Many Federation Leaders at Moline Conference Today

A large representation of the members of the board of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs were present at the executive board meeting yesterday afternoon and last evening, which was held in the First Congregational church in Moline, and remained over for the conference today. The board business was started in the afternoon, and consisted in the main of completing arrangements for the federation meeting which will be held May 25, 26 and 27 in Chicago, according to yesterday's decision. Dinner last evening was followed by a continuation of the meeting.

This morning's session proved very interesting. Mrs. C. C. Sloan, president of the Moline Woman's club, gave the address of welcome, following a message of greeting from Mrs. George Ockert, president of the 14th district. Mrs. W. H. Hart, president of the Illinois federation, responded, and this was followed by a splendid talk by Mrs. Charles Ross, president of the second district. Mrs. Lincoln Sargent sang the dedication song, "If I knew You and You Knew Me," and Miss Edna Mitchell and Mrs. Evian Sargent gave two piano and organ numbers, and the morning session was continued with talks by various visitors. The afternoon's session opened at 2 o'clock.

Among the guests in Moline for the meeting are Mrs. W. H. Hart, Boston, president of the Illinois federation; Mrs. Frederick Block of Chicago, federation treasurer; Mrs. A. C. Roberts of Galesburg, president of 18th district; Mrs. W. B. Hurlbut of Chicago; Mrs. Frederick Dow of Chicago; Mrs. E. B. Griffin of Grand Park; Mrs. E. S. Halley of Chicago, president of the second district; Mrs. C. M. Ross of Chicago, president of third district; Mrs. John McNish of Chicago, chairman of civic; Mrs. E. W. Davis of Chicago, of Fellowship house; Mrs. Joseph Nachour of Joliet, chairman of industry and social; Mrs. Charles M. Carver of Chicago, corresponding secretary of federation; Mrs. William Burgess of Chicago, executive secretary; Mrs. John N. Mason of Aurora, first vice president; Mrs. Duane McNabb of Chicago, chairman Illinois cottage endowment fund; Mrs. George Ockert of Roseville, president of 14th district federation; Miss Anna May Price of Springfield, library extension chairman, and Mrs. John H. Chadwick of Tuscola, chairman of revision. A number will remain for the Pankhurst lecture tonight.

D. R. L. Club.
There were 12 members of the D. R. L. club present yesterday afternoon at the meeting held at the home of Mrs. Edward Jensen, 2514 Sixth avenue. The ladies sewed and chatted during the hours and the hostess had arranged a series of games for entertainment. Mrs. Lena Arnold and Mrs. O. Wood of Davenport were the fortunate prize winners in the contests. Little Miss Mildred Lucille Jensen entertained the guests with a number of sweet little songs and recited several amusing verses as encores. Refreshments were served in the dining room where the Easter decorations were carried out very prettily. In two weeks the club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Charles Kivlin, 663 Le Claire street, Davenport.

Meeting Postponed.
The meeting of the Thursday club has been postponed until April 22. The meeting on that day will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Macdonald, 524 Ninth street.

Jolly Seven.
Miss Lydia Rosenbaum entertained members of the Jolly Seven club at her home, 1517 Forty-second street, last evening. The club is composed of a group of neighborhood friends, and last evening's meeting was a most enjoyable one. Games were played and the evening hours passed most quickly. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. The club will meet in two weeks, the hostess to be announced later.

Quilt at Meeting.
The afternoon hours were taken up in quilting yesterday at the meeting of the sewing circle of the Evangelical Church of Peace in the church parlors. There were 15 members of the society present and a dainty luncheon was served at the conclusion of the work session. The monthly business session of the first division of the aid society will be held next Thursday, and the date of the next meeting of the sewing circle is April 8.

Quarterly Reports Made.
The meeting of the Eliza J. Humes chapter No. 351, Women of Mooseheart Legion, at Math's hall last evening was the last session of the quarter and consequently was a busy one. Reports were read, the work of the past weeks discussed, and plans made for the future. The members will sponsor a moving picture show some time in the near future. The picture to be shown and the time and place will be announced later. Routine business occupied the entire time of the meeting. The next meeting will be held April 1 at Math's hall.

O. S. T. Club.
Mrs. Claude Sweeney of 1708 Eighth street entertained members of the O. S. T. club yesterday afternoon. The time was spent with fancy work and in general sociability. The hostess served a dainty luncheon at the conclusion of the meeting. Mrs. H. S. Brown will entertain the club at her home, 1721 Seventh street, on April 1.

Twin-City Social.
The Twin-City Social club was delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Millhouse, 314 Eleventh street. The game of 500 was played at two tables, the prizes being won by Mrs. Victor Beck and Mrs.

V. Allen. The all-cut favor was awarded to Mrs. Arvid Everson. A lunch was served in the dining room, where a vase of prettily arranged spring flowers was the centerpiece for the table. In two weeks the club will meet at the home of Mrs. Victor Allen, 4109 Seventh avenue.

Complete Comforter.
One comforter was tied by the nine members present at the meeting of the ladies' aid society of the Fifteenth Avenue Christian church yesterday afternoon in the church. The time remaining was spent in sewing quilt blocks. After the work session a lunch was served by the hostess of the afternoon, Mrs. Gearhart. The society will meet as usual next Thursday afternoon in the church.

Club Quartet Slugs.
Miss Viola Koch, at her home, 829 West Eighth street, and Miss Bertha Dennis were hostesses to the members of the Etude club yesterday afternoon at the Koch home. The program committee was appointed at the business session, Mrs. Frank Hetzel, Miss Norma Wiese, Miss Viola Koch, Mrs. B. J. Hickey, Jr., and Mrs. J. Ross Lee being named.

Plans were made for the annual organ recital program which is to be given April 8 at the Unitarian church, by Miss Pauline Dittman, Rev. Rolo Billing, tenor, and a quartet composed of club members will also furnish numbers, and the recital is open to all persons interested in music and especially organ music. The program yesterday proved very interesting. The ladies' quartet from Rock Island Musical club gave two groups of song, being a special feature for the afternoon. Following is the program carried out:

Etude No. 7	Chopin
Mrs. Carl Lambach	Dawn's Awakening
Mrs. J. B. Hickey, Jr.	The Silver Bell

Miss Lundberg Entertains Class.
Miss Mildred Lundberg, at her home, 2402 Twelfth street, last evening entertained members of the Berean bible class of the Cleland Presbyterian church. There was a short business session, after which a social time was enjoyed. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. The class will meet April 15.

Class With Miss Ruggles.
The Christian Helpers' class of the Spencer Memorial Methodist church, were entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Marion Ruggles, 738 Thirty-fourth street. There were 16 members present and the new president, Miss Evelyn Edwall, was in charge of the meeting. Plans were made for the hike which will be an event of April 6, unless the weather prevents it. Refreshments were served by the hostess, and the place and time of the next regular meeting will be decided at a later date.

"The River's End" To Be Presented By Woman's Club

Announcement has been made of a change in plans of the committee in charge of the moving picture to be sponsored by the Rock Island Woman's club. "The River's End" is the name of the picture to be shown at Spencer Square theatre, and this will be on April 13 and 14. Before the change in plans, the committee had chosen "Victory" for April 8 and 9, but it was found that this was a bit unsatisfactory for several reasons. Hence the change in time and picture. The proceeds from the show will be used for the silver jubilee fund quota of the club. Mrs. C. E. Sharpe is chairman of the committee in charge of the picture presentation.

Dinner Party for Bride-Elect.
Miss Fannie Gellermann entertained at a 6 o'clock dinner party last evening at her home, 426 Eleventh street, in honor of Miss Dora Berger, who is to become the bride of J. M. Redman of Ottumwa on May 30. The guests numbered 20, and the house was prettily decorated in the bride's colors, pink and white. A silver basket of pink and white carnations was the centerpiece, the nut dishes, place cards and favors also being daintily effective in the wedding colors. The ice and cakes were in pink and white. After the dinner, bridge was played at five tables, the prizes being won by Miss Tillie Silverman, Miss Bess Frankel, and Miss Bess Copperstein. Miss Berger was presented with a lovely guest favor. Several parties will be given during the next month for Miss Berger.

Change Date of Meeting.
The date of the next meeting of the U and I club has been changed and will be April 8. At that time Mrs. A. Schrieber of 535 West Sixteenth street, Davenport, will be the hostess and will entertain at Fejervary park.

Deborah Society Meets.
The ladies of the Deborah society met in regular session yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Morris Geismar on Nineteenth street. There were 10 ladies present and the afternoon was spent making garments for the foreign refugees. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. In three weeks the society will meet at the home of Mrs. M. D. Rosenfield, 1517 Twelfth avenue, Moline.

To Meet in Moline.
Announcement has been made that the Tri-City Sisterhood of Temple Emanuel will meet Tuesday afternoon, March 30, at the home of Mrs. Leo Dolkart, 614 Tenth street, Moline. Mrs. C. W. Gleason, visiting housekeeper, will be the speaker of the afternoon and will talk on "Food Values and Balanced Diet." Mrs. M. Frank, Mrs. S. L. Grossman, and Mrs. M. Skivovsky, all of Moline, will assist the hostess.

Entertains at Dinner.
Mrs. Lillian Bedford, the first national president of the auxiliary to the United Veterans of the Republic and a member of the Fred C. Schaffner unit, entertained the members of the color corps of Helen Gould auxiliary which put on the first installation for the auxiliary last evening at 7 o'clock dinner at the Y. W. C. A. There were covers laid for 16 at the prettily appointed table, on which the national colors of the auxiliary, yellow and white, were effectively used together with Easter suggestions. Besides the team members, Mrs. W. L. Franks, the department senior vice president, and Mrs. Selma Medcalf, the Helen Gould auxiliary president, and Mrs. Lucy Morris, the national secretary of the republic war veterans, and Mrs. Emma Sheesley were guests. After the meal the company went to Memorial hall where the installation ceremonies were held.

Will Meet With Mrs. Griggs.
The Music Students' club will be entertained Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. P. Griggs, 132 Mueller avenue, Davenport, with Mrs. Clarence Cochrane and Miss Dorothy Hammond as assistant hostesses. An interesting program will be given.

Parcel Post Sale.
The parent-teachers' association of Horace Mann school is to sponsor a parcel post sale at the school this evening, to which members and friends are invited. A program is to be carried out during the hours. Following are the numbers to be given:

- Song—Glee club.
- Piano duet—Bernice and Faye Kaskaden.
- Reading—Tina Wood.
- Vocal solo—Miss Rowland.
- Piano and violin duet—Emma and Katherine Brandt.
- Reading—Mary Margaret Bartley.
- Stunt—Medrad DeRocker and Erlen Pocus.
- Song—William Marshall.
- Reading—Mrs. J. Bartley.
- Song, "America"—Audience.

Sessions Open to Public.
Sessions of the Community conference which is to be held at the Memorial Christian church Tuesday morning and afternoon, are open for all who are interested in this splendid work which was started before the war, but was delayed during the months of fighting, and which has started again at a meeting with such marked success.

Girl Reserves Elect Officers.
The U. S. W. girl reserves met yesterday in the Y. W. C. A. club rooms. There were 15 regular members and several new ones present. It was decided to take a basket of foodstuffs to some needy family as an Easter service. Miss Irene Zimmerman was re-elected scout chairman and Miss Hazel Kraft chairman of the outing and in-home committee. Miss Louella McMullen will be chairman of the service squad. Plans are being completed for the Easter party for all the clubs of grade school girls on April 1. It will start at 5:30 and take place in the Y. W. C. A. club rooms. Each girl has been asked to bring two eggs to color and these will be taken to hospital patients for Easter cheer.

Tomorrow here is to be a hike from the Y. W. C. A. building, the walkers leaving the building at 12:30. The destination will probably be out near the Watch Tower, and the noon meal will be cooked in the open there.

Have Theatre Party After Meeting.
The ladies of the Community club auxiliary had a most pleasant afternoon yesterday, completing their routine business at an early session, then attending the theatre in Davenport, after which an afternoon luncheon was enjoyed at one of the shops in that city. Plans were made for a card party to be given Wednesday evening in the clubrooms, to which everyone is invited. The committee in charge of this is composed of Mrs. R. Berry, Mrs. J. Parker and Mrs. C. McLeod. The ladies are to assist at the party given by the men of the club Saturday evening in the club rooms. The regular meeting of the auxiliary will be next Thursday afternoon.

Post-Nuptial for Mrs. Walling.
Mrs. T. D. Walling of this city, nee Miss Elizabeth Swisher, a bride of several weeks ago, was the honoree at a post-nuptial show given by the members of her Sunday school class of the First Methodist church last evening at the home of Miss Euphemia Billburg, 2556 Eighth avenue. The evening hours were spent hemming towels, which were presented to Mrs. Walling. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess late in the evening.

Reception for Members.
A reception and social for members of the new Methodist chapel on Thirty-eighth street and Eighth avenue, will be held in the parsonage this evening. All meetings are being held in the parsonage and will continue to be, until the chapel is completed, which will probably be some time this summer. L. E. Dodson, superintendent of the Sunday school, was in charge of arrangements for the affair this evening. Mrs. Ethel Bartram is to be carried out during the hours. Following are the numbers of the refreshment committee. The program to be presented is as follows:

- Address of welcome, Rev. O. W. Carr; poem of welcome, Master Howard Rich; reading, Mrs. Read; vocal solo, Miss Mildred VanTyle; recitation, Miss Elizabeth Edwards; piano solo, Miss Irene Wood; reading, Miss Ethel Barrett; violin and piano duet, the Misses Irene and Helen Dodson; reading, Miss Leota Edwards, and vocal solo, Mrs. O. W. Carr.

Auxiliary Installs Officers.
The auxiliary to the Fred C. Schaffner unit of the United Veterans of the Republic held installation of the first officers last evening at Memorial hall in the court house building. Mrs. Lillian Bedford, the national president, acted as installing officer and the work was put on by the members of the color team of Helen Gould auxiliary. Mrs. Lucy Morris, the national secretary, was a special guest. Rock Island's is the first auxiliary to be formed in the country and many other cities are following its example and are organizing unit auxiliaries.

Mrs. Lillian Bedford presented the first president, Mrs. Bertha Bruhn of the auxiliary, with two beautiful silk American flags, and Mrs. Bruhn presented Mrs. Bedford with a handsome cut glass berry dish as a token of appreciation from the members for her work last evening. Each member of the order and the color team was presented with a small silk flag by the president.

There were a number of visitors, officers and members of other patriotic organizations in the city present at the session and several of them made short talks. Refreshments were served following the work and a social hour enjoyed. The meetings of the unit are held on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month in Memorial hall and the charter is still open so that any mother, wife or sister of a veteran of any of the wars of the republic may join. The next meeting will be held at the hall April 8.

Following are the officers installed:

- President—Mrs. Bertha Bruhn.
- Senior vice president—Mrs. Lily Wilson.
- Junior vice president—Mrs. Abby Bledsoe.
- Chaplain—Mrs. Candace Allsbrow.
- Treasurer—Mrs. Olive Van Emburg.
- Secretary—Mrs. Mayme Evers.
- Conductor—Mrs. Anna Cosner.
- Guard—Mrs. Louisa Knox.

March Meeting Saturday.
Fort Armstrong chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold the March meeting Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Martha J. Williams, 833 Twenty-third street. The meeting is to start at 3 o'clock, and E. K. Putnam of Davenport will speak on his experience abroad while in Y. M. C. A. work. The report of the delegates to the state conference in Champaign this week will be made. The delegates were Mrs. Mrs. Louisa Copp, Mrs. Frank Bahnsen, Mrs. W. J. Sweeney, Mrs. H. H. Chase and Miss Katherine Chase.

Dance is Successful.
The dancing party given at the Masonic temple last evening by Amoo groto was a most successful one. Although the weather was not conducive to venturing outside, a large number of couples were in attendance, and all those present had a very pleasant evening. Another dancing party will be given by the groto soon.

Elect Officers for Year.
Officers for the coming year were elected at the annual meeting of the Woman's guild of the South Park Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon in the church parlors. Mrs. D. A. Emerich was chairman of the meeting and Mrs. Catherine Quayle is president emerita. Mrs. W. O. Litten was elected president; Mrs. F. A. Bledsoe, first vice president; Mrs. W. H. Beeler, second vice president, and Mrs. D. A. Emerich, third vice president. Mrs. H. C. Spaulding was elected secretary, with Mrs. R. L. Baird as assistant, and Miss Mary Long treasurer. After the business, there was a very pleasant program. Rev. W. G. Oglevee gave a piano solo, Mrs. Martin sang, and Mrs. Martin also played several numbers on the piano. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Emerich and her committee. During the serving of refreshments the guild was entertained by Miss Julia Channon's class of boys of the Horace Mann school. They gave a splendid musical program and furnished most pleasant entertainment. The boys have been well trained and have excellent voices. The next meeting of the guild will be at the home of Mrs. Edward Geer, 1520 Twenty-fourth-and-a-half street.

To Enlarge Clinic.
An effort is being made by the Visiting Nurse association to enlarge the number who attend the weekly baby clinics at St. Anthony's hospital. This clinic has been established for all the children living east of Twentieth street, those west of this division line being under the supervision of the West End Settlement clinic. A list has been made of all the children who belong to the east division of the city, and post cards, explaining the work and aims of the clinic, will be sent to the mothers of these youngsters. The nurse committee of the Visiting Nurse association is composed of Mrs. H. D. Mack, Mrs. A. Mosenthal, and Mrs. C. E. Sharpe. The letters which will be sent to the mothers contain the following statements: "The Rock Island Visiting Nurse association is now maintaining a baby clinic at St. Anthony's hospital. This clinic is for the benefit of all children under the ages of six years—sick and well, rich and poor. It is established so that mothers may take their children and have a regular record kept of the health and growth of the coming generations of American citizens. Advice and help can be obtained if desired. If you are treated to have a friend or neighbor who might be, will you come to the clinic in the old wing of St. Anthony's hospital any Friday afternoon between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock? Refreshments are served by a group of young ladies from the Service circle of St. Anthony's, and the mothers have a pleasant social time while the physician and nurse in attendance take care of the baby. The clinic is free. Won't you come and bring a baby? This is signed by the committee.

Members Attend Meeting.
Thirty members of Mayflower camp, Royal Neighbors of America, met last evening in Math's hall for the regular business meeting. Only routine business matters were taken up and plans were made for the next meeting which will be April 22 in Math's hall.

Of Interest to Women

Miss Maude Wetmore of the National League for Women's Service has been appointed on the women's campaign committee for the nomination of Major General Leonard Wood for president.

In many towns of Belgium there are special schools where girls are taught, from the age of five years, how to make lace.

It has been demonstrated that women promoters' voices are more distinct on the stage and are less audible in the auditorium than men's voices.

Dr. Elizabeth D. A. Cohen, the first woman to practice medicine in New Orleans, recently celebrated her one hundredth birthday in that city.

Individuality IN Unique Fashions

There are always certain humans that stand out from the mass of "Mere People." They are the "Some Bodies" of the world—bright spots in the dull drab of the commonplace. And why? Because they have dared to be different! They have the saving grace of individuality. "It's just her way," people will say of a certain charming woman, and how often her "way" is a matter of clothes—the way her Gown suits her particular type.

We specialize in modes that are "different," yet retain the necessary refinement.

Our Spring Suit Collection at It's Height!

Only One Week Until Easter

Here tomorrow you will find Suits by the hundreds—one more attractive and more beautiful than the other.

We believe you'll agree that our Suit collection is unequalled by any showing in the Tri-Cities, as regards style distinctiveness, quality of materials and excellence of tailoring. This belief is inspired by the many, many comments of admiration our Suits have elicited from critical shoppers.

When you see the suits here Saturday note the smart lines and general superiority of detail and finish, which give to the suit that true essence of refinement which is the desire of every smart dresser.
