SHERIFF STOOD OFF BY TWO MEN.

Posse and Mob Held at Bay for Hours by Paul and John Zeltner, Who Had Brutally Murdered a Lawyer and Killed One of a Pursuing Party of Citizens-Woman and Children in the Besieged

Toledo, O., March 27.-John and Paul Zeltner, who on Saturday murdered Attorney Westenhaven at Hoytsville, and after entrenching themselves in their house near that place defied arrest, were the capture would have been effected and at its worst uneatable. To the maexcept for the fact that the Zeltners were nearly out of ammunition, and they knew surrender was the only method of saving themselves from an infuriated mob. The militia had planned to make a stand about daylight, and strict picket duty was maintained by the Bloomdale Rifles all night, the men being stationed around the house at short intervals and at sufficient distance from the house to prevent the Zeltners from picking the men

Sheriff Gets Into the House. Several narrow escapes from bullets nappened during the evening, for the Zeitners being German sharpshooters were picking out and shooting at every one venturing within 500 yards. Ex-Sheriff Riggs, of Bowling Green, had walked to Hoytsville during the night to see Attorney Hood, whom the Zeltners wished to see. He promised to be at the scene at daylight and go to the house. When the time came he refused to go, evidently fearing that the Zeltners would shoot any one approaching the place. At 5:30 a.m. ex-Sheriff , Riggs, accompanied by a neighbor; named Brown, started toward the house. They walked the distance alone, Sheriff Bates stating afterward that down. The Zeltners offered no resistance to their approach and they were admitted to the house. After a parley, a promise of protection from mob law being made, the Zeltners surrendered and were guarded to the Bowling Green fail by the militia, which was afterward

John Zeltner then toined in demanding the papers and immediately fired the fatat shot that killed Westenhaven. As the Zeltners had their horses ready for mounting and escape it is thought that they had arranged to get Westenhaven into a fight for the purpose of "doing him," although they did not give the victim time to make any demonstrations towards them. WAR AT THE ZELTNER HOME.

Fusillade Kept Going. After killing the lawyer the Zeltners mounted their horses and rode out of town, firing as they went. It was not long before a mob was on their track and pursuing them.

The doings at the Zeltner house yeserday and Saturday night were thrilling. When they reached their house the two brothers took refuge in the cellar. An angry mob of 500 men and women gathered, and had it not been for the fact that Paul Zeltner's wife, four children and hired girl were in the house the place would have been burned. The Zeltners later came boldly out into their yard, where they stayed all the afternoon and defied arrest. There was a frequent exchange of shots between the fugitives and the crowd at long range Clarence Wettenmyer was shot in the heart and instantly killed. Sheriff Kingsbury and a posse of deputies were soon on the scene, ut the fusillade of shots kept up by the Zeltners held them

Deputy Sheriff Roach, who took refuge behind a tree in the woods, was made a special target, and three bullets grazed the tree behind which he stood. Later in the day the Zeltners retired within the house and barricaded it. A hundred shots were fired into the house, but without effect. The sheriff then decided call for the Bloomdale Rifles, and in the meantime a guard was stationed around the house. Mrs. Zeltner and her three children took refuge in the cellar. Saturday evening a neighbor of the Zeltners went into the house under a flag of truce and tried to induce them to surrender, but they declined to do so before morning, fearing the mob.

Mob After Three Negroes.

Paducah, Ky., March 27.-Saturday night as William Jones and his 16-yearold daughter were driving along a pike near this city they were attacked by three negro highwaymen. On his approach the negroes fled, his shots from a revolver proving ineffectual. A crowd of angry citizens is in pursuit with bloodhounds. The mob is equipped with ropes for a lynching.
