STATE CHARITY'S COST.

What It Has Taken to Run Illinois Institutions for a Year.

One million, two hundred and thirty thousand, three hundred and six dollars and sixty-four cents was the amount that it cost to run the various insane and charitable institutions of Illinois during the year ending June 30, 1894.

Each institution. It cost the state during the past year to run these various institutions, as follows: Northern hospital, $137,568; Eastern hospital, $283,656; Central hospital, $156,748; Southern hospital, $102,583; asylum for insane criminals, $24,095; deaf and dumb institution, $94,597; blind institution, $43,691; feeble minded asylum, $73,641; soldiers orphans' home, $46,019; eye and ear infirmary, $23,087; and the soldiers and sailors' home, $123,189.

The various forms and changes that were suggested by Gov. Altgeld at the beginning of his executive term have all been put into operation and carried out with satisfaction and gratification to not only the members of the different institutions, boards and trustees, but to the administration as well.

The president has nominated Capt. George Winans to be supervising inspector of steam vessels for the Fifth district. Capt. Winans is a resident of Waukegan, and was elected to the assembly in 1888.

Important Facts. If you have a dull and heavy pain across the forehead and about the eyes; if the nostrils are frequently stopped up and followed by a disagreeable discharge; if soreness in the nose and bleeding from the nostrils is often experienced; if you are very sensitive to cold in the head accompanied with headache; then you may be sure you have catarrh; and should (immediately) resort to Ely's Cream Balm for a cure.

Disolution Notice. The tailoring firm of Marshall & Bloomquist has this day dissolved partnership by mutual consent.

MAY MOVE.

The Effect of the Strike on the Rock Island Shops.

There have been various rumors afloat since the great strike of last month to the effect that the officials of the great Rock Island route were meditating removing their Blue Island shops to some interior point.

This clipping from the Valley Junction Express will show how the rumor has taken hold in the interior of Iowa: Valley Junction Wants Them. The news seems almost too good to be true, but coupled with the fact that the round house and repair shops at Stuart will be moved here just as soon as the business of the road recovers somewhat from the depression and inconvenience caused by the late strike, it but strengthens the assertion of the Express some months ago that Valley Junction was the location chosen by the Rock Island officials for the centering of all its machine shops and divisions in Iowa.

It seems more probable that when the shops are moved they will come to Rock Island, the great road which bears the city's name having shown its feeling that Rock Island is an important point in numerous ways of late and has given abundant indications of its purpose to still further add to its advantages here as a great division point.

THE BLACK DEATH IN CHINA.

Fears That It Will Sweep Over Eastern Asia Before It Disappears.

"Black death," that mysterious disease which has been creating such havoc among the natives at Canton, seems destined to sweep over eastern Asia. Hong-Kong has been attacked by this insidious and fatal enemy, and already hundreds have succumbed to it.

But the germs of the disease seem to be in the air, for latest news is that deaths by the plague have already occurred in Japan. The natives are panic stricken.

The plague made its appearance in Hong-Kong about May 10, when many dead rats were found in the streets. This is the first sign the disease makes. Usually other animals are stricken before human beings are affected.

One cause that led to this result was that there had been no rainfall for a long period, and all streams and sources of drainage were foul. Vigorous steps were taken to secure artificial flushing of all drains, and a thorough cleansing of the entire city was had, but there was no decrease until about the 20th, when several heavy rain storms occurred.

Health officers made a house to house canvass of the district of the city where the disease seemed to center, and all sick persons were removed to the Hygeia, the hospital ship in the harbor. The dead were taken in charge by the same officials and buried at once in a place especially selected.

When the disease was at its worst, the deaths in the hospitals numbered 30 daily. In some cases whole families were exterminated in a few days. Europeans seem to be almost proof against the disease, although in some cases their surroundings were the same as those of the Chinese.

The cause of the strange malady is a mystery, but it is undoubtedly a filth disease. A physician who had large experience with the black plague in Pak-hoi some years ago said in an interview that it was due to foul smells. The plague's symptoms, as described already, are as follows: With or without preliminary warning in the shape of chill there is a sudden fever rising to 105 degrees or over. There is much headache and cerebral disturbance, accompanied by stupor.

Native reports from Canton say that the epidemic is somewhat decreasing there, but many new cases are still reported. It is said that fish are also stricken, and fishermen in some districts have been forced to cease operations.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Mrs. Naomi Hayes Moore, who died not long ago at Helena, Ark., built in that city the Ophelia Folk Moore home for orphan girls in memory of her daughter. Mrs. Moore was a niece of President J. K. Polk and used her wealth largely for the benefit of charitable institutions.
