DRIVER ROBBED OF HIS CASH; ABANDONS TAXI

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Sharp net-backs in the price of wheat today accompanied demoralization of foreign exchange. Besides, liberal receipts were reported at Kansas City and Omaha. Notice was also taken of forecasts that take navigation from Canada to United States ports would be open for a month or more yet. Initial prices, which ranged from 1c to 4 1/2c lower, with December at 1.88 to 1.89 and March at 1.83 to 1.84, were followed by material further declines and then something of a reaction.

HEAVY VOLUME OF STOCKS ARE LOOSE IN MARKET

New York, Nov. 8.—Stocks were poured out in heavy volume on the market during the morning, dealings exceeding 500,000 shares. Excess losses of 2 to 7 points were made by various popular issues, such as Mexican and pan-American Petroleum, Atlantic Gulf, Republic Steel, Pierce-Arrow preferred, Delaware, Lackawanna & Western and Delaware & Hudson. Elsewhere additional recessions of 1 to 2 points from early prices were the rule. The rally before noon was led by Transcontinental Rails, notably South Pacific and Northern Pacific, strength also being shown by Texas Pacific and United Fruit. Gains in these issues ran from 1 to 2 points, some of the more stable industrials also rallying. The London rate recovered part of its loss, but call money was firm at 9 per cent.

MOORE CLUE IN CHICAGO FAILS

Chicago Detectives Unable to Locate Relative of Man Wanted in Swearingin Murder.

Sheriff J. C. Fleming is in receipt of a letter from W. J. Cusack, Chicago, stating that all attempts to locate Thomas E. Moore, said to be the stepfather of "Red" alias T. E. Pruet, alias Edward Crest, who is wanted here for the murder of Robert Swearingin on Sept. 16, have proved futile. Sergeant Cusack stated that officers had searched the stockyards on the south side of Chicago, where Moore is supposed to be employed, for three days without success. He also states that no record of either "Red" or Rubenstein can be found in the bureau of identification in Chicago.

two of first down. Webber punted 45 yards to Pearce on Staley's 35-yard line. Denfield and Smith held Pearce to four yards' runback. Denfield was hurt and Rock Island took time.

Kuehl more held Sternaman to a yard through center on the side-line. The ball was carried out by Healey and Fitzgerald, but the latter was ruled unnecessarily rough in charging Traflet and Rock Island drew a 15-yard penalty that put the ball up to Rock Island's 45-yard line.

Pearce fumbled and Denfield got the ball on the scrimmage line. Pearce was hurt in the play and Staley took time.

Kuehl gained a yard through center. Sternaman intercepted Smith's pass and was chased out of bounds at Staley's 47-yard line. Chamberlain dropped back and hit center for two yards. A forward pass, Conzelman to Sternaman, netted 15 yards and put the ball on Rock Island's 36-yard line for FIRST DOWN. Kuehl tackling.

Novak blocked Conzelman's pass. Chamberlain missed a second pass and Conzelman punted 27 yards to Kuehl, whom Traflet downed after a gain of 18 yards, putting the ball on Rock Island's 45-yard line. Kuehl hit right tackle for three yards. Smith added three from punt formation and was hurt in the play. Smith's left knee was wrenched badly and he was replaced by Mansfield. Webber gained a yard on a wide right end run from punt formation. Webber punted 34 yards to Sternaman on Staley's 23-yard line. It appeared that Sternaman had signaled for a fair catch. He held his right hand high above his head, but when he took more than the allotted two steps, Webber threw him in his tracks.

Conzelman made it FIRST DOWN on a wide left end run, Denfield throwing him out of bounds at the 33-yard line. A double pass, Conzelman to Kohler, netted a yard. Conzelman failed to complete a pass. Staley was called offside and the ball returned to the 29-yard line. Conzelman, from punt formation, gained five yards outside left tackle. Healy was yanking him down. Conzelman punted 45 yards to Ursella, whom Chamberlain spilled on the 23-yard line after three yards' gain.

Kuehl gained a yard through center, but Rock Island was called offside and the ball returned to the 23-yard line. Kuehl failed to gain through the left wing, but Shaw opened a nice hole and let Novak through for two. Shaw boxed Halas and Blacklock again, letting Kuehl through for four yards. Halas was called offside and the ball advanced to the 34-yard line for FIRST DOWN.

Kuehl hit for two yards on a cross-back and then straight on tackle for four more, when the game ended with the ball on Rock Island's 48-yard line.

two of first down. Webber punted 45 yards to Pearce on Staley's 35-yard line. Denfield and Smith held Pearce to four yards' runback. Denfield was hurt and Rock Island took time.

Kuehl more held Sternaman to a yard through center on the side-line. The ball was carried out by Healey and Fitzgerald, but the latter was ruled unnecessarily rough in charging Traflet and Rock Island drew a 15-yard penalty that put the ball up to Rock Island's 45-yard line.

Kuehl gained a yard through center. Sternaman intercepted Smith's pass and was chased out of bounds at Staley's 47-yard line. Chamberlain dropped back and hit center for two yards. A forward pass, Conzelman to Sternaman, netted 15 yards and put the ball on Rock Island's 36-yard line for FIRST DOWN. Kuehl tackling.

Novak blocked Conzelman's pass. Chamberlain missed a second pass and Conzelman punted 27 yards to Kuehl, whom Traflet downed after a gain of 18 yards, putting the ball on Rock Island's 45-yard line. Kuehl hit right tackle for three yards. Smith added three from punt formation and was hurt in the play. Smith's left knee was wrenched badly and he was replaced by Mansfield. Webber gained a yard on a wide right end run from punt formation. Webber punted 34 yards to Sternaman on Staley's 23-yard line. It appeared that Sternaman had signaled for a fair catch. He held his right hand high above his head, but when he took more than the allotted two steps, Webber threw him in his tracks.

Conzelman made it FIRST DOWN on a wide left end run, Denfield throwing him out of bounds at the 33-yard line. A double pass, Conzelman to Kohler, netted a yard. Conzelman failed to complete a pass. Staley was called offside and the ball returned to the 29-yard line. Conzelman, from punt formation, gained five yards outside left tackle. Healy was yanking him down. Conzelman punted 45 yards to Ursella, whom Chamberlain spilled on the 23-yard line after three yards' gain.

Kuehl gained a yard through center, but Rock Island was called offside and the ball returned to the 23-yard line. Kuehl failed to gain through the left wing, but Shaw opened a nice hole and let Novak through for two. Shaw boxed Halas and Blacklock again, letting Kuehl through for four yards. Halas was called offside and the ball advanced to the 34-yard line for FIRST DOWN.

Kuehl hit for two yards on a cross-back and then straight on tackle for four more, when the game ended with the ball on Rock Island's 48-yard line.
