

MURDERS HIS WIFE AND THEN SUICIDES

Henry Stewart Fires Four Bullets Into Body of Woman in West Part of City—Then Blows His Own Brains Out With Shot Gun.

Henry Stewart shot and killed his wife at 3:45 this afternoon in the west end of the city, and then sent two charges from a shot gun into his own body, while the police were chasing him in the street in the vicinity of the home.

Stewart is a laborer. Last week his wife caused his arrest for assaulting her. He had been drinking. Friday he pleaded guilty in the court of Magistrate Johnson and was fined $10.

Saturday Mrs. Stewart began proceedings for divorce in the circuit court, alleging cruelty and drunkenness.

The tragedy of today was the climax. Stewart has been drunk the greater part of the time since his arrest last week. He was crazed by drink, his friends say. This afternoon he visited his wife, supposedly to endeavor to induce her to withdraw her suit for divorce.

They quarreled. He drew a pistol and shot her four times.

When the police arrived Stewart was in the street armed with a shot gun. He turned the gun on himself, shooting himself twice in the head. The ambulance was called.

Stewart died at 4:10.

Stewart followed his wife to the home of her sister, Mrs. Black, 316 Thirteenth street. He then went to his home, 623 Seventh street, intending to kill the children, but they escaped him.

DERBY DAY, SEPT. 1

CONGRESSMAN PRINCE IS HERE FOR THE BANQUET

Surprised to Learn of the Sudden Alteration in Plans for Entertainment of Committee.

Congressman George W. Prince arrived in the city last evening from his home in Galesburg, in response to an invitation to attend a banquet that was to have been tendered at the Harper house to the river and harbor committee of congress, and naturally was surprised to learn of the sudden change in the plans. Mr. Prince was disappointed as were the people generally of the turn of events with which they had nothing to do, and which shortened the time it was anticipated the congressmen would spend in Rock Island.

The congressional party was taken up the Hennepin canal yesterday afternoon to the second lock, not returning until 6. The steamers were in wait at the mouth of the canal, and the party boarded them there. Thomas E. Burton, the chairman of the committee, was impressed with the great value of the river to shipping in the cities skirting its shores, and appreciated the import of the general movement of the business interests of the Mississippi valley looking towards the securing of an adequate appropriation from congress for the permanent improvement of the river between St. Paul and St. Louis.

For 20 years there has not been a dollar asked by a congressman for the Mississippi between the points named. The river has been neglected. All the congressmen in the party realized this as they passed down the big stream. They were surprised to know that during low stage of water the river is un-navigable at certain points. This condition should not be permitted to continue in a stream of the value to commerce as the Mississippi.

SEVERAL STRINGS BLOODED HORSES HAVE ARRIVED HERE

To Start in the Running Races Opening Thursday of This Week at the Ninth Street Track.

In speaking today of the running race meet to be held at Ninth street track beginning Thursday, Col. H. V. Horton, of Washington, D. C., who is the directing head, stated it would be one of the best and largest ever held in this section of the country. Blooded horses with good records are already on the ground, the first bunch having arrived yesterday. Others will arrive up to Saturday. A carload of racers is expected this evening from St. Louis. W. H. McKelvey, of Alexis, Ill., arrived this morning with six head, and Louis Fender, of Alledo, came with four head. Fairs now on at Tipton, Iowa, Moquoketa, Ill., and Kahoka, Mo., close Friday of this week, and horses racing in these places will be shipped to this city.

Neat purses, fast horses, and jockeys of some fame, are all to be in evidence. Discipline of the best order will be maintained. The starters and judge have not been chosen yet, but they will probably be appointed tomorrow. Among the horses here are the following:

Wood & Davis, St. Louis—Tommy Foster, Nona B., Bamboo Tree and Lightnut. These horses will be ridden by Jockey Doramus.

Craven Bros., Clio, Iowa—Tinlock, War Chief, and Miss Messenger. Jockey Woolsey.

J. E. Abbott, Anamosa, Iowa—Anona B.

O. F. Hume—Soundly, Prince Red, Russianica, Little Long. Jockey E. Hudley.

Sam Johnston—Rapo, Russian, Maid, E. Jackson, Honton, Frank James, and Little Margaret. Jockey Berry.

C. A. Kell, Reynolds—Ed Raymond, Billy Raymond, Robbie R., and Mable Kell. These are harness horses.

COMPLETE CANVASS TODAY

County Fair Committee is Nearing the End of its Labors in the County. The canvass for subscriptions of stock for the proposed county fair association will be completed today in all probability. The committee this morning started through the city to call on those of the business people who had not been seen and who were considered among those desiring to be identified with the enterprise. There can be nothing done at the Ninth street grounds until after the race meeting opening Thursday is over, but in the meantime it is expected that all preliminaries will be disposed of in order to go rapidly ahead with building in order that the first fair may be held this fall.

Little Outcast Pleases. "The Little Outcast," a four-act comedy-drama, held the boards at the Illinois theatre last evening, and pleased the audience. The setting of the play is located in New York City, and depicts life in the metropolis with a strong cast of players who portray their respective roles in an admirable style. The play is clean and crisp throughout. Edward Davis as Paul Weston, and Miss Anna Blanche, as the newboy "Bob" shared the stellar honors.

You can't expect to do away with face blemishes in a week's time. Keep on taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. You'll have a lovely complexion. 35 cents, tea or tablets. T. H. Thomas' pharmacy.

Fish Bone Poisons Hand.

A fish bone lodged in her left hand for a few days resulted in a malignant form of blood poisoning to Miss Frances Edgar, of 3014 Fifth avenue. A physician extracted the bone last Saturday and Miss Edgar appeared to be recovering nicely until Sunday, when the temperature rose again and the pain returned with increased suffering, when there was another operation. The patient still is in a dangerous condition.

To Retire From Business.

The Peter Fries company, Eighteenth street and First avenue, is selling off its stock preparatory to closing its doors. The business was established in 1855 by Peter Fries. At different periods he had as partners Fred Kollerstrass and Henry Schmidt, his son-in-law. Since the death of Mr. Fries, who amassed a fortune in the liquor trade, the heirs have been in charge.
