

DAVENPORT TO HAVE NO CARS JUNE 1; BELIEF

Teup of City's Street Railway Service Is Expected the Last of This Month.

Upon the return of President B. J. Denman and General Manager John G. Hutton of the Tri-City Railway company, and their announcement that they will not ask for a special election on the 7-cent fare question until after the wage dispute with the street car men's union has been settled, it became reasonably certain in Davenport today that June 1 would find the city without street cars.

Following on the heels of the announcement from the officials of the railway company, came word that Mayor Barwood and Police Magistrate Harold Metcalf, head of the Socialist party in Davenport, that they both were reported as now being in favor of a 30-day extension of the 7-cent fare. Because of the weight of their opinion with the Socialist members of the council who turned the railway company's extension proposal down, the report of the change in their attitude was regarded in quarters as being of more than ordinary importance. However, discounting this, was the fact that the council had already taken formal action in open session on the company's proposal and the possibility of it reversing itself was scant.

Men Willing to Settle.
There is considerable doubt as to when the street car company will present its petition for a special election in view of the fact that in announcing it, the officials made their plans contingent upon the result of the wage negotiations with the car men. The car men are said to be willing to settle under a temporary arrangement for the time being and to continue operating the cars at the old wage providing they are assured they will receive an advance bringing their wage above the present 60-cent scale and made retroactive from June 1. It is said the company officials refuse to agree to such an arrangement, and are insisting upon making a permanent agreement at this time.

ARGUS CARRIER LOSES BICYCLE

Taken from Franklin school a week ago last Wednesday a bicycle belonging to an Argus carrier has been stolen. Although the wheel was not new, it answered the need demanded of it and the carrier car will afford to do without its aid. Any news of the finding of a bicycle will be gladly received at The Argus office.

CLASS EXERCISES ARE BEING HELD AT COLLEGE TONIGHT

Celebration of commencement week exercises of Augustana college will begin this evening, when the annual senior exercises will be given at the college chapel. A ball game tomorrow afternoon with St. Viators college team, the baccalaureate sermon by Dr. G. A. Anderson at the Zion Lutheran church at 10:30 Sunday morning, and the mission exercises at the Zion church at 8 o'clock, make a very busy week end.

Personal Points

Rev. F. J. Rolf, pastor of the Evangelical Church of Peace, has returned home after attending a church convention at Clarence, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bertelsen of 2206 Seventeenth street announce the birth of a son at the Lutheran hospital, Moline, yesterday. Mrs. Bertelsen was Miss Cecilia Frey before her marriage. Both the mother and baby are doing nicely.

Mrs. John Gillespie and daughter, Ann, are leaving the city today for Chicago, where they will be met by Mr. Gillespie and will go to Montreal and from there to Scotland on June 2.

Mrs. Helena McArthur of Tiskilwa is spending a few days visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hart.

Rev. John Gent of Fort Madison, Iowa, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McPike, 1206 Twenty-second street. He will return to his home this evening. Rev. Gent and Mr. McPike were classmates at school.

CAPSIZED CANOE CAUSED DROWNING OF LESLIE WELCH

Private Leslie Lloyd Welch, Rock Island boy, who was drowned at Fort Sheridan Wednesday noon, came to his death when a canoe in which he was sailing about the lake capsized, according to news items contained in Chicago papers this morning. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Welch, 1522 Thirty-second street, have received no further information in regard to the fatal accident. The body is not yet reported recovered.

News of the drowning came in a telegram yesterday from Fort Sheridan, where Leslie was in a medical corps. The remains, when found, will be brought to Rock Island for burial.

SETTLEMENT KIDS SERVE LUNCH TO VETERAN GUESTS

Old soldiers spoke at various schools in the city yesterday and three of them visited the West End Settlement kindergarten in the morning. They were George Bailey, J. C. Stanton and S. C. Clow, and the visit was not only enjoyed by the children but by the comrades as well. The children had been told of the visit and they had prepared a lunch for them which they served while they were having their own morning tea party. The youngsters under the direction of the teacher gave flag drills, exercises and dances, demonstrations of the work they are doing, in honor of the soldiers, who were made to remain the entire morning.

JUDGE RAMSEY TO RENDER DECISION IN CHIRO ACTION

Arguments in the injunction proceedings against the Universal Chiropractors' association were concluded Thursday afternoon and the decision now rests with Judge F. D. Ramsay. It is believed that the judge will be ready with his ruling by Saturday.

BODY IS NAMED TO THRESH OUT BUILDING TIEUP

Allied Trades Committee to Hear Both Sides On Much Disputed 90-Day Clause.

With the naming of a committee of three last night by the allied trade meeting at the Rock Island Industrial home, to act as a sort of mediation board between the Quad-City Builders' exchange and the union carpenters employed by them, the first move was taken toward a solution of the building tieup here since the lid was clamped on last Saturday morning.

The mission of allied trades committee, which is composed of H. R. Poston, chairman, C. L. Armstrong and C. H. Nichols, is understood to be to get a committee of the carpenters and a committee named by the builders, together for the purpose of discussing the "90-day clause," which is generally admitted to be the chief bone of contention in the tieup.

The allied trades committee expected to meet tonight with the committees representing the two sides involved in the controversy, and attempt to thresh out the tangle surrounding the much disputed clause, which the carpenters declare was made in the form of a "gentlemen's agreement" at the time the last contract was signed with the exchange.

It is said that it will be the object of the allied trades committee after having the question threshed out before it, to establish the truth or falseness of the contractors' charge that no 90-day clause was made with the carpenters, and that the men are striking in violation of their agreement with the builders.

In view of the fact that the outcome of the building tieup will perhaps hinge on the result, much importance is attached to the verdict of the allied trades committee. Today it was said the builders had named a committee which had consented to meet with the allied trades committee tonight and that before evening a similar announcement was expected to be received from the carpenters.
