ATTACK ON A PATROL

Made By the Filipinos North of Bulacan, Wounding Two of Our Men.

ALLEGED OFFER OF GENERAL PILAR

Proposes to Sell Aguinaldo's Whole Outfit for $500,000 Cash—Rebel Leader Publishes a Book to Prove That He Was Promised Independence—Shows Wildman in a Rather Merciless Light—Phil Talk at Home.

Manila, Oct. 18, 10:30 p. m.—A body of twenty-five Filipinos attacked a railroad patrol of eight men, members of the Seventeenth regiment, at Guiguinto, north of Bulacan, wounding two. The Americans reinforced the patrol and drove off the enemy, capturing a quantity of ammunition.

A message has been received by General Otis, purporting to come from General Pio del Pilar, Filipino commander, offering for $500,000 to leave Manila alone, for $250,000 to leave his army after a sham battle, and for $500,000 to end the insurrection and betray Aguinaldo into the hands of our troops. Otis will not trade, for one thing, and it is not certain that the offer is authentic for another.

Aguinaldo Publishes a Book.

The consul in Manila has received from Manila, where it is believed Aguinaldo remains, a book containing the correspondence between him and the American commanders and consuls, in which, as he contended in his recent appeal for recognition, the Filipinos find the basis for their assertion that the American government recognized their sovereignty and promised them independence. The book is addressed to the members of the United States congress, and contains a long argument by Senor Buencamino, of the so-called cabinet of Aguinaldo, and alleged letters written by Rounsaville, Wildman, United States consul at Hong Kong, to Aguinaldo in June and July of last year. It has made a sensation among the Spaniards here.

Wildman's Advice to Aguinaldo.

Replying to Aguinaldo's request that the Americans would arrange for the shipment of the Spanish prisoners to Hong Kong, relieving the Filipinos of the expense of maintaining them, Wildman wrote: "Never mind feeding them. A meal every day of rice and water will be a good diet. As the Spaniards want to be bloodied in the Philippines I trust you will let them have a taste of real war. Do not be so tender with them. Handle them as they would treat you." Wildman's letters dealt largely with the shipment of arms.

No Promise of Independence.

The whole correspondence, however, contains no promises of independence. Senor Buencamino lays stress upon letters from Admiral Dewey and General Anderson requesting passes for Spanish officers and troops to visit Philippine territory, and upon a letter from General Anderson asking "you and your people to co-operate with us in military operations against the Spaniards."

Bell Has a Brush with the Enemy.

Washington, Oct. 19.—General Otis has made the following report to the war department under date of Oct. 18: "Lawson, with carefully selected strong column, reached Cabo, ten miles south of San Isidro, this morning. Third and Fourth cavalry with him. Under Young, Bell, of the Sixth Infantry, while scouting northwest of Santarita with part of the regiment, struck the insurgents, killing and wounding several; capturing thirteen prisoners and fifteen rifles."

WAR CAMPAIGN AT HOME

What McKinley, Bryan and the Anti-Imperialists Say.

Youngstown, O., Oct. 19.—The president when he arrived here yesterday was met by 20,000 people, who wildly cheered him. In his speech, as usual, he devoted most of his time to the Philippine question and said in part: "We have now before us some grave problems in government, problems that command not only from the president, but from all the people steady and sober judgment, problems not to be settled by one party or another, but by the people of this country."

Our boys are there. They are not there for conquest. * * * They are there because in the providence of God who made us mysteriously that great archipelago has been placed in the hands of the American people. When Dewey sunk the ships in Manila, as he was ordered to do, it was not to capture the Philippines. It was to destroy the Spanish fleet—the fleet of the nation against which we were warring—and we thought that the soonest way to end that was to destroy the power of Spain to make any; so we sent Dewey and the islands came to us.

"It was no responsibility we sought but it was a responsibility put upon us. Will the American people shut their eyes to this? Have the American people ever been known to run away from a great high moral duty? [Repeated cry of "No."] Our flag is in the value, "It will stay there, too," not as the symbol of oppression, not as the token of tyranny, not as the emblem of enslavement, but our flag is there as our flag is here, representing liberty, humanity and civilization. There was no cloud in Dewey's victory and there will be no doubt or hesitation about preserving it."

During the day the president addressed large crowds at Cleveland, Warren and Niles.

Louisville, Oct. 19.—Twenty thousand people greeted William J. Bryan and the candidates on the Democratic ticket at Churchill Downs yesterday afternoon, the occasion being the first demonstration by local Democrats in the state campaign now in progress. The crowd was filled with enthusiasm and satisfied with barbecued meat and burgoo. It fed upon oratory by the state leaders, notably ex-Senator J. S. Blackburn and William Crockett, and the champion of the party in national politics, William J. Bryan. The barbecue was the feature of the third day's programme of the party which has been stumping Kentucky in the interest of the regular Democratic nomination. They spent three hours at the Jockey club grounds, all full of speech-making and then resumed their trip to Covington, Ky., where the final meeting was held. The party goes to Ohio today.

Some of Bryan's speech was devoted to the troubles in the local party ranks. But more to the Philippines question and other national issues. He quoted recent utterances of the president and said that if "congress" were changed to "parliament" and "senators" to "people" the declaration would be exactly in line with the policy of Great Britain in 1776. Again he said: "If we appealed to England in behalf of the Boers, she would reply, 'what's the matter with the Filipinos?'"

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Take down that American flag! Don't disgrace it any longer! These words rang out in Central Music hall in a clear, penetrating voice, yesterday, just as Horbert S. Bigelow finished his address speech before the anti-expansion convention. They were from a woman who refused to tell her name, but said she was the daughter of a soldier, the sister of a soldier and the wife of a soldier, and it was "shameful, shameful to have the flag unhoisted."

The conference adopted its platform yesterday, the fifth of it being that "We demand the immediate cessation of the war against liberty, begun by Spain and continued by us. We urge that congress be promptly convened to announce to the Filipinos our purpose to concede to them the independence for which they have so long fought and which of right is theirs. We demand that the obligation of all citizens to support their government in times of grave national peril applies to the present situation. * * * If an administration may with impunity deliberately create a condition of war anywhere on the face of the globe * * * and demand unanimous support while it chooses to continue the fighting, representative government itself is imperiled."

The principal speech of the day was made by Bourke Cockran, whose address was long and comprehensive of every question involved in the government's policy. The convention adjourned last night.

What Paper Costs.

Ladies who go shopping have little idea of the cost of their trip, even in such a minor detail as the cost of paper for the packages they have sent. A Baltimorean has recently compared the weight of paper with the food supplied to the purchaser. In one day's purchases it is said that the paper wrapping amounted to about 10 per cent of the total. In a list of supplies costing about $1.40 he found that the paper which was weighed with the provisions cost 14 1/2 cents.

In Luck.

"You think you know all about women, don't you?" asked the newly married bachelor.

"No," replied the savage bachelor, "and I am mighty glad I don't."—Lodiapolis Journal.
