

THURSDAY SAYS MAYOR

Armistice Day Program Arranged and Workers Want to Stay on Job, He Declares

There will be no holiday declared in Rock Island by a mayor's proclamation for Thursday, Armistice day, Mayor Harry M. Schriver announced today. He said that after due consideration he deems it inadvisable to take such action.

The Rock Island city executive has been in conference with Mayor Harry M. Schriver and American Legion officials, all of whom are in an opinion that a holiday should not be declared.

The first thing considered was that no state action has been taken and in no other larger community in the state has a move been made for declaring Armistice day as a holiday.

Furthermore, it is set forth that in case a holiday was declared there would be no place for the public to attend services or a program of any kind, due to no arrangements having been taken by any organization.

Workers Don't Want Layoff

It was also pointed out that there is a certain feeling that work is not going to be too plentiful this winter, and due to this, many workers express themselves as not in accord with the holiday plan when it would only mean their losing time without the advantage of being able to attend any Armistice day celebration. The officials announced that out of a good number of factory workers interviewed only a few were in favor of declaring a holiday.

However, it seemed to be the consensus of salaried workers—those who would not lose any pay by taking advantage of a holiday—that a holiday should be declared. Mayor Schriver said that he feels

The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—(Adv.)
