

LOST MY POCKET BOOK

but I have found an easy way to get my money all back and more with it by doing business with this man that does just exactly as he advertises, and prides himself to have the home of the close buyer and trades more second hand goods than all the second hand dealers in the three cities put together. Just think, over 500 stoves for sale or exchange from $1.00 up. Complete Bed Springs and Mattresses from $1.50 up. Now when you want to sell your household goods or buy household goods, or get a loan on household goods or on small real estate come and see me, the man that nobody likes.

DAVENPORT DOTS

A happy event, in which a prominent Davenport merchant and a popular young lady were the principals, was the wedding Tuesday evening of Louis Silberstein and Miss Belle Bundschu. Rabbi Fineshriber performed the ceremony at the home of the bride on Perry street. The groomsmen were Martin Silberstein and the bride was given in marriage by her father, E. Bundschu. Miss Esther Silberstein led the wedding procession. The couple were married under a floral canopy on which were the letters B. and S. They will take a wedding trip later and be at home to their friends at 216 1/2 West Second street. All their friends will extend hearty congratulations.

Monday evening at Mercy hospital occurred the death of Mrs. Maria A. Whitney, aged 91 years, 9 months and 10 days. Deceased had been an invalid for years and had been an inmate of that institution since last spring.

At Monticello, Iowa, a few days ago occurred the death of John Rueger, a former resident of this city. Deceased was born in Switzerland in 1837 and came to the United States in 1858, locating at St. Louis. When the war broke out he enlisted and served until his close. He then came to Davenport, where he married Miss Mary Bucken, of this city, and later went to Monticello, where he resided until his death.

The best game of football of the early gridiron season and to all appearances the championship game of the Iowa high school teams will be played next Saturday between the Davenport high school team and the formidable aggregation from Ottumwa. At the close of last year's football season the honors were divided between these two teams and a post-season game was proposed. Ottumwa refused to play in Davenport then, but next Saturday we will see many of Ottumwa former players struggle with Davenport's fresher team. So far this fall Davenport has won every game with a large score. Saturday's game will be closer.

A reckless cyclist collided with the 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Fischer on Fourteenth and Harrison streets, knocking her to the pavement. The child suffered from bruises and a slight concussion. The name of the bicyclist could not be learned.

Judge A. J. House has granted a decree of divorce to Sophia Augusta Kelley, separating her from her husband, John A. Kelley, whom she charges with cruel and inhuman treatment. The wife was given the custody of the minor children.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Masonic Temple association for the election of seven directors was held yesterday in the office of the secretary, G. H. Koch, in the Masonic temple. The directors chosen were as follows: Louis Haller, C. E. Byschard, W. F. Eldlar, C. H. Lamp, C. T. Darling, John Soller and F. L. Bills. These directors will in turn elect their officers at the next regular meeting.

William Durley, the colored man whose brutal treatment of his wife caused her death at St. Luke's hospital as the direct result of his act, was taken to the penitentiary at Fort Madison by Deputy Sheriff Van Rowe. Durley was sentenced to three years at hard labor in the penitentiary, the county attorney having accepted a plea of guilty to a charge of manslaughter.

E. A. Ferrin, the genial promoter, who was so successful in securing right of way for the Iowa & Illinois company, and in keeping the kinks out of its affairs in their early stages in this city and Clinton, has been retired from the head of the Marshalltown Interurban company, which he organized after leaving Davenport. Mr. Ferrin has made Marshalltown his home since he left Davenport, and successfully financed a fine project there. His wife and three children came on from the east and joined him, and he was settling down as an Iowa man. But his open-handed way of spending his money and then drawing checks on the company seems to have brought him into collision with the Marshalltown people who were backing his enterprise.

Another smooth forger has operated his graft in this city and departed for parts unknown, leaving a crooked career behind him, as well as a number of creditors to mourn his departure. For some little time past a man giving his name as Vogt has been employed as a solicitor by the Guaranty Mutual Life Insurance company of this city. Several days ago he turned in an alleged application for insurance upon the life of Mr. Tenenbom, the well-known Harrison street grocer. He was allowed his commission, but later it was discovered that Mr. Tenenbom had not taken out any insurance. The man had been trading for several days at the Tenenbom grocery store and always paid cash for his purchases. Saturday night, however, he bought $2 worth of groceries and tendered in payment a check for $15 purporting to be from the Guaranty Life Insurance company and signed by its manager, Mr. Casey. The check was honored and the man given $13 in change. Now it has transpired that the check was a forgery. Vogt also collected the commission upon a bogus insurance policy which he claimed to have written in Moline.

TRAVELS ON BICYCLE BOAT

L. A. Sego Journeying From St. Paul on Peculiar Craft.

Those in Rock Island who remember the bicycle boat which Jacob Ramser owned in 1894 will be interested to know that one of these peculiar craft is again to be seen on the Mississippi here. L. A. Sego, who claims to be a trained nurse of St. Paul, is expected to arrive in Rock Island this afternoon on his way from St. Paul to St. Louis, using one of the bicycle boats as his method of transportation. He has been a little over two weeks in making the distance from St. Paul to Rock Island, it being necessary for him to stop in the towns and sell trinkets and other articles in order to pay his way. The trip, it is said, is being made to earn a wage of $500, one of the conditions being that he earn his own way while enroute, and he must receive no outside aid, except by the sale of photographs and souvenirs.

The construction of the boat is very peculiar, a pontoon of galvanized iron being equipped with a screw operated by the occupant of the boat, by means of a gearing similar to that of a bicycle. Those who remember the boat which was owned in Rock Island, say that the boat is very easy to propel, and that the method of water transportation is very pleasant. The craft which Mr. Ramser had was a tandem affair, made for two persons, and for some time it was a familiar sight on the river here. The only drawback to the boat is that in order to make its operation successful it is necessary to make use of heavy and rigid braces, which make the work of propelling the boat more difficult, though much safer and comfortable. The vibration of the screw and gearing often throw the chains off unless the frame is made very rigid. Sego will probably spend a day or two in the tri-cities.

MOLINE MENTION

Fourth ward republicans will raise their flag next week Tuesday—the evening of the 18th. The committee from the Fourth ward club having this matter in charge acted on the matter last evening, and set the date and appointed George W. Wool to have charge of the speakers, Sol Hirsch to look after the band and pyrotechnic features. A 16x22 foot flag will be floated from the corner of Sixth avenue and Nineteenth street. It has not yet been decided whether there will be a parade incidental to the speaking.

Camille Baute, a powerful Belgian, made things interesting in the "railway pike" Tuesday evening, visiting the Bismarck saloon, Bogart's place, and other liquid refreshment houses. He was in a fighting frame of mind and succeeded in smashing a number of windows. Constable Herman Milde tried to quiet him, and failing, placed him under arrest. Baute couldn't see any sense to this proceeding and took a "soak" at Milde. He was arraigned before Magistrate Olson yesterday, and after a hearing, was sent to the county jail for 30 days.

So capable has been the service and so important the work in hand on the proposed wing-dam lock that the Business Men's association Tuesday evening voted to retain for the new year the old directory which has prosecuted an active campaign during the last year in behalf of the growth and up-building of Moline. The directory includes: President, W. A. Meese; vice president, E. E. Morgan; secretary, C. F. Grant; treasurer, H. J. Gripp; auditor, M. J. McEniry. Annual reports showed that the membership is now an even 100, and that during the year $132 in dues had been collected, while other contributions made the total receipts $1,482.73, and the expenditures $1,352.88, leaving a balance on hand of $149.85.

The football schedule for the Moline high school team has been completed. The Moline Ministerial union met with Rev. W. H. Stickel at East Moline Monday afternoon. The following officers for the ensuing year were elected: President, Rev. W. M. Story; vice president, W. H. Stickel; secretary and treasurer, Rev. C. H. Burdick.

Mrs. Jane Wells, widow of the late Capt. James G. Wells, who died Sept. 3, passed away yesterday from chronic bronchitis with other complications. In Mrs. Wells' death Moline loses one of her most patriotic ladies. Not only was she a firm believer in the northern side of the civil war but followed her husband in the army as long as it was possible for her to do so. While Capt. Wells was in the army and whenever his regiment would receive orders to station itself at some point for several weeks, she would always be in the camp with her husband and kept this up until the regiment reached Tennessee, from whence she then went home to wait until the war was over. Mrs. Wells was born Jan. 4, 1851, at Blairsville, Pa., and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson. She came to Rock Island with her parents when 9 years old. She was married to Capt. Wells Sept. 14, 1851. After the war she located with her husband at Muscatine but shortly after they moved to Moline and lived here since. Like her husband, she was a strong believer in the Methodist faith and was always a good Christian. She leaves to mourn her loss three children, who are Fred B. Wells, Mrs. Ella B. Haley of Moline and Mrs. Hattie Keller of Baltimore. She also leaves two sisters, who are Mrs. D. H. H. Taylor of Rock Island, and one brother, William Thompson, of Rock Island. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Haley.

It is sure death, and gives universal satisfaction, especially as the rats and mice do not die in the house. SOLD BY T. H. THOMAS.

We Have All Had Them!

We have all, at some time in our lives, had the miserable little head lice. One naturally feels embarrassed at such a misfortune, and in many instances finds it very difficult to rid oneself of them. Children who attend school cannot well avoid them, and will sooner or later get them, unless something is done to prevent it.

Vermiso is a perfectly harmless remedy to use, but it is a positive destroyer and preventive of lice of every kind. Just one application is enough to thoroughly clear the hair of every trace of them. Vermiso is also wonderfully beneficial to the growth of the hair. A large package with directions sent by return mail, in plain wrapper, to any address upon receipt of 35c in stamps or silver.
