods of shoe manufacturers and tanners of the country.

Foreign.

PENANG, Nov. 4.—A British resident has been murdered in Malayan territory, and troops have gone to punish the murderers.

Fire.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 4.—A fire on Second street this forenoon destroyed the liquor store of Dackworth, Spence & Co. Loss $60,000 to 65,000; small insurance. The fire also damaged Meader & Co.'s furniture warehouse. Loss $15,000; uninsured.

Colored Troubles.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Nov. 4.—Some excitement was caused here last night by Ed Shaw, colored wharf master, going to Church's saloon and threatening to cut the throat and scalp Mr. Younger, the colored speaker from St. Louis, for stumping Mississippi during the late canvass for the conservatives. Younger appealed to the chief of police for protection, and that officer sent some men to protect him, but Younger fearing Shaw would incite other negroes to murder him changed his lodging during the night.

GENERAL NEWS.

There were a dozen small failures in New York on Monday.

The Massasoit steam cotton mill at Fall River, Massachusetts, was burned Monday night.

A terrific gale swept over Little Rock, Ark., on Saturday, unroofing the state house and doing considerable damage to buildings, fences and trees.

In New York prayer meetings they pray for the editor of the Sun. There's just where the people get foolish about religion. They expect too much of it.—Cincinnati Times.

They have found a petrified Mormon in Utah, and from the number of dents in the head, evidently made with a poker and flat iron, it is judged he had at least thirty-three wives.—Norristown Herald.

The Brainerd Minn., Tribune records it as a disgraceful fact that the Rev. H. J. Christ, the M. E. minister at that place the past year, received from all sources during the year but $200, and with this he fed and clothed himself and family.

A terrible fire occurred at Sherman, Texas, on the 1st. The post office and contents and every printing office in town were burned. Sixty-five places of business were destroyed and about thirty families left homeless. Losses are estimated at $340,000; insurance small.

A valise and two large pocket books have been found floating in the Missouri river near Brunswick, Mo., belonging to a man named J. W. Oldham, who with his brother, left Sioux City in a skiff about Oct. 1st, intending to go to St. Louis. It is feared the owner of the valise has been drowned. Since the foregoing was written the Oldham boys have been heard from and are O. K.
