POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

When carpenters strike they usually hit the nail on the head.

Some faces have a very striking appearance—clock faces, for example.

A man makes his maiden speech when he asks a spinster to marry him.

Although meat continues to go up no doubt it will continue to go down daily.

When a man sits down and tells himself what a great genius he is he seldom can prove it.

What a pity it is that the most beautiful girls usually have so little else to recommend them.

Wives who struggle to keep up appearances usually have husbands who struggle to keep down expenses.

Ignorance is bliss until it begins to associate with egotism.

Fortunate is the girl who loses her temper and never finds it again.

Many a good man blacks boots, and many a bad one blacks characters.

It is more difficult for some men to collect their wits than their bills.

Were it not for the things we are going to do life would not be worth living.

Many a bachelor who plans a happy fireside of his own eventually bumps up against a so-called furnace-heated flat.

It is easier to stand prosperity than it is to get a chance to try.

In order to appreciate youth one must get over on the shady side of 40.

Before marriage a man yearns for a woman; after marriage he earns for her.

When your health runs down you should wind up some of your bad habits.

Lots of men, after laying up something for a rainy day, get discouraged because it doesn't rain.

When a man finds a button in his salad he should bear in mind that it is only a part of the dressing.

Ministers should bear in mind that short sermons are the most popular in summer—as well as in spring, autumn and winter.—Chicago Daily News.

HOMEWARD BOUND.

Wife's coming home next week

From her long vacation;

Wife's been away to seek

Health and recreation.

Home she's coming from the sea

To the hired girl and me.

Wife left me in July.

Soon she'll be returning;

For her cheering presence I

Have been fondly yearning.

Life shall soon regain its zest.

Wife's coming home to rest.

DURING THE PAST TEN DAYS

WE have been making a sale of fine Negligee Shirts. In many instances customers received two fine shirts for the price of one. It did not take long for the people to learn where these bargains were to be had, and the result was our stock of summer shirts was soon demoralized. We are now pleased to announce that we have just made a fine purchase out of the celebrated Cluett and Monarch shirt stock and are better prepared than ever to offer many soft snaps in fine negligee shirts. The only difference between this sale and the one last had is, we are having it at the expense of the manufacturer. Among these shirt snaps you can find
