Dinner-Dances Open Up Festive Season in the Tri-Cities

Younger and older tri-city people enjoyed Thanksgiving eve dancing, and this evening and even tomorrow night many will spend with the same diversion. Some of these affairs were and will be preceded by dinner parties of a more or less formal nature.

The principal affair in Rock Island was the dinner-dance at the Rock Island club. Over one hundred reservations had been made for the dinner, a number of special parties being featured. Following the elaborate spread, dancing was enjoyed in the club ball room, many more club members and friends coming for the dance program. Mielke's orchestra furnished the music for the affair. This is the second of the series of club dances planned for the season, the third one to be held on New Year's eve!

Amoco grove drum and bugle corps sponsored a Thanksgiving dance at the Masonic temple last night, which was attended by 80 couples. White's orchestra played for this dance, and at 11 o'clock a light supper was served.

One hundred couples enjoyed the dance given by the Woman's Trade Union league at industrial hall. Two prizes were given, going to J. M. Simpson and J. Campbell, both of Davenport. "Doc" Jones' orchestra played for the dancing.

No less popular for Rock Island young people was the dance given at the Moline Commercial club by Arthur J. Allen of this city and Roland Bendle of Moline. The feature of this party was the music which was furnished by the Alex Blue Boys of Knox college. Dancing continued until 1 o'clock. It was a well attended affair, one of the series sponsored by these two young men.

Thanksgiving eve was observed at Rock Island Arsenal Golf club with a dinner dance. Dinner was served at 7:30 at which some 200 club members and friends were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Rosenfeld were host and hostess to one of the largest dinner parties, covers being laid for some fifty of their guests.

At the Outing club informal dinner dance last evening were a number of local people.

The Elks have planned a Thanksgiving ball here tomorrow night, which promises to be one of the season's main events and the first annual dance of the Davenport Retail Salesmen's association will be an event of this evening at the Hotel Blackhawk, Davenport.

Winter-Bateman.
Frank W. Winter of Rock Island and Miss Laura L. Bateman of Reynolds were united in marriage at 6 o'clock last evening at the home of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. William F. Koehler, 2923 Nineteenth avenue. The young couple was attended by W. W. Winter and Mrs. William F. Koehler, father and sister of the bridegroom. Rev. W. G. Oglevee officiated. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the Koehler home. The new home will be in Rock Island.

Kerkering-Hillman.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Craig, 1136 Second avenue, was the scene of a wedding at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when Miss Elizabeth K. Hillman of Chicago became the bride of John E. Kerkering of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. J. Rolf, pastor of the Evangelical Church of Peace, in the presence of a company of immediate relatives and friends.

Just before the appointed hour Miss Louise McLean sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Miss Clara Arnell, followed by "Because." Miss Arnell played the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" as the couple took their places under the huge wedding bell to take the marriage vows. Miss Alice Smith of Moline served as maid of honor and John Schultz of this city as best man. The single ring service was used. Streamers of orchid and green and white chrysanthemums formed the decorations in the rooms.

The bride wore a suit of brown velvet, fur trimmed, with a hat of velvet in the same shade. Her flowers were white chrysanthemums. Her attendant was in a suit of blue, with which she wore a black hat, and her flowers were also chrysanthemums.

A buffet lunch was served following the ceremony, and Mr. and Mrs. Kerkering left on a wedding trip to Chicago. They will be at home after their week's honeymoon at the Ward apartments on Second avenue. Mrs. Kerkering has been employed at the Sinclair Refining company. She graduated from Nicholas Senn high school, Chicago, in 1918. Mr. Kerkering is employed in the tractor department of the Rock Island Plow company.

Oglevee, pastor of the church. Attending the bridal couple were Mrs. Emma R. Reeves and Miss Grace K. Reeves, mother and sister of the bridegroom. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party motored out to the new home on the bridegroom's farm, where a wedding supper was served. The bride taught at the Milan high school for some time previous to her marriage.

Pretty Thanksgiving Morning Wedding at S. H. Johnson Home

A very pretty ceremony of the day was the marriage of Miss Naomi B. Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Johnson of 4502 Eighth avenue, and Leo C. Kautz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kautz, 1427 Tenth street, Moline, quietly solemnized at 11:30 o'clock this morning at the home of the bride's parents. The service was performed in the living room. Rev. W. P. Cleary, pastor of St. Anne's church in East Moline, officiating in the presence of the immediate families only. Preceding the ceremony a short program of nuptial music was given by Miss Dorothy Delsenroth at the piano, the music modulating into "The Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" at the approach of the bridal couple. There were no attendants.

The bride wore a pretty dress of white embroidered georgette and her flowers were a corsage bouquet of pink roses and narcissus. Her only ornament was a bar pin of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony a wedding Thanksgiving dinner was served, covers being laid for about thirty. Mr. and Mrs. Kautz are to leave late this afternoon for an extended wedding trip, the destination of which is unknown. The bride's going away dress is of dark blue satin, with which she will wear a fur coat and a small blue feather turban.
