

SOCIAL EVENTS

Guest of Moline Chapter.
Many guests, members of the Rock Island chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, were guests of the Moline chapter at its business meeting at the Colona hall. Some two hundred people were present, including visitors from surrounding smaller chapters. Two classes of candidates, 13 in all, were initiated, the Rock Island officers getting on the work of the first class, and the members of the Colona chapter, for the second. Mrs. Jessie Lister, worthy patron of the Rock Island chapter, presented Mrs. W. J. Snyder, worthy patron of the chapter of Moline, with a bouquet of cut flowers, and Miss Lister and Mrs. Emma Ellinger, worthy patron of the Colona chapter, were presented with Eastern Star sashes. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Give Luncheon at Blackhawk.
Mrs. S. S. Tanner of Minier entertained at a luncheon at the Hotel Blackhawk Monday noon, followed by a box party at the Colona theater, in honor of her guest, Mrs. J. Welby, of Bloomington. Those present were: Mesdames George Ferris, M. Montgomery, George Davis, L. Hadaway, Albert Bert, D. Jones, Anderson, Joseph McCrory, J. G. Ray, W. J. Sweeney, G. S. Quackenbush, Miss Bunny Jones, all of Rock Island, and Mrs. S. A. Steine of Muscatine, Iowa, and Mrs. John Harris of Chicago.

To Wed Saturday.
The culmination of a charming overseas war wedding romance will be the marriage next Saturday evening of Miss Karla Jensen to Henry C. Abel of Rock Island, which will be solemnized at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hansen, 1221 Washington street, Davenport. The young people met in Copenhagen, Denmark, when the groom, who served two years with the A. E. F. in France, went on a vacation to visit the home of his youth. The bride is a native of America, two months ago and is residing with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Hansen.

Rev. W. C. Nielsen, pastor of the Danish Lutheran church of Davenport will perform the ceremony in the presence of a wedding company of 16 relatives and intimate friends. The bride will be attended by Miss Marie, Finefield of Davenport as bridesmaid and Charles Abel of Davenport, a brother of the groom, will serve as best man. A wedding reception will follow. The bridal couple will reside at 1221 Washington street, Davenport, where they will be at home after Dec. 1.

The groom is a son of Hans Abel of Thirtieth street, Rock Island and is associated with his father as junior member of the firm of Hans Abel & Son, the Rock Island Sheet Metal works. He came to this country from Copenhagen at the age of 15 years with his parents and was educated in the Davenport schools. He enlisted June 15, 1917, and was sent to the Iowa State college at Ames for a six weeks' training course before going overseas with the ornance detachment. He remained in France until July, 1919, being stationed at Bordeaux after the armistice. The announcement of his approaching marriage will call forth good wishes from his many tri-city friends, who will warmly welcome his young bride.

To Present 92 New Names.
Eighty-two new names have been secured by the membership committee of the Rock Island Woman's club of which Mrs. C. B. Sharpe is chairman and were presented to the board. The names will be acted upon at the club meeting Saturday. This number added to the 430 names in at the October session makes a total of 512 new members for this year.

Court of Honor Card Party.
Blackhawk court, No. 523, Court of Honor, sponsored a card party yesterday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. Ernest Luchet, 113 Twelfth street. There was a large attendance and about eleven tables were surrounded at the games. During the afternoon prizes for high score were awarded to Miss Sue O'Connor, Mrs. C. Dumas, Mrs. R. Smith and Mrs. Andrew Brady. Prizes in the evening went to Mrs. Anna Schmitt, E. Luchet, Miss Sue O'Connor, Mrs. Roy Greiss and Mrs. Riddell.

To Hold All Day Meeting.
The Contemporary Methodist church ladies' aid society will hold an all day sewing at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Wood, 1825 Thirty-eighth street, tomorrow. Each member is asked to come early and bring her lunch. All are asked to be in attendance, as there will be business of importance transacted at the business session.

Faler-Weber Wedding.
The marriage of Miss Mary Barbara Weber, daughter of Phillip Weber, Sr., of 2723 Seventh avenue, and Roy S. Faler of Milwaukee was a pretty ceremony quietly solemnized at 10 o'clock this morning in the chapel of the Broadway Presbyterian church. Rev. John McGowan Stevenson officiated. Attending the young couple were Miss Laura Madson as maid of honor, and P. E. Weber, brother of the bride, as best man. The bride wore a pretty gown of dark blue charmeuse, with a corsage bouquet of Opheelia roses. Miss Madson wore a dress of seal brown charmeuse. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to members of the immediate family and a few intimate friends at the home of the bride. Yellow and white, the chosen wedding colors of the bride, were used in decorating, and yellow and white chrysanthemums were the flowers used. Covers were laid for 15, the table centerpiece being a basket of the flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Faler left on the noon train for Chicago, where they will spend a short honeymoon. They will be at home after Dec. 1 in Milwaukee.

Mrs. Faler previous to her marriage was employed on the Rock Island arsenal. She attended the city schools and the high school. Mr. Faler is associated with an electric lighting and power company in Milwaukee.

Mrs. Wilkinson Is Guest.
Mrs. Emma B. Wilkinson of Chicago, supreme sentinel and a state deputy of the Woman's Benefit association of Maccabees, was present at the union meeting held at Math's hall last evening, when Queen Bee review No. 190, Woman's Benefit association of Maccabees, entertained the reviews of the quad cities. There were about ninety present, and 20 candidates were initiated. The first degree was given by the Rock Island guards, the second degree by Moline, while Sylvia put on some of the other floor work. Mrs. Wilkinson gave a very instructive talk, in which she discussed the Pacific Marathon meeting to take place in 1923. She had intended to give a stereopticon lecture, but owing to unforeseen circumstances, the stereopticon machine was not sent from Chicago. Following the session, a delicious luncheon was served and a social time enjoyed.

The Queen Bee review is to sponsor a bakery sale Saturday, beginning at noon, at Young and McComb's store. Mrs. Harry Ohlweiler is chairman of the committee in charge of the arrangements. Tuesday afternoon and evening, Nov. 30, the review will sponsor a card party. All friends are welcome. Refreshments will be served after the games. A picture show will also be sponsored early in December.

Mrs. Wilkinson is remaining in the city to attend a card party which will be given by the Moline review this evening.

Bethany Home Reception.
A reception and jelly shower will be held at Bethany home tomorrow afternoon between the hours of 2:30 and 5 o'clock. The affair is being sponsored by the educational, house and sewing committees of Bethany home. Rock Island women who will assist in receiving are Mrs. C. E. Sharpe, Mrs. A. Mosenfelder and Mrs. W. L. Yellman, from the education committee; Mrs. W. J. Sweeney, Mrs. I. D. Burgh and Mrs. George Quackenbush of the house committee, and Mrs. J. E. Reid, Mrs.

C. C. Kirsch, Mrs. F. H. Kapp and Mrs. George Reddie of the sewing committee. A delightful program will be given by the student department of the Rock Island Musical club. The affair is open to the general public, and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance. Contributions of jelly or preserves will be appreciated.

Annual Supper at Gym.
The annual church supper sponsored by the Grace Lutheran church will be held tomorrow evening from 6 to 7:30 in the Augustana college gymnasium. Everyone is invited to attend. Each year a large crowd of members and friends of the congregation besides many outsiders are served. The Ladies' Aid society of the church is serving the meal.

Plan for Basar.
The Forward society of the Grace Lutheran church met last evening at the home of Miss Ellen Swanson, 1201 Thirty-eighth street. Plans were made for a basar which the society is to sponsor Dec. 7 in the parlors of the church, and a number of beautiful articles were turned in for the basar. After the business meeting, a social hour was enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

New Swimming Term Starts.
The new Y. W. C. A. swimming term starts tomorrow evening at the Augustana pool. The classes will be held between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock. Miss Dorothy Rogers, physical director of the association, will answer all questions those expecting to join the classes wish to ask.

Last evening's swimming meet was a decided success. Some splendid stunts were given, the best probably being the heroic life saving stunt which concluded the program. A company of interested friends witnessed the exhibition.

Woman's Guild Coffee.
The Woman's guild of the South Park Presbyterian church will hold a coffee meeting tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Emma Evans, 2417 Thirteenth avenue. The hour is 2:30. The coffee was put forward a week.

Postpone Special Sewing Meeting.
The special all day sewing meeting of In His Name Circle King's Daughters, which was to have been held Friday at the home of Mrs. Frank Head, has been postponed until Dec. 3, the regular monthly meeting day, which will be turned into an all day work meet.

Harriet Henderson Class.
The Harriet Henderson Memorial class of the First Methodist church was last evening entertained at the home of Mrs. T. S. Smith, 807 Twenty-fourth street. There was just a short business session and the remainder of the evening was spent in sociability. The hostess had charge of the games and served refreshments at the close of the evening.

Sponsor Benefit Card Party.
The Bethany home educational committee sponsored a benefit card party yesterday afternoon in the girls' community club rooms in Moline. About thirty-five tables were surrounded at the games, bridge being played and a number of the women had come and brought their sewing. Late in the afternoon dainty refreshments were served at the small tables. About $160 was cleared from the affair.

Tomorrow afternoon the educational, house and the sewing committee of Bethany home are sponsoring a reception and jelly shower at the home between the hours of 2:30 and 5 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to call and each guest is urged to bring a donation.

Entertains on Birthday.
Mr. and Mrs. James Green delightfully entertained about twenty-five friends last evening at their home, 2513 Fifth-and-a-half avenue. The occasion was Mrs. Green's birthday anniversary. The evening was spent with music and sociability and about 11 o'clock a delicious buffet lunch was served. Mrs. Green was left with many hand-some presents as remembrances of the occasion. The company left extending wishes for many more happy birthday anniversaries for the hostess.

O. E. S. to Sponsor Coffee.
Members of the Order of the Eastern Star social circle were hostesses yesterday afternoon and evening at a coffee given at the home of Mrs. Charles Langman, 1811 Twelfth street. During the afternoon and evening, the following interesting program was given:

Vocal numbers—Mrs. Martin.
1-Act play, "The Pull Back." Characters were taken by Mrs. Anna Campbell, Mrs. Bert Recorder, Mrs. F. Hirst, Mrs. Charles Snyder, Mrs. S. M. Butt and Mrs. W. L. Himmell.

Dance—Misses Evelyn Roberts and Catherine Hess.
Piano duet—Misses Helen and Ruth Brown.
Vocal solos—Miss Jean Greer.
Piano solo—Miss Ruth Brown.
Dance—Misses Evelyn Roberts, Catherine Hess, Mildred Griffin and Genevieve Ferneau.
Dances—Miss Genevieve Ferneau.

There was a large attendance and about $35 was cleared from the affair.

The regular meeting of the social circle will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the parlors of the Masonic temple.

Kate Hill Society Meets.
The Misses Mable and Ada Simpson at the home, 1503 Seventh avenue, entertained the members of the Kate Hill missionary society of the First United Presbyterian church last evening. Miss Minnie Toenniges had charge of the program. Reports from the Halloween party were given and the girls decided to cooperate with the ladies' aid society in the basar they are to hold in the near future. Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held on Nov. 30.

Helen Mills Circle.
Members of the Helen Mills circle of the Broadway Presbyterian church held their regular meeting last evening at the home of Miss Wilma Curtis, 931 Nineteenth street.

Devotionals were led by Miss Curable. The circle was divided into two teams with Miss Helen Storbeck and Miss Ruth Dwight as captains, to conduct a membership contest which will end Jan. 16. A committee was appointed with Miss Charlotte Huesting as chairman, to find out what the circle would do for Thanksgiving. After the business session delicious refreshments were served and a social time was enjoyed. The next meeting will be held Dec. 14 with Miss Margaret Bahnsa, at her home, 1720 Twenty-second street.

Observe Wedding Anniversary.
Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Townsend of 912 Fifth avenue celebrated their 18th wedding anniversary yesterday at their home. A delicious dinner was served a company of relatives and friends at 8:30, covers being laid for 12. The bride and bridegroom of 18 years ago were the recipients of a number of handsome gifts. The evening hours were spent in sociability.

Miss Edna Teater and G. W. Townsend of Cornell, N. Y., were married Nov. 16, 1902, in Finley, Ohio. The couple have resided in Rock Island for 17 years.

Social Announcements.
Helen Gould auxiliary will hold a meeting tomorrow evening in memorial hall in the court house.

PROWLs AROUND AND GETS HURT

C. C. Ross Sustains Bad Injury in Fall into Cellar in Rear of Restaurant.

C. C. Ross, 1150 Fortieth street, sustained a compound fracture of his left leg just above the ankle when he fell through an open cellar-way in the rear of the restaurant conducted by George Marshall, at 2221 Third avenue, at 9:30 o'clock Tuesday night. What brought Ross to the rear of the restaurant is not clear. The proprietor said this morning that when he questioned the man shortly after the accident Ross told him that he had been taken there by someone. Ross was removed to St. Anthony's hospital in the Knox ambulance. Dr. Joseph De Silva, who was called to attend the man, stated this morning that the break is a most

PAST MASTERS OF TRIO LODGE TO BE HONORED AT MEET

Trio lodge, No. 57, A. F. and M., will hold its annual past masters' night Thursday evening at the Masonic temple. Following a dinner the former masters will emphasize the degree work for a class of candidates.

FORD OVERTURNED

A Ford runabout being driven across the Rock Island viaduct from Davenport, crashed into the railroad tracks by the waterworks Tuesday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock. The car was thrown on its side, but the driver crawled out uninjured. He hurried away, calling up a garage to come and haul the machine away for repairs, and rushed away, saying only that he was in a hurry to board the train for Coal Valley. The front end of the Ford was badly damaged. The home of the driver was not learned.

The Economy of Quality

Years of experience in quality merchandising supports our conviction that the best is the cheapest in the end and gives more satisfaction throughout the entire period of its use. For this reason we give preference to quality when a slight addition in cost insures a substantial increase in service value.

The Unusual in Style and Quality Continues the Predominant Factor in This Institutions Success

Ask a woman why she does her shopping here and she will say that it is because Lundt & Co. is first as an exhibitor of varied and tasteful fashions. Ask another woman and she will tell you that at Lundt's good values emphasize the good sense in purchasing that which is of the better grade. Thousands of other women have these same opinions and these displays and sales here show that Lundt & Co. does not fail in the duty that is enlarged by such regard.
