

MRS. W. H. DART IS CALLED BY SUDDEN DEATH

Hundreds of Friends Shocked at Unexpected Passing of Prominent Local Woman.

The sudden and unexpected death of Mrs. William H. Dart, 2107 Seventh avenue, prominent woman in the social and business circles of the city, which occurred at 7 o'clock last evening in her home, shocked her hundreds of friends in this community.

Mrs. Dart was apparently well all day yesterday and had entertained callers during the afternoon. She complained of no illness, and was feeling exceptionally well. A few minutes before 7 o'clock, she faintly, passing away several minutes later. Physicians were immediately called, stating death was due to cerebral embolism, a blood clot on the brain. She had never regained consciousness following the sudden attack.

Believed by the hundreds of close friends and the many people with whom she came in contact in a business way, Mrs. Dart was known as an exceptional business woman and for her charming personality. In each of the important positions which she had held, she was given much responsibility, and at one time was tri-city solicitor of the New York Central Lines, maintaining offices in Davenport, a position which few women have held in the railroad world. High tribute was paid to Mrs. Dart today by her former employers, business associates, and other friends.

Mrs. Dart before her marriage, was Miss Bella Carpenter, and was born in Washington, Iowa, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Caleb L. Carpenter. The family removed here many years ago, residing for sometime at 843 Twenty-fourth street. Mrs. Carpenter died several years ago, and within the last few weeks Mr. Carpenter removed to Missouri, where he is living with relatives.

Mrs. Dart was first employed by the Burlington lines, working for H. D. Mack, division freight agent, where she made many friends. She left the Burlington office in 1905, taking the position with the New York Central Lines as tri-city solicitor. For a while she was identified with the Rock Island club, working with Mayer Levi as assistant secretary of the Rock Island industrial commission.

Leaving the club and until her marriage in May, 1921, to William H. Dart, president of the Henry Dart's Sons, she was in charge of the note collection department of the Rock Island Savings bank in this capacity Mrs. Dart met and made many friends.

Aside from the friends who are mourning, Mrs. Dart is survived by the widower, W. H. Dart, a sister, Miss Fannie Carpenter, Rock Island, her father, Caleb L. Carpenter, a brother, Thaddeus B. Carpenter, Missouri, and a niece, Gertrude Carpenter, Rock Island.

Funeral services will be held at the home at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, with Rev. McGown Stevenson of the Broadway Presbyterian church, officiating. The services at the home will be open to friends, but the rites at the grave in Chippawaukee cemetery will be private. The family requests no flowers.

Palbearers will be Edward R. Guyer, Gustav Tegeler, Ralph W. Christiansen, A. D. Welch, T. A. Murphy and Louis Kohn.

Denial that New Zealand was socialist or communistic was made by Dr. McGown Stevenson, pastor of the Broadway Presbyterian church, who talked to the Kiwanis club at noon today, telling them a great deal about the country in which he held a church charge while pursuing university studies.

Stating that the government had taken over the railroads and telegraph systems, controlled education, and owned some of the gold mines, he said that it was in essence democratic rather than socialist.

He said that ex-President Wilson, to whom he had given some information about the country, did not know that New Zealand was 1,200 miles from Australia, but that ex-President Roosevelt, with whom he had held conversation about New Zealand, corrected a statement which Dr. Stevenson made about the height of Mt. Cook, informing him that its exact height was 14,458 feet.

The speaker told the Kiwanians all about the famous gold rush, stating that gold mining is still being conducted with profit. The frozen meat industry had helped to make the country prosperous, he asserted.

'YOU'RE WELCOME' 'CAL' IS SAYING

CALVIN COOLIDGE.

The Argus camera man's attempt to snap Calvin C. Coolidge, vice president of the United States, on the occasion of his brief visit to Rock Island, made between tariffs Saturday afternoon, was quite successful, don't you think?

Mr. Coolidge was very obliging, and left his Pullman at a reporter's request, that the Argus might take his picture. On the way to the meeting of the national Presbyterian assembly at Des Moines, he was thinking over some details of his speech on "Education" delivered before the assembly last night, when The Argus camera "got him."

ELECT LAMBERT ENDEAVOR HEAD AT CONVENTION

Edward Lambert of Moline was elected president of the Northwestern Illinois district of the Christian Endeavor Saturday evening and was installed at the closing session of the convention last night at an impressive service conducted by Rev. P. C. Land, pastor of the First Congregational church, Moline. Mr. Lambert succeeds Lester V. Anderson, also of Moline. Other officers elected were:

Vice president—William Drehn-Genesee. Treasurer—Earl Deitwiler. Secretary—Martha Riddell, Rock Island. Intermediate superintendent—Lilli Marsh, Hamlet.

Junior superintendent—Marlo Ross, Moline. Missionary superintendent—Lois Rounds, Morrison. Extension secretary—Lester Anderson, Moline. Subscription secretary—Herbert Samuels, Moline. Pastoral counselor—Rev. Leroy Walters, Morrison. Genesee was selected as the place of the next meeting.

The convention closed with an address by Rev. Walter Spooner, who spoke on the investment of life. The right investment, he said, must be for others; and he declared that the present chaotic state of the world is a challenge to the young.

Sterling won the honors in a debate on the topic, "Is Christian Endeavor Worth While?" Sterling took the affirmative and a Moline team was on the negative side of the question. The affirmative team was composed of Herman Peterson, Jennie Linn and Walter Weyrauch. Fred Suggenberger, Halo Guckert and Joe Lauber composed the negative team.

Dramatization of bible stories for effective study was advocated by Rev. T. Preston Davis of the Gordon Memorial church of Moline, in his address on "How to make the Bible Interesting." Members of the cast of the "Resurrection of Peter," which was presented at the Gordon Memorial church at Easter time, presented part of one scene of the drama to demonstrate the effectiveness of his suggestion.

Fred Copp, 843 Twentieth street, received numerous injuries on his face and scalp when he fell down a flight of stairs at 226 Seventeenth street, this morning, at 10 o'clock. Mr. Copp was coming down the stairs and stumbled and fell headlong, lighting on his head. He was removed to St. Anthony's hospital and although his condition is serious he will recover. He was attended by Dr. Joseph De Silva.

Work in the various departments of the Manual Arts building of the Rock Island high school will be on exhibition during school hours starting Wednesday, May 31, and continuing during the end of the week. The public is invited to attend the exhibit. The departments that will be represented in the exhibit will be sewing, art, machine shop, woodwork, printing, mechanical drawing, and cooking. The exhibit will consist of work that has been done in the various departments during the past school year.

FRANK CARR, 80, IS FOUND ILL; DIES SUDDENLY

Veteran River Man Stricken While Asleep at Waterworks, Found by Engineer.

Frank Carr, aged 80, veteran river man, and resident of Rock Island for more than forty years, found unconscious Saturday morning in the back room of the city waterworks plant, Twenty-fourth street and First avenue, died at 6 o'clock Saturday night in St. Anthony's hospital.

He was found in an unconscious condition by Edward Caulfield, 926 Eighteenth avenue, an engineer at the plant, at 5:30 o'clock in the morning. Mr. Carr had spent the night at the plant with a number of other men out of employment. He was removed to St. Anthony's hospital and died without regaining consciousness.

The verdict returned by the jury at an inquest conducted by Coroner John F. Mabery this morning at 9 o'clock in the Knox mortuary, was "death resulted from an attack of apoplexy."

Mr. Caulfield at the inquest this morning said that Mr. Carr had slept at the plant for more than a month and had often complained of being in poor health. Mr. Carr had been told by friends a number of times to see a doctor, but never paid any attention to their advice. Mr. Caulfield said that the river man had been failing rapidly in the last month.

On River Many Years. The aged man had worked on boats up and down the Mississippi river for many years, according to Thomas Harrigan, another river man, and one of his closest friends. Mr. Harrigan said that he had known Mr. Carr for more than 35 years and had worked with him at many different occasions on boats and barges. Mr. Harrigan accompanied his friend to the waterworks Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock and said that he was so weak at that time that he could hardly walk. He also encouraged Mr. Carr to seek medical aid, but he would not do so.

Dr. Dan E. Paul, who attended Mr. Carr after he was removed to the hospital, stated at the inquest this morning that he was in a very bad condition and due to his advanced age death was not unusual. Mr. Carr had resided in Clinton, Iowa, at different times, and an attempt is being made by Coroner Mabery to locate any surviving relatives. The body is being held at the Knox mortuary until word is received.

ASK THAT MAYOR PREVENT JEWISH SCHOOL OPENING

Thirty-seven property owners of the vicinity of Twelfth and Seventh streets and Seventh avenue today presented a petition at the mayor's office, asking that he close the school which is to be conducted by Jewish people in a residence at 1221 Seventh avenue.

The signers of the petition say that the school will be "a great annoyance" to all the residents of the vicinity if started there, and that it will actually decrease the value of their property. They also state that the building is unfit from a standpoint of public health, to be used for school purposes.

Action on the petition will be taken at this afternoon's meeting of the city council. Mayor H. M. Schriver is out of town today, on business, and is not expected back in time for the meeting.

Arvid M. Dahlstrom, pioneer resident of Moline, was called to rest at 4 o'clock this morning in the home of his step-daughter, Mrs. A. H. Abrahamson, 2313 Eighteenth street A. Moline. Word of his passing will cause much sorrow in many Moline homes.

Mr. Dahlstrom was widely known in this vicinity. He was an active member of the Swedish Methodist church of Moline for about forty years, and was known for his generosity toward the upkeep of the church, having contributed a large portion of the amount of money that was raised to purchase the pipe organ that was installed in the church. For the last eight years he had been a member of the Salem Lutheran church.

Mr. Dahlstrom had been employed for a number of years by Deere & Co. He was a native of Sweden and was born March 19, 1835. He came to America in 1872, having married Johanna Almgren Jan. 31, 1902. She survives him with four step-children, Leopold Dahlstrom of California, Mrs. L. A. Howard of South Dakota, Charles Almgren of Moline, and Mrs. Abrahamson, in whose home he died. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the home and at 2:30 o'clock in the Salem Lutheran church. Services in the home will be private. Interment will be in Rock Riverview cemetery.

HOOCH MAKES HIM WANT FIGHT, BUT SITE IS BAD ONE

Harry Johnson, 624 West Fourth street, Davenport, finished up a pint of moonshine this morning and picked out a small man to beat up. He made two mistakes—the subject and the site of the beating up. Frank Lovett, 928 Eleventh avenue, was the subject, and the site was Seventeenth street, directly in front of the O'Malley undertaking parlors—too far downtown. Officer Harry Fitzsimmons happened to be in the vicinity and he led Johnson to the police station.

His case is to be heard at 7 tonight, Desk Sergeant Kinsley having calculated that the hooch fumes within the city's "patient" will have abated by that hour.

FIND DEAD MAN ON RIVER ROAD

Suicide Victim Is Unidentified; Took Life With Revolver on River Bank. The body of an unidentified man, who committed suicide by shooting himself through the right temple, was found at 12:45 o'clock noon today at Third street on the river road, Moline, by J. E. Swinburn, 417 Forty-eighth street, Moline.

On the man's person was found naturalization papers made out to Hans W. Walberg. The papers were dated March, 1900, in LaSalle county and a letter addressed to the same person was also found in one of the coat pockets. The letter was postmarked Minneapolis and was written by Sol Hirsch, cashier of the State bank, Moline. It was dated Oct. 28, 1921.

The body was first noticed by Mr. Swinburn lying on the bank when he went upstream with a boat. He thought it was a man sleeping and when he came back at noon he stopped to make an investigation. The man's right hand was clutching a .32 calibre revolver and his body was lying on a Sunday newspaper.

It is believed that he ended his life sometime Sunday night. The body was also noticed by Spencer Anderson, of Moline, when he passed by in a boat, but he did not stop. The dead man is believed to be Hans Walberg, to whom the papers are addressed, although further investigation is being made.

PLAN UNIFORM TRAFFIC RULES AT QUAD MEET

Session in Rock Island Tuesday Night Is to Clear Way for Pageant Crowds.

Uniformity of traffic, parking and headlight rules throughout the quad-cities, to be effective during the national Grotto conclave and the Pageant of Progress in Rock Island, the week of June 24 to July 4, will be effected at a meeting of the city officials of the four cities tomorrow evening in the Rock Island club.

With about 100,000 visitors in the quad-cities during that gala week, it will be a decided advantage for a meeting of city officials to rules to obey throughout the community instead of three or four. Recognizing this, the Tri-City Automobile Trade association arranged for a meeting of city officials to perfect such a system.

The city officials attending will be Mayor Harry M. Schriver, Chief of Police Thomas Cox and Commissioner of Public Safety William Fitzsimmons of Rock Island; Mayor Charles P. Skinner and Chief of Police Ben DeJaeger of Moline; Mayor George F. Johnson and Chief of Police Thomas Schaeffer of East Moline; Mayor Alfred C. Mueller, Chief of Police Charles Boettge, and Traffic Commissioner Louis G. DeArmand of Davenport.
