Announcements.

I wish to announce myself as a candidate for the office of township collector, subject to the wishes of the democratic city township convention.

H. LECHMAN.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of county superintendent of schools, subject to the decision of the democratic county convention.

D. W. MATTHEWS.

I herewith announce myself as a democratic candidate for the nomination for township collector, and respectfully ask the support of my friends.

THOMAS O'CONNOR.

I am a candidate for the democratic nomination for township collector, subject to the will of the party, and respectfully ask the support of my friends.

D. H. KIMBLE.

"Our ship is sunk, and our flag trailed in the dust of the ocean," shrieks a Cleveland paper. A jumble of metaphors and a dreadful warning of the fate to which intemperate writing leads.

A Quincy student is said to have gone to the Klondike, located a claim and left a partner to work it. They have received an offer of $1,000,000 for their mine, but it is worth at least $3,000,000, and they decline to sell.

The total strength of the national guard in the various states is 113,450 men. Of this number 6,361 are from Illinois. The total number of citizens in the United States actually liable for military service is 10,139,788, of which Illinois furnishes 700,000.

The reunion of Louis James and Frederick Ward is announced in conjunction with Mme. Rhea. The repertoire will embrace "Othello," "Julius Caesar," "Much Ado About Nothing," "Hamlet," "Macbeth" and "The School for Scandal." The tour will be confined to the principal cities and will begin early in September.

"It is more than thirty years," says Senator Davis, of Minnesota, "since I began to make a collection of works relating to Napoleon Bonaparte. During this period I have accumulated about 800 volumes, some of them rare and priceless. My collection was inaugurated before the Napoleonic era set in, and was started because of the regard I have for the greatest man France has ever known."

A MAMMOTH reproduction of the historical New England colony of Plymouth, Mass., as it appeared in 1621, is being prepared by W. L. Williams, a Plymouth artist, for exhibition at the Trans-Mississippi exposition. The scene is laid in Puritan days and shows the style of habitations in which the pilgrim fathers lived, and the quaint dress worn in the early settlement of Massachusetts bay. The sturdy figure of bold Capt. Miles Standish and his men in fighting trim, Indians and other characters, will help to make the production of still deeper interest. The work will be exhibited in a building erected expressly for the purpose on the amusement section of

Dr. Miles' Nervine

A REMEDY FOR THE Effects of Tobacco.

THE excessive use of tobacco, especially by young men, is always injurious and undoubtedly shortens life materially. Dr. E. C. Miles, composer on the Contra-Contralto News, Martinez, Cal., writes: "I have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and received much benefit from it. I was troubled with nervousness, dizzy spells and sleeplessness, caused by the use of tobacco and stimulants. I took Dr. Miles' Nervine with marvelous good results, clearing the system, quieting the nerves, and enabling me to sleep and rest, proving in my case a very beneficial remedy." Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is especially adapted to restoring the nervous system to its normal condition under such circumstances. It soothes, heals and strengthens.

the exposition grounds and similar to the cyclorama of "The Battle of Gettysburg."

The house sub-committee on banking and currency, which consists of Mr. Prince, of Illinois; Mr. McCleary, of Minnesota; and John Murray Mitchell, of New York, is holding daily sessions in Washington, regardless of the war scare, and formulating a bill for the reform of the currency. The members have each taken an oath of absolute secrecy until their work is completed, hence no other members of congress know what they are doing. It is surmised, however, that they are taking the bill of the currency commission as a basis, with the idea of holding to the theories advanced by Mr. Gage and the members of the committee.

A Disgrace to the Profession.

Newspaperdom utters truthful words when it says: "Next to the loss sustained by the nation in the sinking of the battleship Maine and the death of so many brave men, is the injury inflicted upon American journalism by those reckless and imprudent journals whose lurid coloring of the news from Havana and Washington has done so much to shake the faith of the people in the reliability of the press. In the absence of news of the catastrophe and the causes leading up to it, these papers printed wild guesses and in-flaming headlines for the double purpose of arousing a war spirit, and selling a few thousands of extra copies. There was not a scintilla of truth upon which to base the columns of ridiculous stories accompanied by equally ridiculous illustrations, which these fashy papers regaled their readers. The whole thing was a palpable fraud upon the public—people believed they were buying news when they were paying for lies. Reputable journalism is certain to suffer for such wild work on the part of a few great (?) newspapers. The fake papers will suffer, also, through the boom-rang tendency of lies to come home to roost." Whether an outraged public will fit the punishment to the crime by refusing to buy papers that deliberately lie for gain is not certain, but the fact remains that, if a man lies as wantonly and persistently as these fake journals have after the Maine horror, he would ever after be shunned by honest men."

Don't Let's Past Record.

Louisville (Ky.) Dispatch.

Boutelle, who disgraces the state of Maine as her representative in congress, who says to the devil with the whole country, and declares that no one has a right to interfere with his original prerogative as a legislator, is remembered as the sole individual to raise his voice in congress against the vigorous attitude of President Cleveland in the Venezuelan boundary dispute.

Question For Bill Hawks.

Cuba (N. Y.) Observer.

How much longer can the workmen of New England or any other part of the country be deluded with the notion that a protective tariff is essential for prosperity, when they see, in less than six months after the passage of the Dingley law, 150,000 men striking against a reduction of wages in the industry supposed to have the most scientific tariff schedule of all?

Free of Charge to Soldiers.

Cut this out and take it to your druggist and get a sample bottle free of Dr. King's New Discovery, for consumption, coughs and colds. They do not ask you to buy before trying. This will show you the great merits of this truly wonderful remedy, and show you what can be accomplished by the regular sized bottle. This is no experiment, and would be disastrous to the proprietors, did they not know it would invariably cure. Many of the best physicians are now using it in their practice with great results, and are relying on it in most severe cases. It is guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Harts & Udemeyer's drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.

"That Third Feeling"

overcomes us when inferior preparations are recommended by unscrupulous dealers as "just as good as Foley's Honey and Tar cough syrup," when we know the unequal merits of this great medicine. For sale by T. H. Thomas.

HARD TO EXPLAIN.

If This Had Occurred Anywhere Else Than Rock Island There Might be Grave Doubts About It.

If this were published anywhere else but in Rock Island, that is, if the statement given below went the rounds of the press, readers in Boston or New Orleans might not believe it. In the very nature of things men and women will not believe that a simple little pill would have any effect on humanity when the subject is in a serious condition. When it has that effect, when the party is a living witness, perhaps a neighbor, Rock Island people at least cannot possibly deny it, particularly so when investigation is courted. Now ask Mrs. M. Huthmaker, who lives at 927 Twenty-first street, and see if she will not corroborate personally what she says publicly. Mrs. Huthmaker says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are just a splendid remedy for kidney trouble. My mother suffered from kidney trouble for five years, complaining a great deal, almost every morning from pains in her back and hips. There was a scantiness of the kidney secretions, and they were otherwise irregular. She used five bottles of a well known kidney remedy, but she received little or no benefit. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I obtained at Marshall & Fisher's drug store, did her more good than all the other medicine she ever used. In all she took two boxes. I do not hear her complain about any pains in her back, and the other trouble is relieved. I have heard her say repeatedly how much better she has been since using Doan's Kidney Pills. If women only knew what a grand remedy this is there would be much less suffering arising from disordered kidneys." Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all druggists. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

GREAT WARRIOR GONE.

The interview took place. The relieving officer came at night, and Rosecrans sent for Thomas. "He came alone to the tent," said Rosecrans. "I handed him the letter. He read it, and as he did so his breast began to swell, and he turned pale. He did not want to accept the command, but he agreed upon consideration that he must do so. I told him that I could not leave to meet my troops afterward. 'I want to leave,' said I, 'before the announcement is made, and I will start in the morning.' I packed up that night, and the next morning at about 7 o'clock I rode away through the fog which then hung over the camp. The best of relations prevailed between General Thomas and myself, and as to the statement that he considered himself my superior and obeyed my orders through a sense of duty it is not so."

THOMAS DRAGO.

Rosecrans was much affected as he made this statement to his old companions in arms, and his manner carried conviction with it. In 1862 he was United States minister to Mexico, when he became a resident of San Rafael, Cal., where he possessed large land and property. He was afterward engaged in an unsuccessful attempt to construct a vast system of narrow gauge railroads in Mexico. In 1881 he was elected to congress from California and re-elected in 1882. In 1888 President Cleveland appointed him register of the treasury. In religion General Rosecrans was a devout Roman Catholic in politics, an unwavering Democrat. In the various discussions caused by his military career he defended himself with the force of logic which drew upon him in turn the denunciations of the friends of McClellan, Grant, Halleck and Sheridan and led occasionally to fierce personal reprimands. But when danger had had time to cool the country did full justice to him. Despite bitter attacks and spiteful charges the patriotic Americans will hold him in high honor as the man who cleared West Virginia of Confederates—the hero of Corinth, Iuka and Stone River.

Will Not Get a Dollar Out of Their Losses in the Failed Bank.

Carlyle, Ill., March 11.—The last thread that connected the creditors of the defunct Ramsey bank with their lost thousands of dollars probably has been broken. A decision was rendered in the appellate court at Mount Vernon yesterday afternoon which virtually defeats them in their legal battle with the Chicago bondsmen of the estate treasurer of Illinois and Canada and led occasionally to fierce personal reprimands. But when danger had had time to cool the country did full justice to him. Despite bitter attacks and spiteful charges the patriotic Americans will hold him in high honor as the man who cleared West Virginia of Confederates—the hero of Corinth, Iuka and Stone River.

That period which marks a change from winter into the lap of spring is the most dangerous. It is the time when the air is filled with disease, when the wind whiffs pneumonia and other pulmonary trouble with every breeze. The fatality of this character of disease is simply alarming, and in spite of all warnings they seem to be increasing. Pneumonia comes suddenly, it acts quickly and far too often results fatal. To check and repair the waste of such a disease is a problem every doctor seeks to solve, and if he could only find some means to replace the rapid waste of tissues in the human structure faster than it goes on there is no disease which he could not conquer. He is like the alchemists of olden times, continually seeking the one magical solvent which should turn all things into gold. It is a question of a stimulant, and experience tells him there is nothing to equal Pure Whisky. Then, why not guard against this evil disease by having always in your medicine chest a bottle of Pure Rye or Bourbon Whisky? It is a preventive, as well as a cure. We have many brands and various prices, but all are guaranteed absolutely pure. We are the only wholesale house selling goods at retail in any quantity you may want.
