Her Friends Among the Powers May Put a Veto on War a Tout Outrance.

FRANCE IS VERY MUCH INTERESTED

Both Urge Her Intervention-Time Rapidly Approaching for the Action of the Powers, To Be Taken at Spain's Request - Alleged Reasons Why Castillo Declines to Take a Cabinet Position.

London, May 23.-The Madrid correspondent of The Daily Telegraph says: One point of interest in the reconstruction of the cainet lies in the obstinate refusal of Saor Leon y Castillo (the Spanish ambassador to France) to accept the foreign secretaryship. Every consideration has been brought to bear in vain. His first reply to the premier's request expressed the conviction that the interests of Spain would be best served by his remaining at Paris. Senor Sagasta answered pointing out that the head of the government was the best judge of the interests of the fatherland and insisting upon the ambassador's acceptance. To the surprise of everybody the ambassador persisted in his refusal and promised in a personal interview to prove to Senor Sagasta that it would be a grave mistake for him to leave Paris. Powers to Insist On Peace. "I am enabled to state that the ambassador's motive for refusal was the following: Senor Sagasta's cabinet is, by its own formal declaration, determined to carry on the war with all pos sible vigor, whereas Senor Leon y Castillo is aware that Spain's friendsamens the powers, France in particular, are resolved to insist upon her suing for peace at the first favorable moment France possesses a two-fold interset in having peace concluded-financial and political. The former would be severely damaged if Spain were utterly ruined, and the latter would suffer if the United States retained permanent possession of the Philippines. Spain Sure To Be Benten. "The leading idea which actuates th statesmen responsible for the political scheme favored by Senor Leon y Castillo is that as Spain must be worsted in the long run it is advisable to save as much as possible from destruction and that the sooner peace is concluded the more tolerable will be the terms acquiesced in by the United States. The most important of these terms, in the eyes of Spain's friends and protectors, is the possession of the Philippines which can be utilized for further political combinations later on.

CABINET BETWEEN TWO STOOLS. But Is Likely to Accept the Proposal

Made by the Powers. "To become a member of a war cabinet, therefore, at the very moment when the friendly great powers are resolved to press upon Spain a speedy peace anpears imprudent to Sener Leen y Castillo, who is in possession of all the threads of the negotiations. Senor Sagasta's cabinet is certainly desirous of regaining popularity with the country by prosecuting the war to the bitter end, but it is highly improbable that having heretofore implicity followed the advice of the continental powers it will refuse to accept coursels of peace proffered under the promise of future help, especially if the United States waives all claims to the Philippines. "Spain's importance as a political factor in the far east is now thoroughly understood, and everything possible will be done to gain time and profit by it. Her position as a Mediterranean power, her influence in Morocco, he well-disciplined land and sea forces, and, above all, her possession of the Philippines, constitute the political aspect of the question. The first and most important step at present, therefore, is to utilize the most propitious moment for concluding peace on the basis of Spain's retention of the Philippines.

"When that time has come-and it is believed to be very near now that the Spanish squadron is at Cantingo-Spain will be asked to propose pour parieurs, and friendly efforts will be made to induce the United States to rest satisfied with Cuba's independence, or with anperation, and to abandon the scheme of running permanently or occupying temperarily the Philippines. These are the grave considerations which determine Senor Leon y Castillo, who is a party politician and usually submissive to the head of his party, to insist upon remaining as ambassador at Paris."

STORM THE DEATH OF SEVEN, DEATH OF EDWARD BELLAMY. That Is the Death Rate So Far for Friday's

Fayetteville, Ark., May 23 .- The torhade which passed through a portion of northwest Arkansas Friday night did the death of at least seven persons. Reports of the destruction are coming in slowly, and it is feared that later details will add other names to the death list. Everthing in its path was destroyed, the greatest damage being done near Elm Springs, Lowell and Mudtqwn—the latter place being entirely swept away. At Elm Springs one man who had sought safety in a cellar was killed by falling timber.

Two miles east of Elm Springs a man named Killingsworth and his wife were killed. A mile away a farm house occupied by an Italian family was wrecked and the inmates instantly killed. Twenty houses are reported blown away in the vicinity of Elm Springs. The storm was less severe in Crawford courty, but one life was lost near Fort Smith-Mrs. Nesbitt died from freight while the gale was at its flercest. The home of W. S. Kimbrough near Springdale was blown down and Kimbrough was instantly killed. Several other farm houses were blown down near Springdale and six to eight persons more or less seriously injured.

Presbyterian Commissioners Devote On Session to War Talk. Winona Lake, Ind., May 23.-The detional services of the general assembly Saturday were led by J. Willis Baer, general secretary of the national union of Young People's societies in the United States. After routine business the report of the board of ministerial relief was presented. The fact that the board reported no debt was greeted with applause. The assembly devoted Saturday afternoon to a patriotic meeting. Enthusiastic applause was frequent, but rose to its highest pitch in consequence of esolutions and sentiments favoring an Anglo-American alliance. One of the speakers said that "Loyalty to the Cuban cause was loyalty to God." After another speech three cheers were given for "the webfeet and the ections, glorying in fact that the first blood split in the present conflict was that of the south, and that it was mingled with northern blood on the deck of the Winslow off Cardenas. Dr. Pentacoast reminded the speaker that the blood of the colored race was mingled in that baptism, whereupon Barkley grasped the hand of Dr. Brown, a colored commissioner.
