WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1882.

NORTHERN DAKOTA.

Fargo wants a starch factory. Valley City has raised $300.00 for a skating rink.

Grand Forks is proud of its hotel accommodations. Burleigh county expected to pole over a thousand votes.

The young men of Grafton have organized a brass band. The young men of Fargo will organize a militia company.

Fargo has a Shakespearean club which holds weekly meetings. Four dollars per day is paid to carpenters at East Grand Forks.

One hundred men and teams are advertised for in Grand Forks. The Bismarck Herald says "Yankton is the artesian city of Dakota."

Receipts for passenger tickets at Larimore frequently reach $400.00 per day. The fire department of Fargo give a grand ball on the evening of Nov. 8th.

Two new double stores were commenced in East Grand Forks a few days ago. Grand Forks has three barbers who claim they earn jointly over $100.00 per week.

Three hundred and fifty pupils are enrolled in the Grand Forks public schools. Fargo has an old, blind street beggar, chimney sweeps and an itinerant stove polisher.

Twenty-seven liquor licenses have been issued by the city clerk of Grand Forks this year. A contest game of polo occurred in the roller skating rink at Fargo last Wednesday night.

The Grandin elevator at Fargo receives about 10,000 bushels of potatoes every four days. About the middle of November a Vienna restaurant and cafe will be established in Fargo.

Wahpeton will celebrate the advent of the Northern Pacific railroad to that place some time this week. Dr. Drake and wife, of Jamestown, nearly lost their lives by escaping coal gas from a defective stove.

The barn of Mr. McCaskey at Wheatland, Cass county, was destroyed by fire not long ago at a loss of $2,000. Eighty thousand dollars of the $100,000 proposed for building a new hotel at Jamestown, have been subscribed.

The machinery for the new planing mill and sash, door and blind factory at Jamestown are being put in place. The dead body of a newly born infant was found on the railroad at Fargo the other day, but no clue to the mother.

Miss Alice Sowles of Fargo accepted by telegraph recently a position as teacher in a seminary in Salt Lake City. Minto is a prosperous town in Walsh county. It is one year old, has one hundred houses and four hundred inhabitants.

Daily trains are now running on the Fargo Southwestern branch of the Northern Pacific, as far as Sheldon, in Ransom county. The Grand Forks News, at the age of six months, has just moved into its own building, which is capacious, and convenient.

A suit has been commenced growing out of a sale of the Viets house in Grand Forks, one party claiming $16,500 damages for the non-delivery of a deed. Fully one hundred determined citizens of Mandan raided the notorious Bell ranche last night and closed it up, giving the female occupants twelve hours to leave town.

Thomas O'Donald, of Spiritwood, near Jamestown, has been arrested charged with setting fire to hay. He is under $300.00 bonds. The indignation against him is great. The steamer Helena was delayed at Bismarck on account of a strike of the deck hands. They got their wages raised to eighty-five dollars a month and the boat sailed away.

Fargo Argus: The iron foundry struck water at 163 feet yesterday in their artesian well. The water flows in abundance and seems to have no end. General Manager Mulcahy thinks it a daisy. The Grand Forks Herald was a year old November 1st. The Herald is an excellent newspaper and has grown from a very small beginning to a great institution employing twenty-eight hands.

A railroad laborer on the Fargo and Southwestern road came to Fargo for treatment for a rupture, and took a hack for Dr. Darrows office; upon the arrival of the hack the driver found the man dead. A man by the name of Edward Brogan was crushed to death by a train on the Jamestown and Northwestern railroad last Thursday morning. He was buried in the Jamestown Catholic cemetery.

Dr. Elliott, the tar and feathered victim of Grand Forks, has engaged J. H. Parsons of that city as counsel, assisted by legal talent of Minnesota and brought civil and criminal action against his persecutors. Mrs. W. H. Soule, of Hillsboro, died Nov. 2nd of congestion of the lungs. It is just one year since the family moved to Dakota from Vermont, since which time death has removed three of the household.

Grand Forks Plaindealer: The latest advices are that Mrs. Conductor Burbank is recovering physically but is in a sad mental condition. She is unable to sleep nights, and is suffering from nervous prostration. Bismarck Tribune: Girls for housework are scarce. A fresh cargo arrives about once a month, but the matrimonial demand is greater than the supply. Dakota is a great country for girls as well as men. Christian Bakken, who resides six miles west of Mayville, and who several weeks ago in Hillsboro threatened to commit suicide, made the second attempt last week by shooting himself. At last accounts he was living. Col. Donan denies that he has abandoned journalism. He says "printer's ink once daubed on a fellow's fingers is 'the damned spot' that will not out" of professional Macletha." Jack Wuth, who lives near Fort Lincoln, while attempting to visit his wife who had deserted him, at his mother-in-law's a few miles away, was fired upon and driven from the house by his affectionate relative-in-law. Fargo Post: Twenty-five ladies of easy virtue were arrested and arraigned in beautiful order before Justice Roberts. The judge, in his usual way, informed them that the little amount required to secure their liberty was four hundred dollars. J. R. Reitzel, local agent at Valley City for the St. Paul Agricultural company, was found dead in his warehouse last Tuesday morning, and it is supposed committed suicide by taking poison. Business troubles are said to have been the cause. The railroad people are building an immense coal shed in Grafton. The company has purchased from the Canadian Pacific the Manitoba end of the road, and through to Winnipeg will be the cry in a very few days. So says a Walsh county paper. A. G. Thompson, treasurer of Valley City has been arrested on a warrant served by Herbert Root, charging malicious prosecution. Mr. Root was arrested some time ago, on complaint of Thompson for the embezzlement of city funds and puts his damages at $10,000. Mr. Thompson was examined and held over in the sum of $5,000, which he gave. Fargo Argus: There is talk of having a grand harvest home banquet in Fargo about November 15th, to which will be invited everybody and his wife from all north Dakota. The citizens of Fargo, if they undertake it, will without doubt make the occasion a grand success, and all who come will be expected to participate freely, without money and without price. Shot Through the Heart. Garner, Iowa, Nov. 6.—This morning about 12:30 John T. Leach, of Alexandria, D. T., was shot by his brother-in-law, a young man twenty years of age, named Lewis, in the station waiting-room at Alexandria. They had an altercation about Leach's beating and abusing his wife, when Leach struck and grappled Lewis and threw him on the floor. The young fellow finally got out his revolver and fired three shots. The last penetrating the heart, producing instant death. Lewis then gave himself up to the authorities. The general verdict is that he served him right in shooting him. A Nova Scotia Horror. Halifax, Nov. 6.—A fire broke out at midnight in the Eastern and Provincial Poor asylum, an immense six-story brick, containing 400 people. At 1:30 a. m. half the building was a mass of flames. The fire originated in the bakery where twenty-one cords of wood were stored. The flames catching this spread with lightning rapidity, soon enveloping that part of the building used as a hospital. The inmates rushed about the building in great confusion, seemingly out of their senses. The work of getting them out was very difficult. It is thought most of those confined in the hospital have been saved, but it is feared a number of lives were lost. The whole city fire brigade is now at the scene, but can do little, hardly any water being obtainable. Dakota Lands. Where to Get Them and How to Find Them.
