

Sure Sign of Spring.

The Organ Grinder's Serenade

Will soon be heard on the streets and by that token you will know that spring has arrived. There are other signs that you should note as well. The signs of activity and enterprise that are seen around the sign of Shields' Cash grocery. These are the signs that the people know mean much to their pocket books. Read the following:

OFFICIAL LEAGUE SCHEDULE IS OUT

Fifty-six Games to be Played in Each Town, Season Opening May 2.

ROCK ISLAND AWAY FROM HOME

First Meeting on the Local Diamond With Rockford
May 24.

The official schedule of the Illinois-Indiana-Iowa baseball league, drafted by Frank C. Lander, of Rockford, was received by President M. H. Sexton today. It gives 56 games in each of the eight towns comprising the circuit, the season to open May 2.

Rock Island will be at Evansville at the beginning of the season, returning for its first games at home May 24, 25 and 26, with Rockford. Previous to these dates Rock Island will meet Davenport on the latter's home grounds May 17, 18 and 19.

Mr. Lander, in an explanatory note to President Sexton, states he has considered the requests of all clubs with reference to Sundays, holidays, etc., and has to the best of his ability impartially proportioned the games.

How the Battle Will Be Fought.

by Rock Island. President Sexton will announce his decisions at an early date.

Decatur now has 13 men signed and the team has been ordered to report April 15. The names of the men that contracts have been secured from are Conley, Rollins, Swalm, Melvaine, Schlorf, Searles, Dornier, Bruce, Barger, Noonan, McGrew, Burt and Kanzlar.

Dick Brown, the fast third baseman, seems to be a bone of contention. Bill Kreig is alleged to have had a cinch on Dickie, but not needing him turned him over to Evansville. Manager Connors, of Bloomington, has a contract with Brown's name attached, and if he plays at all he will play in a Bloomington uniform.

DEATH OF GEORGE ADGATE.

Young Man Well Known Here Follows His Wife to the Grave.

Charles A. Spencer today received from Chicago a letter announcing the death in that city Tuesday of George Adgate, who will be remembered here as the superintendent of the pier work in connection with the rebuilding of the Rock Island bridge a few years ago. Mr. Adgate was married during his residence here and he and his wife made many friends. Mrs. Adgate died less than a year ago. Mr. Adgate's death was due to pneumonia, which developed just as he was recovering from injuries sustained by the falling on him of a heavy timber. He was 31 years of age and employed by the firm of Sney Smith & Co., of New York, in which his father is a stockholder.

Joseph Scarr, aged 80 years, a Rock Island county pioneer, died yesterday in Chicago at the home of his daughter, Mrs. G. F. Wagner, with whom he had been living the past year. Previous to that time he was a resident of Bowling township. Three daughters and two sons survive: Mrs. Wagner, of Chicago; Mrs. Mary Ann Hudson, John M. Scarr and William Scarr, of Bowling, and Mrs. D. F. Kreil, of this city. The remains will be brought here for interment.

PERSONAL POINTS.

William Hawthorne is hunting at Atkinson.

John Fassnacht hunted ducks near Carbon Cliff today.

Mr. and Mrs. James McNamara returned this morning from a trip to Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McHugh are expected home from their southern trip tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Quayle today became the parents of a 10-pound daughter—their first born.

Simon Burns, president of the Window Glass Workers' International union, is in the city for a visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Charlotte Kannan, who came here to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Mary Ehle, left for her home in Buffalo, N. Y., last night.

A. J. Riess today accompanied his brother, H. W. Riess, and family as far as Chicago. The latter are on their way to Washington, where the family will remain while Mr. Riess is with the United States army in the far east.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.
The meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance union Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Paul Hamilton proved a pleasant and interesting affair. The topic was "The Larder and the Medicine Chest." A paper on the subject was read by Mrs. S. D. Cleland. There were two other papers—"The Life of Neal Dow" by Mrs. Delane and "The Influence of the Home" by Mrs. A. H. McCandless. Refreshments were served.

To Build Road.
Members of the committee on improvements of the Moline Business Men's association held a meeting Tuesday afternoon and decided that they would go ahead with the proposed highway south from Rock river bridge to the Knoxville road and build it by private subscription.

Lost in Matrimony.
The business of matrimony has been sadly neglected in the county of late. Up till yesterday not a marriage license had been issued for a period of nine days, a state of affairs unknown within the memory of Deputy County Clerk Johnny Rinck.

Mrs. Cheney's Will.
The will of Mrs. Jessie H. Cheney, of Moline, was probated in the county court yesterday. By its terms the property, with the exception of a piano, which goes to the daughter, is left to the husband, Edward P. Cheney.

Woodmen Social.
J. E. Jackson camp 3918, M. W. A., gave its initial public function in the form of a social and dance at Carse hall last night. About fifty couples were present and a most enjoyable time was had.

Travel Over Bridge.
Travel over the Rock Island bridge was as follows yesterday: Foot, south 612, north 621, total 1,236; teams, south 527, north 513, total 1,040; street cars, 165 each way.

A mighty revival of that youthful, joyous feeling pervades your whole system if you take Rocky Mountain Tea this month. 35 cents. T. H. Thomas' pharmacy.

Itchiness of the skin, horrible plague. Most everybody afflicted in one way or another. Only one safe, never failing cure—Doan's Ointment. At any drug store, 50 cents.

IMPLICATED IN DAVENPORT JOB

Had a Hand In Relieving Safe of Laundry of a Considerable Sum.

The Rock Island police yesterday were asked to look out for a negro wanted for participating in the burglary of the C. O. D. laundry in Davenport early yesterday morning. Late in the afternoon Officer John Schmidt, who was patrolling the down town beat, saw a man who answered the description of the party wanted, at Reece's saloon, on Ninth street and Fifth avenue. Soon after the officer entered the place the negro went out and the former followed
