

MAKES MEN TOMORROW, WORKER SAYS

Peck, Minnesota Secretary, Campaigners What Association Means.

The Y. M. C. A. work worth has in any place among organizations of a city? E. W. Minnesota state secretary of M. C. A., asked the 135 Y. M. C. A. membership campaign workers at banquet last evening, preparatory to launching the drive today. "The situation is facing the Y. M. C. A. today. That is—there is no right kind of men to take work when the men of tomorrow? In answer to these questions, I can say here is where comes in." Peck explained that the Y. M. C. A. contributes to citizenship the young man the right moment, and takes care of the during his leisure hours, the when he can either make or Mr. Peck defended the Y. M. C. A. in its work overseas, saying people were to look up the of the association over they would be boosters, not Mr. Peck has been in work for 34 years and said he the character of the associ- enough to know what its work was in France. W. W. Bender, campaign chair- man, presided at the dinner. Mr. Peck spoke of the worthy cause which the men were working, saying that there is no other organization in a city that can take the work that a Y. M. C. A. is

PRaises Dr. Walsh. Sanford of Le Claire says: "I believe it is really wonderful that Dr. Walsh of the McCullough building, Davenport, has done for me. Early last fall I had the flu after that my neck and face had often swell and bleed up on little exertion until I could hardly breathe. The choking sensation was a terrible feeling. Whether it was my heart or my lungs or some other trouble, no one seemed to know at first. I tried several things without benefit. Finally a physician sent me to Dr. Walsh. In a short time he brought me out so that I have more trouble now and I feel better."—(Adv.)

Today. Mr. Bender called on J. F. Witter, captain of Matt's team, and A. B. DeVan, captain of Jeff's team, for a few words. Each predicted his victory. G. J. Sturmit, general secretary of the association, told all the rules of the campaign. The city has been divided into 144 districts, 50 of which were distributed last evening. This evening a dinner will be held to hear reports of the first day's results.

FIVE ARE FINED AFTER SEARCH DRINK PARLORS

Three Men Draw $200 Each for Possessing Intoxicants—Women Are Assailed.

The police Monday afternoon arrested three men and two women in alleged bootlegging joints. Fred Kedora, Mrs. M. Kibbe, and Myrtle Meyers were taken at Kedora's soft drink parlor at 316 T. and fourth street.

On being arraigned before Magistrate D. J. Cleland Kedora was fined $300 on a charge of having intoxicating liquor in his possession and the two women were fined $50 each on charges of disorderly conduct.

H. Scheuster was arrested at his soft drink parlor on Eighteenth street between First and Second avenues and was fined $300 on a charge of having intoxicating liquor in his possession.

The officers making the raids arrested Fred Johnson, alleged hip-pocket bootlegger, on the streets and he also drew a fine of $300 before Magistrate Cleland.

The police took several jugs and bottles of alleged liquor in the raids. The stuff had the appearance of very crude home made liquors.

NO CLUE TO DIXON ROBBERY. Dixon, Ill., Oct. 5.—County and city authorities today were without a clue to the robbers who stole $5,000 worth of furs and silks from the Wyrner Beaver Dry Goods store at Sterling, west of here, and escaped in a coupe which they took from a nearby garage.

REPORTS SHOW FINE LINEUP IN MEMBER DRIVE

First Reports Indicate Workers Will Exceed the Goal Placed at 500.

Reports submitted at the meeting of the Rock Island County Boosters' association of Modern Woodmen of America, held at the head offices last night, show unusual interest manifested throughout the county in the October drive for new members, being made under the leadership of Special Deputy Oakman, who arrived in Rock Island Sunday, following a successful campaign at Chester, Pa. Although the goal set is 500 candidates, the enthu-
