LaGrippe is Contagious.

Atmosphere Impregnated With Germs.

Disease Proved Beyond Question to Be Infectious—Is Rapidly Conquering the Country.
 LaGrippe is a contagious disease. Its specific germ has been positively identified, and it is transmitted from person to person either by direct contact or by inhaling the germs while they float in the air. It is a dangerous disease, lowering the vitality and wasting the resistive power so that pneumonia, heart disease, nervous prostration and insanity find easy victims. No specific is known that will kill the Grip germs, but it may be driven out and its effects overcome by the prompt use of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerveine.
 LaGrippe left my nervous system so racked and shattered that I could not sleep, and for two months was under the influence of narcotics. Physicians and friends gave me up to die; but in two days after I commenced taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerveine I began to improve, and in a month's time I was entirely cured. It is the greatest health restorer on earth."
 D. W. HULTON, Louisville, Ky.

A Continental

Many things there be that a man doesn't "care a continental about." But it is not so with this cigar. It must be good, and to get it good he must buy it at a store where they know good cigars and keep them. There are two places where "satisfaction" can always be found. In the dictionary and at

 MANAGER.

AMUSEMENTS.

De Koven and Smith's latest comic opera success, "The Highwayman," will be seen for the first time Tuesday evening at the Burtis opera house. The new effort of the versatile collaborators is said to equal in merit their last success, "Robin Hood," and in it both the librettist and composer are credited with having done their best work. The Broadway Theatre Opera company, headed by Miss Camille D'Arville, which presents the opera, was organized by Andrew A. McCormick, the manager of the Broadway company of that play house, and the principals and chorus were selected from the best of lyric material. The new opera is of a romantic type with comic embellishments. At the beginning of the present century in England, gentlemen turned outlaws when reversed in fortune, and laid in waiting on dark roads for peaceful travelers. Such a character is the hero of the "Highwayman," and the story deals with the efforts of an old girl chum of boyhood days to secure his pardon and restore him to a respectable vocation. She follows him into the wildest haunts, disguised as a highwayman herself, and holds up a stage coach to secure his pardon, which has been purloined by the very scoundrel who has ruined him at the gaming tables. The characters are said to be so well distributed that each one of a dozen principals has prominence in the story. There are three acts laid in the courtyard of the Cat and Fiddle Tavern, a lonely spot on the York road, and the park of Beverly manor, an old-time English gentleman's residence, said to be lavishly staged with bright costumes and sumptuous scenery. The music is everywhere spoken of as delightfully tuneful. The cast is an exceptional one and includes such artists as Miss D'Arville, Maud Williams, Reginald Roberts, Nellie Braggins, George O'Donnell, William S. Corliss and John Mayon.
 There was a novelty at Harper's theatre Saturday night—an "Uncle Tom's Cabin" performance without a note from the melodious voice of the terrorizing hounds that are down on the program for the sensational act of the show. The tendency seems to make it easy sledding for Eliza and her chieftain. The company referred to didn't even have a chunk of ice—of course, this might be explained by saying that it was done in deference to Eliza's wishes, as she was obliged to wear her light soled shoes at this production. Simon Lagreco, too, was absent when the role was called, and there were others who failed to materialize. One would hardly know that "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was being played if he were not so informed by the program. It is an outrage to annihilate this pretty story in such a merciless manner. The company had plenty of nerve, "the agents pawing among you" between acts and selling tickets for the concert, which was given after the "big show."
 David Belasco's company will play in Davenport at the Burtis Thursday, Feb. 2, with Mr. Belasco's latest drama, "The Heart of Maryland," the play that has been so highly eulogized by the New York, Chicago, Boston, San Francisco and London press, and in which they will have an opportunity to display their artistic resources. The play is realistic throughout, by its romantic episode of love in all its phases.

La Grippe Successfully Treated.

"I have just recovered from the second attack of la grippe this year," says Mr. James A. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexico, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days against 10 for the former attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy, as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'" EXTRA PAY AT THE ARSENAL

W. H. Schillingler Goes to Washington in Behalf of Measure.
 W. H. Schillingler, of this city, left last night for Washington, as the representative of Tri-City lodge No. 383, International Association of Machinists, to present the claims of fellow craftsmen employed at Rock Island Arsenal in relation to the allowance of 50 per cent additional pay for those who have worked overtime, or in excess of eight hours, a provision for which has been made in a resolution introduced by Senator Ferguson. The men have always received a regular time for extra work, but the effect of this measure is that all government arsenal workmen, mechanics and laborers alike, shall be paid at the rate of time-and-a-half for work done in excess of the eight hours.

CATARRH OF STOMACH.

A Pleasant, Simple, but Safe and Effective Cure for It.
 Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing; head aches, rickety appetite, nervousness and a general played out languid feeling.
 There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.
 The cure of this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do, and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.
 According to Dr. Harlanston the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Diastase, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.
 N. J. Booher, of 2710 Dearborn street, Chicago, writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of the stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use."
 Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.
 Send for little book mailed free, on stomach troubles, by addressing Stuart company, Marshall, Mich. The tablets can be found at all drug stores.
