Well Deserved Success.
With the present month the enterprising grocery firm of Blakeley & McDonald closes its first year's business. During that period these gentlemen have demonstrated what can be accomplished by a well kept grocery that seeks to meet the demands of the public. In entering upon their second year they have determined to make their presence known by giving the best the market affords at prices that will tell their own tale. They have one of the best locations in the city, and a store that for neatness and cleanliness is second to none in the tri-cities. In addition to its other advantages the store possesses that of having obliging proprietors and attentive clerks.
