FIVE INNINGS WITHOUT TALLY

Although by Rights Rock Island Should Have the Game, Milan Calling Thornton Out on Slide to Plate.

GAMES TOMORROW. Springfield at Rock Island. Bloomington at Cedar Rapids. Decatur at Dubuque. Davenport at Rockford.

Rock Island should have yesterday's five-inning game with Springfield. Thornton was called out at the plate in the first inning by Umpire Milan when any unbiased judge would have al lowed the score. The runner made a slide of fully ten feet and reached the rubber simultaneous with the touching of him Catcher Latimer. But Milan waved him out even before the ball was in Latimer's hands. For some unexplained reason Milan since his connection with the league has handed t to Rock Island on every possible oc easion. Rock Island is not one of those cities that complains chronically over the umpire question. Any man who knows the game and manifests a desire to be fair will suit the players and the fans here.

Stuart has pleased both the home and visiting teams, and it is beyond understanding why he should have been disturbed by President Holland. It is sincerely to be hoped that Mr Milan will endeavor to more evenly balance the scales hereafter, if the league president is to insist on his re naining here.

Senators Complain of Darkness. The game was called at the end of the fifth inning at the behest of the Springfield players, who claimed that it was too dark to field the ball. Granted that it was a trifle gloomy. making it somewhat difficult to fol low the ball, there was no reason why play should have been stopped on that account. Milan announced to the audience that as soon as it grew brighter the game would be resumed, but in the interim the rain that had been threatening all the afternoon broke, and the crowd started for the cars. Rock Island was hitting Brittsen, and if the ten minutes that the team were allowed to loaf waiting for the rain were decidedly in favor of the team pushing a score across the plate, for the heavy batters were up in the sixth inning. Flowers and Ovation for Donnelly. The bouquet presentation to Manager Donnelly of the visiting team pleased the crowd immensely. It was a complete surprise on him, and was carried out in such a manner that there could not be the slightest suspicion on his part that there was anything doing. Lippert led off for the visitors with a single-by the way the only hit that was secured off Liebhardt in the five innings-and when Donnelly marched to the rubber Umpire Milan walked back as if to get the broom to sweep the plate. Instead he brought forth a huge bouquet of posies that Manager Nicol had been keeping under cover in the dressing room under the Time-40 minutes. grand stand. He knows that the gift was prompted in appreciation of the sportsmanlike spirit that he has displayed since he has been identified with the league. He was grateful for having been honored by his friends here, but this litle attention, if anything, made him all the more anxious to win, to demonstrate his worthiness not alone in Rock Island, but back home. Donnelly hit to Sweeney, who threw Lippert out at second, and the manager was doubled at first. Second base was the farthest Springfield got a man during the five innings.
