Two sessions of the full committee were held, but in these only matters of minor importance were parsed upon, and as a rule the senate amendments on these uniters were accepted. Among the changes was one in the heer tax provision making it definite that the stock on hand exempted should be the stock in the hands of dealers and not of browers. There is quite a contest over the senate amendment exempting the tobacco stock on hand from taxation, but this schedule has not been passed upon. The indications are, however, that the senate provision will stand.
