

SOCIAL EVENTS

Pink and White Tea for Mrs. McClelland.
 Mrs. David Nelson McClelland, formerly Miss Nancy Dow of Davenport, one of the much feted brides of the fall, was the guest of honor at a beautifully appointed tea yesterday afternoon at the Outlook club. The hostess was Mrs. Anna B. McClelland, Mrs. D. N. Richardson, the mother of Mrs. Anna McClelland, was with the receiving party, and assisted in welcoming the guests.
 Mrs. Richardson was in black and lace; Mrs. Anna McClelland wore pearl grey crepe de chine with touches of orchid in net over dress; Mrs. Thomas McClelland was in black satin with trimmings of passementerie and an American Beauty rose in her hair, and Mrs. D. N. McClelland wore a gown of old blue chiffon beaded in conventional design on skirt and bodice.
 It was a pink and white tea with decorative details carried out in baskets and bouquets of pink roses and white button chrysanthemums, the serving table in the dining room having a large fancy basket filled with the rose buds and white flowers. Four silver centerpieces held flaming pink tapers to give the pretty effect and the dainty colors were carried out in cakes and ices.
 Assisting in entertaining about the rooms and in pouring, were Mrs. John F. Dow, Mrs. Joe R. Lane, Mrs. M. N. Richardson, Mrs. J. B. Richardson, Mrs. Dick Lane, Mrs. J. Reed Lane, Mrs. Kurt Sensibaugh, Mrs. Horace Birdshell, Mrs. Gilbert Dow, Mrs. I. L. Sears, Mrs. James Clayton, Miss Caroline Gilchrist, Mrs. James Von Maur, Mrs. Worrall Dow, Mrs. John Stephen Dow, Mrs. Weir Sears, Mrs. W. G. Smith, Mrs. Harold Phoenix, Miss Gertrude Thompson of Washington, D. C., Mrs. J. H. Whitaker, and Mrs. Ida Taber.
 There were over 200 tri-city friends as guests of the afternoon, and refreshments were served in the dining rooms during the reception hours, from 3 to 6 o'clock.
 Mrs. Arthur Atkinson of Hollywood, Calif., and Mrs. A. Z. Harris of Kalamazoo, Mich., were among out-of-town guests at the tea.

Leave for National Board Meet.
 Mrs. J. J. Dorgan of Davenport, chairman of the National biennial of Musical clubs biennial, will be held in the tri-cities in June, 1931, and Mrs. Frank Gates Allen of Moline, chairman of the N. F. M. C. endowment fund, left on the noon train yesterday for Akron, Ohio, to attend the annual meeting of the national executive board.
 The board members, over 50 in number, will be entertained at "Stan Hywet," the palatial home of Mrs. F. A. Sieberling, the president of the National Federation, near Akron. There will be special concerts and banquets in honor of the visitors, the morning hours each day to be devoted to business sessions and to the coming biennial of next spring in the three cities will form the most important topic of discussion and plans.
 Mrs. Dorgan expects to be absent from home about ten days.

P. D. Q. Club.
 The P. D. Q. club met Monday evening at the home of Miss Marie Mielke, 510 Thirty-ninth street. A short business session was held and arrangements were made for a progressive party to be held Nov. 16. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing hearts, and prizes were awarded to Miss Lucille Wright, Miss Vera Martin and Miss Kathryn Fuller. A dainty luncheon was served at the close of the evening. The next meeting will be held Nov. 23 with Miss Gertrude Kininsland, 320 Eleventh street.

Lecture by Dr. Hillis.
 The third of the series of picture lectures by Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis was given last evening at the Cleveland Presbyterian church. Dr. Hillis' subject was "The Sanctity of Property and the Logical Inference from the Sanctity of Life," and a large number attending enjoyed his remarks. Moving pictures were also shown and there were two vocal selections by Ralph Fuller, piano duets by the Misses Minnie and Maud Graham, and readings by Miss Margaret Carnaghan of Milan. The next lecture will be given Nov. 23. Next Tuesday evening, moving pictures will be shown at the church.

Dancing Party a Success.
 Another of the series of dancing parties sponsored by the drill team of camp No. 85, Woodmen of the World, was held last evening at Odd Fellows hall. The affair was a complete success, and was attended by some one hundred thirty-five couples. Music was furnished by the dancing by Tony and Evans Capitol orchestra. The next party of the series will be given Tuesday evening, Nov. 23. Music will be furnished by the same orchestra.

Court of Honor Card Party.
 Court of Honor, No. 21, sponsored an enjoyable card party yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Peter Weber, 1125 1/2 avenue. There were six tables of 500 and prizes were awarded to Miss Lulu Meyer, Miss Sue O'Connor, Mrs. Gus Bergeson and Mrs. Yroman. It was decided to hold another card party in the near future. The regular meeting of the court will be held this evening in Odd Fellows hall.

Sew for Easter Bazar.
 Colonel Brackett entertained the G. A. R. met yesterday afternoon at Memorial hall for a sewing meeting. The ladies are working on articles, preparing for the Easter bazar.

Many Enjoy Pageant.
 The Grace Lutheran church was filled last evening when the pageant, "Christ in America," a presentation of home mission opportunities, was given under the auspices of the woman's missionary society. The play, which deals with the need for work among the foreigners in the United States, was the same as was presented at the Augustana synod meeting in Jamestown, N. Y., and local delegates were so impressed that they secured it for Rock Island people. Many interested mission workers from various churches outside the denomination enjoyed the opportunity of seeing the affair, and it has already been requested that it be repeated in the near future.

 There were 50 people in the cast and 16 countries were represented. Costumes of the various nations were a feature of the affair and the performance was varied with musical selections. Miss Edna Satterdahl took the part of Columbia and Miss Leona Nelson was the Church. Miss Mabel Arnell took the part of China, the principal nation represented. The cast were a number of children in the cast as well. Mrs. D. Arthur Nelson had charge of directing the pageant. Dr. G. A. Brande, pastor of the church, made a few remarks at the opening of the program and Miss Alplhid Rydbeck gave two vocal numbers.

Dr. Sensibaugh Speaks.
 Dr. W. C. Sensibaugh, vice president of the International Church Film corporation, who is here in the tri-cities, spoke at a joint meeting of the Christian Endeavor society and the Sons of Temperance class of the Memorial Christian church held last evening at the church. Dr. Sensibaugh spoke on "The Blind Bartemaeus." There was a large attendance.

Miss Bellows Addresses Club Girls.
 The Ethel, Makro, Owaissa and Edgewood Baptist club girls held their regular joint meeting at the Y. M. C. A. last evening, at which time they entertained a number of young employed club girls of the Davenport Y. W. C. A. A club supper was served at 5:30, and at 6:30 o'clock Miss Jane Bellows, who is here assisting Dr. Leona L. Meanes in the health work at a campaign being put under the direction of the Rock Island and Davenport Y. W. C. A., spoke on the subject of health as a positive factor in our lives and gave demonstrations of posture and corrective foot exercises. Later in the evening the Owaissas put on a stunt, "The Country School."

Plan Card Party.
 Bethany home educational committee is sponsoring a card party Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 16, in the girls' community service rooms in Moline. The games will start at 2:30 and each member of the committee is responsible for filling two tables or more.
 The committee is meeting Friday morning at the home of Mrs. A. Mosenfelder to complete arrangements for the reception to be given at the home on Thursday evening, Nov. 18.

Eugene Field P. T. A.
 The regular meeting of the parent-teachers' association of Eugene Field school will be held at the school tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. T. B. Reilly will give a group of songs and Rev. W. G. Oglewee will give an address, his subject to be "Reverence of Self of Followmen, of God." All mothers of the community are urged to attend. Refreshments will be served following the program by the mothers of the fourth grade pupils.

Program for Bazar.
 Following is the program which has been arranged by Mrs. Mae Richards Casey, to be given this afternoon and evening at the bazar being sponsored by the altar society of St. Joseph's church in the school auditorium:
 Violin-piano—Misses Pauline and Anna Campbell.
 Vocal solo—Miss Louise Burt, accompanied by Miss Susanne Meehan.
 Reading—Miss Ruby Brough.
 Vocal solos—Miss Geraldine Andrews.
 Violin-piano—Adam Finnigan and Mrs. E. Cunningham.
 Vocal solo—Miss Margaret Seaton, accompanied by Miss Susanne Meehan.
 Reading—Miss Katherine Fuller.
 Vocal solo—Miss Marie Houldsworth.
 Violin-piano—Adam Finnigan and Mrs. E. Cunningham.
 Saxophone solo—Miss Odella Schmidt.
 Vocal duet—Miss Marie Houldsworth and Mrs. E. Cunningham.

Plan for Father's Night.
 Father's night is to be held at Hawthorne school on Tuesday evening, Dec. 7, according to plans made yesterday afternoon at the regular meeting held at the school. All fathers and mothers in the community are invited to attend. There will be a program which will be of special interest to them all.
 Yesterday's meeting was opened with the singing of "America" and talks were given by Mrs. Turnbaugh and Mrs. Hornsby. Refreshments were served and a social hour followed. There were 50 members present. The social committee for yesterday's meeting included Mesdames Eckermann, Rowe, Byer, O'Connell, Dandaway and Yoh.

Nurses Clear $150 from Tea.
 The nurses of the Lutheran hospital of Moline sponsored a silver coffee yesterday afternoon and evening between the hours of 3 and 10 o'clock at the nurses' home. The proceeds from the affair amounted to $150, which will be used for the training school. Chrysanthemums were used about the rooms in decorations, and many tri-city friends called and were served during the hours.

D. A. R. Program.
 The following is the program of the coming season for the Fort Armstrong chapter, D. A. R.:
 * November—Mrs. E. G. Frazier, 734 Twenty-third street, Rock Island, hostess.
 December—Reading, "Deeper Meaning of the D. A. R.," Mrs. Phil Mitchell, hostess. Mrs. H. C. First, 1821 Twenty-first street, Rock Island.

January—Election of delegates to the national congress and the state conference. Mrs. Fred Rinck, 1099 Twentieth street, Rock Island, hostess.

February—Social meeting. March—Address, E. C. Fisher, hostess. Mrs. Frederick Schwatka, 923 Twentieth street, Rock Island.

April—Report of national conference. Hostess, Mrs. Adair Pleasants, 1609 Thirteenth avenue, Rock Island.

May—Annual election. Hostess, Mrs. C. J. Long, 2124 Eighteenth avenue, Rock Island.

The standing committees are as follows:
 Program—Mrs. C. J. Long, Mrs. Martha Williams, Mrs. Frank Bahnsen, Miss Bessie Nofaker, Miss Georgia First.
 Memorial day—Mrs. Louisa Copp, Mrs. G. G. Craig.
 Flag day—Mrs. W. L. Yellman, Mrs. Phil Mitchell, Mrs. George Perrin, Mrs. M. E. Sweeney, Mrs. A. Pleasants.
 Nominating—Mrs. Frank Mixer, Mrs. Ralph Dart, Mrs. Cora East, Mrs. H. H. Chase, Mrs. E. G. Frazier, Mrs. Joseph McCrory, Mrs. Joseph McCrory.

To prevent desecration of the flag—Mrs. Louisa Copp, Mrs. E. W. Robinson, Mrs. Frederick Schwatka.
 Americanization and patriotic education—Mrs. Frank Bahnsen, Mrs. W. L. Yellman, Mrs. Nina Brown, Miss Dorothy McCabe, Mrs. M. E. Sweeney, Miss Elizabeth Craig, Mrs. B. E. Jones, Mrs. H. S. Cable, Mrs. H. J. Sweeney, Mrs. B. D. Connelly, Miss Millicent Spencer and Miss Eleanor Cleveland.
 Social—Mrs. G. G. Craig, Miss Millicent Spencer, Mrs. Fred Rinck, Mrs. John Weiss, Mrs. George Read, Miss Eleanor Cleveland, Mrs. James Montgomery and Miss Carrie Gregg.

The officers elected last spring are: Regent, Miss Clara Whitman; first vice regent, Mrs. J. R. Kimball; second vice regent, Mrs. Adair Pleasants; secretary, Mrs. W. L. Yellman; treasurer, Mrs. Louisa M. Copp; registrar, Miss Clara Hampton; historian, Mrs. M. E. Sweeney.
 An interesting entertainment will be given Saturday evening at the Pleasant Ridge church in Bowling township. The program will be composed of vocal numbers by Rev. Rollo R. Rilling, tenor soloist of Davenport, and readings by Miss Marian Fleming of Davenport.
 Friday evening, Nov. 19, J. H. Hauberg will give a historical lecture to be illustrated with stereopticon views.
 Plans are being made by members of the Pleasant Ridge Community club to celebrate the three hundredth anniversary of the landing of the pilgrims, by presenting the pageant, "The Coming of the Mayflower," which will be shown some time in December.

To Bring Jelly for Gift Shop.
 Announcement is made that each member of the King's Daughters' union is to be requested to contribute one glass of jelly, pickles or preserves to the Gift Shop which the Rock Island union King's Daughters is to sponsor at the Y. W. C. A. beginning Saturday morning. The glasses are to be labeled and the union is anxious that they be brought to the Y. W. C. A. by Friday morning. Members of the union will be at the Y. W. C. A. all day Friday to receive contributions to the shop.

 The Gift Shop will open early Saturday morning and will continue as long as the articles last. All sort of useful household articles, as well as preserves and jellies in many favors will be sold, and there is a large variety of dainty articles, such as children's dresses, infant apparel, towels, handkerchiefs, card table covers, collar and cuff sets, etc., which would make charming Christmas gifts. Members from each of the circles will be in charge each day.
 Following is the program to be given at the second of the students' recitals of Augustana Conservatory of Music, to be given tomorrow evening in the college chapel:
 Melody West
 Miss Marion Magnuson.
 Widmung Schumann-Liszt
 Miss Ruth M. Anderson.
 Andante (from Concerto No. 4) Seitz
 Willbur Plummerman.
 A Birthday Woodman
 I Build a World in the Heart of a Rose Nicholls
 Miss Frances Lyon.
 Valse Caprice (Man lebt nur einmal) Strauss-Tausig
 Minuet in G Beethoven
 Marcus Miller.
 On the Road to Mandalay Speaks
 J. Frazier Vance.
 Sonata No. 4 Mendelssohn
 Allegro, Vivace, Moderato and Allegro assai.
 Elmer Hanke.
 On Wings of Song Mendelssohn
 Spanish Dance Rehfeld
 Miss Mabelle Lundin.
 The Jugglers Moszkowski
 Rhapsody, C major Dohnanyi
 Miss Thyra Soberg.
 Duet: I Feel Thy Angel Spirit Hoffman
 Miss Frances Lyon, J. Frazier Vance.

Admit New Member to Court.
 Court of Honor No. 855, met last evening at the home of Mrs. F. E. Gavin, 956 Twentieth avenue, when one new member was taken into the court. Following the business session, four tables of cinct were played, Miss Genevieve Litterest taking the ladies' head prize and Mrs. Carl Kolloff, the low. Otto Litterest took the men's head prize and Harry Barnes the low. The next meeting will be held Dec. 14 at the home of Mrs. George Baumbach, 831 Twenty-first street.

Important Association Meet.
 An important meeting of the Kindergarten association will be held tomorrow afternoon in the rooms at Fourteenth avenue and Thirtieth street. All the members and the mothers interested in kindergarten work are urged to be present.

Daughters' Tea Delightful Affair.
 The semi-annual tea given by the Daughters of the Covenant of the First Methodist church at the home of Mrs. C. H. Langman, 1811 Twelfth street, last evening was a delightful affair. Tea was served to some one hundred twenty-five daughters and members of their families. Mrs. A. F. Sala was in charge of the affair. After the supper a short business session was held. Regular business was transacted and five new members were welcomed into the society. Mrs. C. C. McCown gave the regular lesson, the first chapter of the year book on "The Bible and Missions," and Mrs. F. E. Sudlow gave an interesting reading, "Dorothy Entertains the Minister." Following the program the remainder of the evening was turned over to sociability.

Fathers Present Program.
 The fathers presented the program last evening for the members of the Horace Mann P. T. A., which proved very enjoyable and instructive. The business session was dispensed with and the entire evening given over to the program and sociability. Miss Marion Plogh gave a reading and Bonnie Holmes gave readings, while Rev. W. G. Oglewee gave a talk on "The Obligations and Duties of the Fathers evening to the members of her Sunday school class of the First Methodist church of which Mrs. Guy Bradford is the teacher. Following the short business session, the girls occupied themselves with their fancy work while they enjoyed a social. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Miss Margaret Mercer will entertain the class Dec. 7 at her home, 541 Twentieth street.

Hendrickson-Anderson Engagement.
 Mrs. Julia Anderson of 1241 Thirty-seventh street announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Esther Anderson, to Glenn Hendrickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hendrickson of 914 Twenty-second street. The wedding will be an event of the near future.
 Miss Anderson attended the public schools and the local high school, and for some time was employed on Rock Island Arsenal. Mr. Hendrickson is in the tank department of the Rock Island Arsenal. During the war he served overseas for over a year.

Reuben Carlson gave two violin numbers and Bert Plogh favored with vocal numbers. Owen B. Wright, principal of Washington school, spoke on the subject, "What the Parent-Teachers' Association Means to the Fathers." Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. The next meeting will be held Dec. 7 at the school.

Frances Willard P. T. A. will meet at the school at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Mrs. H. H. Cleveland will give a talk, "The Child's Place in the Home," and there will be folk dances by the pupils of the second grade. Mothers of the district are invited to attend the meeting. There will be a social hour following the program and refreshments will be served.

Entertain Sunday School Class. Miss Marion Simon of 578 Twenty-first avenue, was hostess last

to the Parent-Teachers' Association." Reuben Carlson gave two violin numbers and Bert Plogh favored with vocal numbers. Owen B. Wright, principal of Washington school, spoke on the subject, "What the Parent-Teachers' Association Means to the Fathers." Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. The next meeting will be held Dec. 7 at the school.

Frances Willard P. T. A. will meet at the school at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Mrs. H. H. Cleveland will give a talk, "The Child's Place in the Home," and there will be folk dances by the pupils of the second grade. Mothers of the district are invited to attend the meeting. There will be a social hour following the program and refreshments will be served.

Entertain Sunday School Class. Miss Marion Simon of 578 Twenty-first avenue, was hostess last

to the Parent-Teachers' Association." Reuben Carlson gave two violin numbers and Bert Plogh favored with vocal numbers. Owen B. Wright, principal of Washington school, spoke on the subject, "What the Parent-Teachers' Association Means to the Fathers." Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. The next meeting will be held Dec. 7 at the school.

Frances Willard P. T. A. will meet at the school at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Mrs. H. H. Cleveland will give a talk, "The Child's Place in the Home," and there will be folk dances by the pupils of the second grade. Mothers of the district are invited to attend the meeting. There will be a social hour following the program and refreshments will be served.

Entertain Sunday School Class. Miss Marion Simon of 578 Twenty-first avenue, was hostess last

to the Parent-Teachers' Association." Reuben Carlson gave two violin numbers and Bert Plogh favored with vocal numbers. Owen B. Wright, principal of Washington school, spoke on the subject, "What the Parent-Teachers' Association Means to the Fathers." Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. The next meeting will be held Dec. 7 at the school.

Frances Willard P. T. A. will meet at the school at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Mrs. H. H. Cleveland will give a talk, "The Child's Place in the Home," and there will be folk dances by the pupils of the second grade. Mothers of the district are invited to attend the meeting. There will be a social hour following the program and refreshments will be served.

Entertain Sunday School Class. Miss Marion Simon of 578 Twenty-first avenue, was hostess last

to the Parent-Teachers' Association." Reuben Carlson gave two violin numbers and Bert Plogh favored with vocal numbers. Owen B. Wright, principal of Washington school, spoke on the subject, "What the Parent-Teachers' Association Means to the Fathers." Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. The next meeting will be held Dec. 7 at the school.

Frances Willard P. T. A. will meet at the school at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Mrs. H. H. Cleveland will give a talk, "The Child's Place in the Home," and there will be folk dances by the pupils of the second grade. Mothers of the district are invited to attend the meeting. There will be a social hour following the program and refreshments will be served.

Entertain Sunday School Class. Miss Marion Simon of 578 Twenty-first avenue, was hostess last

to the Parent-Teachers' Association." Reuben Carlson gave two violin numbers and Bert Plogh favored with vocal numbers. Owen B. Wright, principal of Washington school, spoke on the subject, "What the Parent-Teachers' Association Means to the Fathers." Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. The next meeting will be held Dec. 7 at the school.

Frances Willard P. T. A. will meet at the school at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Mrs. H. H. Cleveland will give a talk, "The Child's Place in the Home," and there will be folk dances by the pupils of the second grade. Mothers of the district are invited to attend the meeting. There will be a social hour following the program and refreshments will be served.

Entertain Sunday School Class. Miss Marion Simon of 578 Twenty-first avenue, was hostess last

to the Parent-Teachers' Association." Reuben Carlson gave two violin numbers and Bert Plogh favored with vocal numbers. Owen B. Wright, principal of Washington school, spoke on the subject, "What the Parent-Teachers' Association Means to the Fathers." Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. The next meeting will be held Dec. 7 at the school.

Frances Willard P. T. A. will meet at the school at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Mrs. H. H. Cleveland will give a talk, "The Child's Place in the Home," and there will be folk dances by the pupils of the second grade. Mothers of the district are invited to attend the meeting. There will be a social hour following the program and refreshments will be served.

Entertain Sunday School Class. Miss Marion Simon of 578 Twenty-first avenue, was hostess last

to the Parent-Teachers' Association." Reuben Carlson gave two violin numbers and Bert Plogh favored with vocal numbers. Owen B. Wright, principal of Washington school, spoke on the subject, "What the Parent-Teachers' Association Means to the Fathers." Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. The next meeting will be held Dec. 7 at the school.

Frances Willard P. T. A. will meet at the school at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Mrs. H. H. Cleveland will give a talk, "The Child's Place in the Home," and there will be folk dances by the pupils of the second grade. Mothers of the district are invited to attend the meeting. There will be a social hour following the program and refreshments will be served.

to the Parent-Teachers' Association." Reuben Carlson gave two violin numbers and Bert Plogh favored with vocal numbers. Owen B. Wright, principal of Washington school, spoke on the subject, "What the Parent-Teachers' Association Means to the Fathers." Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. The next meeting will be held Dec. 7 at the school.

Frances Willard P. T. A. will meet at the school at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Mrs. H. H. Cleveland will give a talk, "The Child's Place in the Home," and there will be folk dances by the pupils of the second grade. Mothers of the district are invited to attend the meeting. There will be a social hour following the program and refreshments will be served.

Entertain Sunday School Class. Miss Marion Simon of 578 Twenty-first avenue, was hostess last

to the Parent-Teachers' Association." Reuben Carlson gave two violin numbers and Bert Plogh favored with vocal numbers. Owen B. Wright, principal of Washington school, spoke on the subject, "What the Parent-Teachers' Association Means to the Fathers." Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. The next meeting will be held Dec. 7 at the school.

Frances Willard P. T. A. will meet at the school at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Mrs. H. H. Cleveland will give a talk, "The Child's Place in the Home," and there will be folk dances by the pupils of the second grade. Mothers of the district are invited to attend the meeting. There will be a social hour following the program and refreshments will be served.

Entertain Sunday School Class. Miss Marion Simon of 578 Twenty-first avenue, was hostess last

to the Parent-Teachers' Association." Reuben Carlson gave two violin numbers and Bert Plogh favored with vocal numbers. Owen B. Wright, principal of Washington school, spoke on the subject, "What the Parent-Teachers' Association Means to the Fathers." Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. The next meeting will be held Dec. 7 at the school.

Frances Willard P. T. A. will meet at the school at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Mrs. H. H. Cleveland will give a talk, "The Child's Place in the Home," and there will be folk dances by the pupils of the second grade. Mothers of the district are invited to attend the meeting. There will be a social hour following the program and refreshments will be served.

Entertain Sunday School Class. Miss Marion Simon of 578 Twenty-first avenue, was hostess last

to the Parent-Teachers' Association." Reuben Carlson gave two violin numbers and Bert Plogh favored with vocal numbers. Owen B. Wright, principal of Washington school, spoke on the subject, "What the Parent-Teachers' Association Means to the Fathers." Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. The next meeting will be held Dec. 7 at the school.

Frances Willard P. T. A. will meet at the school at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Mrs. H. H. Cleveland will give a talk, "The Child's Place in the Home," and there will be folk dances by the pupils of the second grade. Mothers of the district are invited to attend the meeting. There will be a social hour following the program and refreshments will be served.

Entertain Sunday School Class. Miss Marion Simon of 578 Twenty-first avenue, was hostess last

to the Parent-Teachers' Association." Reuben Carlson gave two violin numbers and Bert Plogh favored with vocal numbers. Owen B. Wright, principal of Washington school, spoke on the subject, "What the Parent-Teachers' Association Means to the Fathers." Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. The next meeting will be held Dec. 7 at the school.

Frances Willard P. T. A. will meet at the school at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Mrs. H. H. Cleveland will give a talk, "The Child's Place in the Home," and there will be folk dances by the pupils of the second grade. Mothers of the district are invited to attend the meeting. There will be a social hour following the program and refreshments will be served.

Entertain Sunday School Class. Miss Marion Simon of 578 Twenty-first avenue, was hostess last

to the Parent-Teachers' Association." Reuben Carlson gave two violin numbers and Bert Plogh favored with vocal numbers. Owen B. Wright, principal of Washington school, spoke on the subject, "What the Parent-Teachers' Association Means to the Fathers." Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. The next meeting will be held Dec. 7 at the school.

Frances Willard P. T. A. will meet at the school at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Mrs. H. H. Cleveland will give a talk, "The Child's Place in the Home," and there will be folk dances by the pupils of the second grade. Mothers of the district are invited to attend the meeting. There will be a social hour following the program and refreshments will be served.

FUR SECTION—SECOND FLOOR

Lundt & Co.
THE BUSY STORE ON FIFTH AVENUE

A timely Sale of Furs presenting our entire stock of Women's

Muffs, Capes, Scarfs and Chokers at 20% Off

Fur Capes Priced from $65.00 to $250.00
 Fur Muffs Priced from $10.00 to $75.00
 Fur Chokers Priced from $12.00 to $47.50
 Fur Scarfs Priced from $8.50 to $190.00

There is a wide assortment to choose from, consisting of select pelts of Fox, Raccoon, Opossum, Wolf, Coney, Mink, Muskrat, Moleskin, Hudson Seal, Sable, Fitch, Beaver and Squirrel; choice of the stock at one-fifth off the regular price.

All Fur Coats in Stock 20% Off

A wide selection is presented, consisting of Zealand Seal, Hudson Seal, Coney, Wolf, Pony, Stone Martin and Marinet.

They come with collars and cuffs of self and of other furs—30, 34, 36, 38 and 40-inch lengths.

November 15

Is the last day for making exchange of your 4% Second Liberty Loan Bonds for the permanent 4 1/4% Bonds.

All persons holding 4% First Liberty Loan Converted Bonds should see that they are exchanged for permanent Bonds before December 15th next.

This Bank will gladly forward your Bonds for exchange.

American Trust & Savings Bank

Rock Island, Ill.
 N. W. Corner 2d Ave. and 18th St.