Continuation of the Forest Fires in New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

A Denver Organization Which Proposes to Wage War Against the Utes.

President Hayes To-Day Nominated N. G. Ordway, of New Hampshire, as Governor of Dakota.

CONGRESSIONAL.

HOUSE.

Washington, May 13.—Thursday's house session was resumed, and the house went into committee on the legislative bill, Mr. Warner's, and it was adopted, requiring the secretary of the treasury to state the manner in which the moneys appropriated for incidentals in the treasury department are expended.

Friday's session was then commenced, and Mr. Gibson reported the resolution for final adjournment May 21.

Mr. Mills said he would antagonize its consideration with the bill for free salt and printing paper.

Mr. Townsend said he would call for a consideration of the tariff bills first.

The house went into committee on the legislative bill, and the consideration concluded, the committee rose and reported the bill to the house, the amendment providing that the salaries of storekeepers and gaugers at all distilleries that make less than sixty bushels of grain per day shall not exceed $50 per month while the distilleries are in operation, and $35 while idle; and that all other distilleries' storekeepers and gaugers shall not receive exceeding fifty dollars per month when distilleries are idle, was adopted. Yeas, 102; nays, 100.

A strict party vote, except six democrats who voted in the negative.

Mr. White changed his vote to the affirmative for the purpose of moving a reconsideration, and the yeas and nays. Ordered on a motion to lay the motion over.

SENATE.

Washington, May 14.—Mr. Beck, from the finance committee, reported favorably the house bill amending the internal revenue laws. Placed on calendar.

Mr. Logan from the committee on electoral count, reported adversely the house bill on subject. Placed on calendar.

WASHINGTON.

Bills Approved. The President has approved the congressional bill and the bill for relief of settlers on public lands.

A Public Law for Dakota. Washington, May 14.—The President has nominated N. G. Ordway, of New Hampshire for governor of Dakota territory.

The Weather.

Washington, May 14.—The indications for the upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys are: Continued south and east winds, cooler followed by slightly warmer, clear or partly cloudy weather, possibly followed by occasional rain; followed by stationary or falling barometer.

CRIMES AND CASUALTIES.

Swung Off.

Buffalo, May 14.—Carl Manke was hanged this morning for the murder of John Adoff at Elma, April 2, 1879. From the time of his sentence he was stolid and profane, but lately partially admitted his guilt. He refused to see his wife yesterday. He slept soundly and breakfasted heartily. He violently abused and cursed those who attempted to dress him for execution and he refused spiritual advice.

Shot His Mother-in-Law.

Corpus Christie, May 14.—Horace Barr shot at his wife and Mrs. Barand, his mother-in-law springing between them when they were walking. Barr then struck his sister-in-law, Mrs. Brewster, with a pistol felling her to the floor. Reloaded the pistol, he shot himself dead. Mrs. Barand's wounds are pronounced fatal. The cause of the tragedy is a disagreement between Barr and his wife, resulting in the latter returning to her father's house.

Death in a Mine.

Chicago, May 14.—A Norway, Michigan, special says: Early Thursday morning No. 2 shaft of the Lumberman Mining Company's Ludington iron mine, located eight miles from here, caved in, burying sixteen miners. The shaft was fifty feet deep and contained five feet of water. John Tie, an Irishman, Isaac Winn and Oliver Gardner, Cornishmen, who were working directly at the bottom of the shaft, were taken out dead. The others, who were working in drifts, were rescued alive. Immediately upon the caving in of the shaft an alarm was given, and miners from other parts of the mine hurried to the scene and set actively to work to release the imprisoned miners, and as it progressed, the half-suffocated cries of the miners could be heard growing fainter and fainter. At about nine o'clock an entrance was made and thirteen of the miners rescued from the drifts of the shaft uninjured. The remaining three being directly under the falling rock, were killed or suffocated, and were taken out dead. The shaft was well timbered down to the walls of rocks that were considered safe.

Proposed Invasion of the Ute Country.

Denver, Col., May 13.—It is learned that a powerful secret organization has been formed, with headquarters in this city, whose object is to go to the Ute reservation to prospect without waiting for congressional action. The society has already one hundred and fifty members, including several prominent Denver citizens, each member being compelled to arm and equip himself for military service. They intend to go through Gunnison and Eagle river to the Rio Grande, and unless protection is afforded by the government will wage war against the Utes.

Obituary.

New York, May 14.—William H. Delehanty, a well known actor and comedian, died of hasty consumption last night in his home in this city, aged 33 years.

FIRES.

A Town Burning Down.

Williamsport, Pa., May 14.—It is reported that the fire which commenced in Milton about 11:30 to-day has destroyed fifty buildings, including the car shops, machine shops and Methodist and Reformed churches, and unless the wind changes the entire town will be burned. Milton telegraphed here for assistance. Telegraphic communication is now interrupted.

Forest Fires.

Milford, Pa., May 14.—Terrible forest fires continue. Over three millions feet of lumber, a vast amount of valuable timber and several dwellings and barns have been burned. Six thousand acres are ablaze this forenoon. A light rain is falling. The steam saw mill of David Dale & Son at Moscow, burned last night.

Woods on Fire in Jersey.

Gibson Mills, N. J., May 14.—Scarcely an acre of timber land can be found in the vicinity of Hanover. Whittings and Washburne are all destroyed by the fire now sweeping to the east. The population was all out last night turning the flames from the direction of thickly inhabited places. Three dwellings and outbuildings were burned. Forest fires are now raging about Allison, and reports says destroyed over one hundred square miles of valuable ferry logs, timber land and vineyards. The village of Great Republic lost twenty-two buildings, and two houses at Burnett's mills burned. The losses in Ocean, Burlington and Cumberland counties will be very heavy. In the vicinity of Digna river nearly seven acres of choice cranberry bog was burned, besides some hundred acres of valuable cedar and oak forest, and a large quantity of cord wood. Two houses were destroyed.

FOREIGN.

The Weaver's Strike.

London, May 14.—The Oldham Limited Liability company's association will hold a general meeting to consider the best means of reducing the product. The Darwin weavers intended to support the Blackburn weavers with a levy of three pence per loom, even if put on half time. It is thought the strike will soon end.

A High Tent Order.

Petersburg, May 14.—The High Tent Independent order of Rechabites of North America hold their next annual convention in Wheeling, West Virginia, on the fourth Tuesday in May.

Military Conscription.

St. Petersburg, May 14.—Four battalions of riflemen have been formed by conscription in Eastern Siberia.

South Sea Trading Company.

Berlin, May 14.—Promoters of the South Sea trading company hope to be able to reorganize it without government aid, and stock to the amount of one hundred thousand pounds will be offered for public subscription.

Making Fun of Bismarck.

Berlin, May 14.—The newspapers contain a comique on Bismarck's speech, stating that he will willingly accept the help of the liberals, if they are ready to deny the centre party.

Obituary.

Deposit, N. Y., May 14.—Chas. Knapp, member of the forty-first congress and president of the Deposit national bank, died this morning, aged 83.

Brickmaker's Strike.

Chicago, May 14.—Eight hundred brick makers in the yards on the west and south side struck this morning, demanding two dollars a day, an advance of 25 cents. North side yards are paying the increase.

Marine News.

LOST IN THE BAD LANDS.

An Employee of the Keogh Mail Route Snow Bound.

Bismarck Tribune, 7th.

Considerable worry was experienced along the line of the Keogh mail route during the past week on account of the station keeper at Spring ranch getting lost. A correspondent furnishes us with the following particulars: "Frank Evans, station keeper at Spring Ranch, five miles east of Knife river, took the place of Mr. Finch and drove east for him as far as Muddy station. He left Muddy Monday morning the 28th ult., at seven o'clock for Spring station where Driver Finch was to relieve him. Jack Nolan and J. McKenny left Muddy soon after and drove through the snow, following Evan's trail until about twelve o'clock and found themselves lost on the prairie. They were still on Evan's trail but retraced their steps and did not travel far before both men became snow blind and wandered about not being able to make the road again until Wednesday afternoon when they arrived at Spring ranch. Nothing had been heard of Evan. The driver west had come east on his regular trip. Reaching Muddy station and finding no Evans there hurried back to Spring ranch. Thursday morning Finch started out horselack to look for Evans, the lost man, and Nolan came with the up driver to Knife river. Mr. Truxax took provisions and started out after some trace of Evans. Both men are still out."

Since the above was written the lost has been found. It seems Evans got snow blind after being out but a few hours and did not recover his sight until after three days had expired when he found himself in the Bad Lands on the Hart river. He met some trappers on the river who kindly furnished him with provisions and directed him on his way to the Spring ranch station. He was out just seven days and had but four meals in that time, those being furnished by the trappers. An expedition in search of him started from Bismarck Monday but returned Tuesday with the good news of the missing man's safe arrival.

A RIGHT UP AND DOWN WOMAN.

Detroit Press.

For once in the history of the Union Depot its roof has sheltered a woman who knew just where she wanted to go, the train she was to take, the hour for departure, the fare, and the time of arrival. She appeared to be about forty-five years of age, and she had flat feet, a peaked nose, and a voice which didn't admit of any argument. No notice might have been taken of her among the scores of others had she not inquired the way to the waiting room and added:

"Think ye, though it's your business to answer all questions! That's all I want to ask of you, and you can't answer your promenade!"

"Going out on the train?" queried the officer.

"Would I lug a big carpet-bag down here and stand around in the cold if I wasn't?" she sharply answered.

"Going south I suppose?" he inquired as she moved away.

"Spouse away then!" she snapped as she left her satchel. Entering the ladies' waiting room she found the seats all taken. A portly man, reading a paper and taking a heap of comfort, occupied one of the seats, and halting before him she dropped her satchel with an awful thud and said:

"Now you git right outer here! This place is for ladies, and you are a great big fat man and orter be ashamed of yourself for crowding in among us!"

"ah—ah—" he began, when she interrupted:

"Then stand up! My legs are tired walking down here, and I'm not going to stand around while you sit down!"

"Certainly—allow me—ah—yes!" he stammered as he rose up and gave her the seat.

"That's more man-like," she growled as she settled down, "but it seems to me that if I was you I'd feel sort of 'sneaking in here!' The more I see of fat men the worse I hate 'em."

The fat man had a wife and two children in there, but he wasn't a minute getting through the door. For the next fifteen minutes the old lady sat very erect and stared around her, and then she started out to get her ticket, hugging her satchel on her hip. A bootblack espied her and called out:

"Shell I carry yer baggage-wagon, Aunt Sary?"

"Doy!" she replied as she dropped the satchel and reached for his collar. "I haven't got any baggage-wagon, and please I'm not Aunt Sary to anybody! If you want your heels jerked over the roof of this depot you just give me the least sass!"

"Scuse me, but don't pinch so hard," said the boy, and he squirmed out of her clutch and retreated a safe distance to look at her and rejoice that he was not her son.

She walked up to the ticket window, put down a lot of silver and said:

"I want a ticket to Jackson, and I don't want any talk about it! I know why I'm going, how long I want to stay, and who I'm going with."

Her ticket was handed her without a word, and as she passed on to the gate she said to the official there:

"Tend right to your business! There's no occasion for your asking where I'm going or if I've got a ticket."

"Pass on madam," he replied.

"Don't try to flatter me!" she called back. "Your business is to see that passengers git on the right train, and the less you madam around the better it will be for you!"
