

SYNOD ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

Episcopal Provincial New in Session at Davenport

The following officers have been elected by the Episcopal provincial synod of the northwest, now in session at Davenport:

President—Bishop Harry S. Long, Des Moines.
Secretary—The Rev. E. K. Nickerson, Redwing, Minn.
Treasurer—F. W. Paine, Duluth.

Council of nine—Bishop Hugh Harrison, South Dakota; Bishop Irving D. Johnson, Colorado; Bishop W. F. Faber, Montana; Dr. Albert Ryan, Duluth, Minn.; Rev. Stanley Kilbourne, Minneapolis; Rev. Thomas Cassidy, Omaha; John S. Frame, Fargo, N. D.; F. C. Burge, Laramie, Wyo.; H. T. Drummond, Kearney, Neb.

Court of review—Bishop F. A. McSwain, Minnesota; the Very Rev. H. F. Klonan, Fargo, N. D.; the Rev. F. M. Hays, Lincoln, Neb.; the Rev. S. H. Hooker, Helena, Mont.; Thomas Woods, Duluth, Minn.; George F. Henry, Des Moines; J. H. Gates, Pierre, S. D.

Recruiting the ministry was discussed at the session held this morning. Right Rev. William F. Remington of South Dakota proposed the proposal and taking the floor declared that delegates were going around and not about the question.

This afternoon's meeting was presided over by Right Rev. Pontz, bishop of Wyoming. A spiritual healer of New Jersey was to be the speaker of the afternoon. The synod closes today.

FOUR GENERATIONS OF FAMILY TO CAST FIRST VOTES FOR PRESIDENT

The four generations. Sitting: Mrs. Samuel Batton, at left, and Mrs. George Brewster. Standing: Batten McNulty and Mrs. B. L. McNulty.

The ratification of the suffrage amendment has brought about an unusual situation in this Woodbridge, N. J., family. All four members shown above, representing four generations, will cast their first votes for president this fall. Mrs. Samuel Batton, great-grandmother, is 103 years old. Her daughter, Mrs. George Brewster, is 80. Batton's granddaughter, Mrs. B. L. McNulty, and her son Batton complete the four generations. They're all going to vote for Harding, they declare.

VIOLA

Dan W. Sedwick on Thursday afternoon at his home enjoyed a pleasant visit with officers of the Farmers' Bank of Viola, of which he was president until its reorganization a few weeks ago. At that time Mr. Sedwick asked to be released because of advanced age. Mr. Sedwick has been an efficient president and all parties connected with the bank hold him in high esteem. The guests enjoyed a beautiful 5-o'clock dinner and pleasant evening.

Miss Honora Ryan spent the week end at her home in Joy.

Mrs. Mac Tary spent several days last week with relatives and friends in Alexis.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Palmer and three children and Mrs. Bert Brown arrived here last week from Louisiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnie Miller of Alton spent Sunday evening with friends here.

Miss Dorothy Russell of New Windsor spent Monday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Russell.

Mrs. Given Thomas spent the week end with her daughter here.

Miss Merle Stoner spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Stoner.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ashenbush and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Menteer returned to Monmouth Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. J. Lipton of Preemption and Mrs. B. B. Snider of Denver, Col., spent Saturday with Dr. and Mrs. Lipton.

Mr. and Mrs. H. De Cook of Davenport spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fritch.

Members of the M. E. church held a reception in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Stevens in the church parlors on Monday evening. After an interesting program and delightful refreshments a social time was enjoyed.

Miss Bernice Lawless, who teaches near Woodhull, spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Lena Lawless.

A large number from here attended the fair at Burgess on Saturday.

Mrs. S. M. Lewis celebrated her 81st birthday on Thursday. Mrs. Lewis says except for rheumatic lameness she feels as good as she ever did and just as happy.

Mrs. F. Kimmell entertained the ladies' missionary society of the M. E. church at her home on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Isola Ralston of Woodhull spent the week end with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Swearingen and babe, of Burgess, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Rev. E. E. Karnes delivered his farewell sermon on Sunday evening. He with his family will leave immediately for their new home in Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McKinnon returned to their home in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, last week, after a visit at the John McKinnon home.

Mrs. Arthur Jones departed Thursday morning for Chicago, where she will visit her son Evan and wife.

Miss Ethel Nelson spent Thursday in New Windsor.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Minter and son spent Sunday with relatives Reynolds.

After a visit with relatives Frank Spiker departed Saturday for Madison, Mo., where he will visit his brother before returning to his home in Dodge City, Kan. He was accompanied to Galeburg by Mr. and Mrs. Morton Garrett and Miss Lucy Spiker.

Mrs. R. E. Swartout of Galesburg spent a few days last week with her mother, Mrs. Ella Bantle.

Miss Gertrude Winstein was a Rock Island visitor Friday.

Mrs. Lillian Kitzmiller of Peoria arrived last week for a visit with Mrs. Leza Bissell.

Eugene Steen went to Moline last week, where he will be employed in the shops.

The policemen of Athens have a very effective way of dealing with the automobile speed bend. The members of the Athenian "traffic club" are provided with planks which they drop in front of motor cars that are approaching at what appears to be excessive speed. If the driver is not driving too fast he stops in time; if he is, his tires are punctured.

Society

Notes to Jolly B.

Mrs. Charles Hendricks was hostess to the Jolly B club yesterday afternoon at her home, 409 Forty-first street. Five hundred was played, Mrs. Fred Kerr winning the first prize, Mrs. Byron Washburn the second prize and Mrs. David Bouslog, the all out. Delicious refreshments were served after the games. Mrs. Bouslog will entertain the club on Oct. 13 at her home, 108 Fifth avenue, Moline.

Sponsor Card Party.

Rock Island chapter No. 351, women of Moosehead legion, sponsored a very successful card party yesterday afternoon at Meik's hall. There were 11 tables of cards, prizes being awarded to Mrs. Emil Tank, Mrs. George Albrand, Mrs. A. F. Burger, Miss Sue O'Connor and Mrs. Axel Nielsen. Another card party will be sponsored by the legion on Oct. 13.

To Sew for Bazaar.

The Eastern Star sewing circle will hold an all day meeting Friday at the home of Mrs. Pearl Snyder, 1410 Fifteenth avenue, to sew on articles for the bazaar which the circle is to sponsor sometime this fall, the exact date to be announced later. A picnic luncheon will be served at noon, and a large attendance is desired as there is a great deal of work to be done.

Friends Give Surprise.

A delightful surprise party was given last evening at the Long View park chalet in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Hobson, who are leaving for a trip through the east. The evening was spent in dancing and at a late hour supper was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Philip Fisher of Rock Island, Mr. and Mrs. George Coburn, Miss Clarabell Coburn, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hill, and Mrs. J. C. Skinner of Moline, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Swift, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Skinner, Mrs. Belle Smith, Mrs. Morris Welch, Mrs. Mae Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mayo, and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Schwagerle, of Davenport.

Entertain Service Circle.

Miss Margaret Cook entertained the Service circle of King's Daughters at their regular monthly meeting last evening at her home, 1230 Twentieth street. Regular business was transacted and members were appointed to visit the baby clinic during the month of October. Mrs. Ilea Gansert and Miss Katharine Dolly are to go on Oct. 5, Miss Fanny Jones and Mrs. Howard Klove, on Oct. 12, Miss Mabel Martin and Miss Catherine Marshall will visit the clinic on Oct. 23, and Miss Dorothy McCabe and Miss Hilda Quackenbush, Oct. 29. After the business session, a delightful social hour was enjoyed, and delicious refreshments were served. Miss Winifred Rock of Avon Park, Fla. was an out-of-town visitor. Miss Grace Murphy will be hostess at the next meeting of the circle at her home, 561 Thirtieth street.

Mrs. Mancher to Speak.

The opening meeting of the Parent-Teacher association of the Irving school will be held Thursday afternoon at the school house at 6 o'clock. Mrs. J. W. Mancher, president of the Rock Island Parent-Teacher council, will give a report of the state convention held in Springfield in Charleston. The 25 grade pupils of Miss Lois Jones will give an interesting dramatization costume. After the program, refreshments will be served.

Second Meeting Friday.

Frances Willard Parent-Teacher association will meet at 6 o'clock Friday afternoon at the school, when the program will consist of a piano selection by Mrs. M. Sundeen, a game by the first grade pupils and a talk by the school nurse. This will be the second meeting of the season and there is important business to be transacted. All mothers in the community are invited to attend.

Lundt & Co

Sale of Silks—Main Floor

Sale of Coats—Second Floor

An Unprecedented Opportunity to Save Substantially

Notable Sale of Fall and Winter Coats

STYLES FOR WOMEN AND MISSES

75 Coats, a Special Advantageous Purchase, on Sale Thursday and Until Sold

Embracing all that is new and smart in fabrics and modeling, coats that will instantly appeal to those who are looking for style combined with comfort.

Beautiful high class materials have been generously used in building these garments — materials are velours, oxfords, corduroy, broadcloth and plaid back.

$15

$15

There are plenty of brown shades, as well as navy blue, taupe, Algerian black, reindeer, oxford grey and Scotch heather mixtures. Choose early for choice selections

Many attractive styles featuring fur collars or trimmings of self materials, belts, larger buttons, choker collars are notable style points.

Sale of Fall Frocks

Styles for women and misses, closely priced to afford you the greatest economies.

$15

Frocks superior in fabric, distinctive in styling. Frocks of fine satin, georgette, crepe, taffeta silks, are clever copies of high cost models displaying latest fashion details.

Tailored Blouses

of fine madras material in a special selling at $1.95

$1.95

Striped effects with two in one collar. Satin Silk Bloomers In a special selling, colors are black, emerald, and navy ..... $5.95 Early choosing is urged for the values are "too good to last long."

Autumn Hats

In a special selling, 50 hats in one big lot. Styles are distinct and different.

$5.00

Exclusive sale of Dobbs Gage Checkano Phipps hats

Second Floor Offerings Greatly Underpriced for Thursday Only

In a special selling, two hundred Dolly Varden figured heather-bloom petticoats, each .....	$2.95	In a special selling, 10 dozen tafeta silk flower petticoats, changeable colors, each .....	$2.95	In a special selling, 6 dozen silk camisoles, navy, brown and red silk warp and solid colors, each .....	$2.95
Bungalow aprons each	$1.95	Pre-shrunk conservation dresses, each	$2.25	Flannelette kimonas each	$1.95
Muslin night gowns	$1.00	White outing flannel gowns	$1.50	Girls' satine bloomers	59c
Silk camisoles, flesh and white	$1.95

SILVIS

Mrs. Archie Hagedorn and daughter Marie visited with relatives and friends at Omaha, Neb., last week. Mrs. J. H. Leasure and daughter Blanche visited at the home of her sisters, the Misses Bromley in Rock Island, last Monday.

Rev. J. S. Neal has been assigned to the Silvis Methodist church as pastor for 1921.

Those who attended the all day meeting at the Ladies' Aid society of the Memorial Methodist church last Thursday in the basement of the church, are Mesdames Mary Harper, Jessie Wilson, Rallie, Arthur Humphries, Slover, Miller, J. H. Leasure, Nelson, Miller, Hill, Kendall and Rev. and Mrs. C. Hoffmeyer. After some hours spent in sewing carpet rags and quilting a splendid dinner was served, each one present having contributed at least one article. Later the devotionals exercises were conducted by Mrs. Harry Hill the president. A farewell reception was also planned for Rev. and Mrs. C. Hoffmeyer and was carried out Monday evening in the basement of the church, when 100 friends, mostly members of the church and Ladies' Aid society were entertained. A literary and musical program was carried out. Rev. and Mrs. Hoffmeyer were presented with a sum of money. They go to Joy, Ill.

Mrs. Marie Marchant entertained the Nevis club last Monday evening. Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Johnson will entertain the members and friends of the Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church next Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Knouse and family arrived home from a visit at Kansas City. H. Hill and wife have been visiting at New York city and Delmar, Iowa.

Mrs. Van Dennis is ill with tonsillitis.

Mrs. George McKinley of Des Moines and formerly of Silvis is visiting with friends here and in the tri-cities.

The local order of the Eastern Star had special meeting last Tuesday, Sept. 24, at the Odd Fellows hall, when guests from Colona, Rock Island, Moline and East Moline were in attendance. It was a very interesting and instructive meeting.

The Reading and Crescent Embroidery club met with Mrs. J. E. Brown last Tuesday.

Mrs. James Shannon spent part of last week in Cambridge.

Dr. Johnson and family of Anawan were visiting friends here last week.

The local Woman's club met last Friday afternoon at the Baptist church. This was the first meeting of the season and a large number of new names were presented for membership.

A fine new furnace has been installed in the Memorial Methodist church.

Mrs. Miller has returned home from a trip to Chicago, Pittsburgh and Detroit with her parents and other relatives.

Mrs. Fred Ball visited at Carbon Cliff last Thursday.

Myrtle Carlson is enjoying a vacation at Storm Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. George Newton are in Detroit for the benefit of Mr. Newton's health.

Mr. Cross of Gary, Ind., is visiting relatives here.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid society has set Dec. 2 for their Christmas bazaar.

Mesdames Richards and Johnson were hostesses to the Baptist Ladies' Aid society last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sharp arrived home from a several days' visit in Chicago.

Mesdames Thomas Groom and Roy Dix are visiting relatives in Oklaoma.

FUGITIVE ARRESTED.

William McLoughlin, Toulon, Ill., was arrested on the streets this afternoon by Detective Herman Schbert as a fugitive from justice. McLoughlin is wanted at Toulon for larceny. The sheriff from that place is expected to arrive tomorrow to take charge of the prisoner.