Lyman B. Sperry entertained a small but appreciative audience at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday evening, with his lecture on the beauties of the northwest. Owing to the breaking of the stereopticon apparatus a portion of the lecture was omitted. At the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon Mr. Sperry gave an interesting talk to a large audience. His subject was "Male and Female."

The McKinley syndicate, which has proposed to build an interurban from Peoria to this city, showed far-sightedness in mapping out two routes. Galesburg has become excited over the prospects that the line will be built via Kewanee and is preparing to offer inducements to have it come via the southern route. Kewanee, on the other hand, will in all likelihood see fit to offer more liberal terms than it has done to the Kewanee, Cambridge & Geneseo company.

A good business move on the part of the Milwaukee and Burlington roads would be the establishment of ticket offices in the business district of the city, after the plan of the Rock Island. While the depot of neither line is so far remote from the heart of the city as to occasion any serious complaint on the part of patrons, still it is off the main street, where people, strangers in particular, expect to find all the railroad ticket offices in a line, as they are in most of the larger cities. It might prove especially advantageous to the Milwaukee in view of the opening of its Chicago-Kansas City service.

H. ALLENDORF ARRESTED

HERE ON SERIOUS CHARGE

Harry Allendorf, a salesman employed by Young & McCombs, was arrested Saturday night on telegraphic instructions from the authorities of Waterloo, Iowa, where he is accused of implication in burning of stores.

L. C. Willing, proprietor of a department store at Waterloo, arrested Saturday night just as he was about to collect the $3,000 insurance upon it, confessed to having set fire to his stores three times previously, and told the officers that Allendorf was his ally. Allendorf was formerly in business in Waterloo, but protests that he is innocent of the charge made against him by Willing. Allendorf resides in Davenport, where he has a wife and two children.

Found a Cure for Indigestion—

"I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find that they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried, and I have used many different remedies. I am nearly 51 years of age and have suffered a great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want to now."—George W. Emory, Rock Mills, Ala. For sale by all druggists.

When bilious try a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and realize for once how quickly a first-class, up-to-date medicine will correct the disorder. For sale by all druggists.

DENTIST NO "DOCTOR" IN FRENCH CAPITAL

Presumptions American Violates Rule and Has a Fine to Pay.

Paris, Jan. 11.—Because a dentist named Dubouche, who is practicing here under a Philadelphia diploma, indicated his calling by the simple title of "Doctor" on his sign he has been condemned to pay a fine and damages amounting to $25 as a result of an action brought against him by the Paris Society of Surgeon Dentists. The society alleges that the sign deceived persons as to the real character of his calling, and that Dubouche did not make known the foreign origin of his diploma. Dr. Dubouche has carried the case to a higher court.

Rascals Who Want a Raise of the Wind Represented as Iowa Bankers.

Burlington, Vt., Jan. 11.—Joseph H. Marshall, of New York, who obtained a position as salesman in a local firm by representing himself as president of a national bank at Atlantic, Ia., was found guilty in the superior court of obtaining money under false pretenses, the firm having advanced him $200 for expenses.

Marshall, the actual president of the Iowa bank, testified that he had been impersonated by some person fifteen times during the past three years. Sentence will be pronounced later.

HELD TO GRAND JURY FOR VIOLATING REVENUE LAWS

Chicago, Jan. 11.—United States Commissioner A. D. Salmon was today held to the federal grand jury on the charge of violating the United States internal revenue law in the Columbus laboratories.

Pair of Accidents

Orville Snyder, a young farmer living near Kewanee, was fatally hurt in a peculiar manner while driving on the streets of that city Saturday. The king bolt of his buggy broke and the forward part of the vehicle dropped to the ground. The horse began kicking and struck the driver on the head, fracturing his skull.

John Praetz and Miss Cora Petty, young people living near Dixon, were struck by a Northwestern train at that place Friday night while crossing the tracks in a buggy and both were hurt, the young woman seriously.
