FRIDAY, JUNE 19, 1896.

School Election Tuesday, June 20, for Board of Education; C. B. MARSHALL, For Board of Education; R. A. DONALDSON.

Democratic Senatorial Convention. The democratic voters of the counties of Rock Island and Henry are requested to send delegates to the senatorial convention, to be held at Cambridge, Ill., at 11 o'clock, a. m., on the 1st day of July, A. D. 1896, for the purpose of nominating one candidate for representative from the Thirty-third Senatorial District and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention. The basis of representation will permit twelve delegates from Rock Island county and nine delegates from Henry county.

C. M. TURNER, WILLIAM MCENRY, JOHN SCHALL, Senatorial Committee. Dated at Rock Island, Ill., this 1st day of June, A. D. 1896.

McKINLEY cocktails were a favorite beverage in Rock Island last night.

One thing is certain, McKinley can make no excuse about "this all being so sudden."

If McKinley has not his letter of acceptance already written, he has not the faculty of keeping abreast of the times.

"McKINLEY, Our Idol," was one of the republican inscriptions. Dollars to doughnuts Bro. Quayle got up that design.

TANNER's picture appeared in one of the transparencies carried last night. Tanner is one of the republican heroes this year.

EVIDENTLY the controlling element in St. Louis supposed that the Teller constituents were bluffing, but the Colorado senator called them.

The clouds which hung over St. Louis the past week failed to show a silver lining, much as was the prayerful hope of many republicans that they might.

If the Teller constituents had been dealers in the old time "green goods" they could not have been snubbed any more contemptuously than they were at St. Louis.

On June 18, 1815, the battle of Waterloo, in which the allied forces of Europe whipped Napoleon out of all semblance to a grand monarch, was fought. Yesterday was again June 18, and again a Napoleon was facing a host of allied forces. The battle of this second Napoleon was just begun on this anniversary day. When the clouds clear away history will have repeated itself.

McKinley Easy to Beat.

Now that all has been said and done, the republicans have put up the candidate most easily to be defeated. He represents the radical sentiment of the party on the tariff question. Ever since he made himself famous by his tariff bill he has been regarded by the conservative representatives of his party as representing the extreme of an issue that was devoid of merit at best. Feeling that through the strength of public prejudice the nominees would win, if endorsed by the republican party, the money powers which are the consistent devotees of the doctrine of radical protection dictated not only the declaration on the tariff, but on the radical money plank as well. They thought it a good time to assert themselves, and they did so with much more positiveness than they would have under other than the prevailing conditions. They have dared to McKinley is the tool of the allied powers of wealth, and because he is strong with them he must be weak with the masses.

McKinley will be the easiest man to beat the republicans could have nominated.

That Tired Feeling. BURET, Ill., May 24, 1896.—"I was troubled with that tired feeling all the spring. I purchased three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and when I had taken about half of it I was feeling well again. I believe Hood's Sarsaparilla to be an excellent blood purifier and tonic."

OHIO GETS THERE.

It was at that time 6:15 p. m. and the convention had been in session eight hours. The chair ordered the roll called for nominations and Franklin Fort, of New Jersey, was the first to respond. He nominated General Hobart, of New Jersey. W. M. Randolph, of Tennessee, presented the name of General James A. Walker, an ex-Confederate. Fessenden nominated William G. Bulkeley, of Connecticut. Allen, of Rhode Island, named Charles W. Lippett, of that state.

There were numerous seconding speeches heard and then the roll was called and the result announced as follows: Hobart, 533; Evans, 280; Bulkeley, 39; Walker, 24; Lippett, 8; Grant, 2; Depey, 3; Morton, 1; Thurston, 2. The nomination was made unanimously, and Bushnell, of Ohio, offered a resolution, which was adopted, making the permanent chairman the chairman of the committee to notify McKinley of his nomination, and the temporary chairman the chairman of the committee to notify Hobart. The notifying committees were then appointed and the convention adjourned sine die.

OPINIONS OF THE DISSENTED.

Say the Ticket Will Get Only Iowa West of the Mississippi.

St. Louis, June 19.—Senators Mantle and Carter and Hon. T. C. Marshall, of the Montana delegation, jointly stated after the convention that their refusal to walk out of the convention should not be construed as in any manner constituting an acceptance of the terms of the platform on the financial question. They further stated that the entire delegation was united in unalterable and unqualified opposition to the platform adopted in so far as the financial question is concerned.

They disagree with their colleague Hartman only as to the extent of their authority to act for the Republicans of their state. Five of the delegation felt that they would be most faithfully and directly discharging their trust by entering their protest against the platform and reserving the right to themselves and the Republicans they represented to either accept or repudiate the platform and the candidate after full and free conference in such manner and at such time as the party of the state of Montana might assemble to confer and act.

Hartman felt that he could properly walk out of the convention, notwithstanding his representative capacity. No criticism was offered by any member of the delegation on his actions. Staying or going was regarded as a matter of personal judgment of the most question of ethics. The five who remained would as a personal matter have gone out. As representatives of their state they felt that they were not authorized to leave the convention.

All of the three gentlemen named agreed in the belief that Henry M. Teller would be in and of himself a candidate and platform on which the Republican and all other parties in Montana would with scarcely a dissenting voice agree. Neither of the gentlemen indicated any disposition to counsel the Republican party of Montana or any member of the party to accept the platform.

The gentlemen were without division outspoken in the opinion that there was no hope whatever for the ticket in the west. It is the joint belief of these gentlemen and all others who have been consulted from the west that there will be a successful republican election west of the Mississippi river, outside of Iowa and possibly Minnesota. These gentlemen further believe that there will not be a Republican elected south of the Potomac and the Ohio rivers.

A member of the Montana delegation suggested that the battle ground would be in Illinois and Indiana and that Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Minnesota, Michigan, West Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, New Jersey and Connecticut were doubtful states, and the Republican party had to carry all of them in order to succeed.

Governor Rickard, of Montana, was present when the above was given out. He concurred in the views expressed, approved the independent attitude taken, said Teller would get practically the solid vote of Montana, and that McKinley would not secure 3,000 votes in the state.

BOLTERS ARE PROMPTLY AT WORK.

Hold a Meeting Today to Put Teller Up for the Presidency.

The silver delegates were in secret conference till after midnight. They will have a meeting at 10 o'clock today when their address will be presented for adoption. It declares their principles and proposes Teller as the fusion candidate for all who are opposed to McKinley and a gold standard. It invites the Democrats, Populists, bimetallicists and all parties or organizations that have their nominees yet to name and their platforms to adopt to unite on Teller as their standard bearer and to ignore all other issues in the effort to reform the currency system. When Teller was asked about his movement to place him in the field as an independent candidate for the presidency he declined to discuss it or to say whether he would accept or decline. "It is," he said, "a movement with which I have had nothing to do and which I have not encouraged. I do not therefore feel called upon to discuss it and shall not do so at the present time." The senator received over 100 telegrams during the afternoon. Most of them were from the western states, but there were some from Pennsylvania and two or three from New York and New England each.

A large majority of them endorsed the course taken, but some condemned it. One message from Ohio said: "I do not regard you as a representative Republican." Upon reading this aloud to his friends the senator remarked: "I agree with him, but I don't see why he should go to the expense of a telegram to tell me what I already know." Teller will spend several days with his mother in the northern part of Illinois before proceeding to his home in Colorado.

The Discovery Saved His Life. G. Callisette, druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with a gripe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail, and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store, I sent for a bottle and began its use, and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it. Get a free trial at Harris & Ulmeyer's drug store."
