Lionel Barrymore in "The Master Mind" at Spencer Square

Lionel Barrymore plays a career triumph and holds his audience spellbound in "The Master Mind," a photo-dramatic production which far excels some of our very best pictures shown. In fact, it can be called super-extraordinary without straining the truth in the least.

The supporting cast with which Whitman Bennett has surrounded his distinguished star is worthy of a paragraph, too. Gypsy O'Brien, in the leading feminine part, excites admiration and she builds up her character in such a way as to have the whole sympathy throughout.

Wednesday and Thursday Olive Thomas comes in "The Flapper," and Thursday and Friday Eugene O'Brien in "The Figurehead" has been booked.

LOCAL ASSOCIATION WILL SEND MEN TO CHICAGO LAY MEET

Several Rock Island business men, together with delegates from the local Y. M. C. A., are planning to attend the mid-west laymen's conference on evangelism to be held at the central department Y. M. C. A. in Chicago on Nov. 5-7.

Arrangements for gospel work, group work and other classes will be made. The purpose of the organization is to stimulate lay evangelism. Tentative plans for the program includes services, addresses and discussions.

Some of the chief speakers of the meeting will be Hugh E. Munro, New York City business man; Dr. John Timothy Stone, Chicago; Henry P. Crowell, Quaker Oats man; Dr. Howard Agnew Johnston; Fred McMillen, Des Moines; A. K. Harper, Fairfield, Iowa; F. W. Ramsey, Cleveland; W. A. Peterson, Chicago; Dr. Charles L. Goodell of the committee on evangelism of the federal council and Frank Goodman of New York of the Y international committee.

No reports on the Y membership campaign were made today. The city has been thrown open to all the workers and a final dinner at which time the last reports will be given will be held Monday evening. No special program has been planned for that night. The winning team will be given a dinner at the Blackhawk hotel, Davenport, and the high man will be awarded a gold Y. M. C. A. bob.

Several hundred boys took advantage of open house at the Y. M. C. A. today. Classes were closed during the week due to the membership campaign.

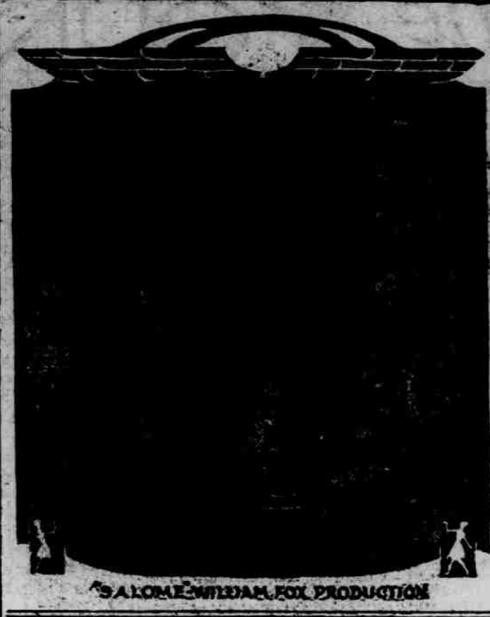

J. E. Hauser, state religious secretary, yesterday made tentative plans with Y. M. C. A. officials for the religious work to be carried out here this winter. Mr. Hauser visited in the city for only a day to be in conference with officials.

There will be no H-Y club meeting next Tuesday evening, due to the closing of schools for the week. Schools are closed to enable teachers to attend the Rock Island and Mercer counties teachers' institute.

Practise for summons in a personal injury suit for $3,000 was filed today in circuit court by William H. Leffheit through Attorney Ben Stewart against Harts & Bahnsen company. The suit is an outgrowth of a collision last spring between a Harts & Bahnsen truck and a wagon driven by the plaintiff.
