An English Daisy. "An English Daisy," which will be the offering at the Illinois theatre Sunday evening, is the joint work of three of our most successful English writers in the creation of successful musical shows. Seymour Hicks wrote the book, Walter Slaughter and A. M. Norden the music and rearranged for the American stage by our own Edgar Smith, the public is led to expect something beyond the ordinary. In this instance, one will not be disappointed in any particular, for the piece must be numbered among the very best efforts. The dialogue is bright and snappy, scintillating with the most graceful witty repartee, while the situations range from the supremely ridiculous to the grotesque. The lyrics have a delightful singing quality and are written in Messrs. Slaughter and Norden's most characteristic hand. The music is best described by hearing it. Words cannot do justice to the beautiful tuneful songs and choruses, whose mystic measure set both tongue and foot agoing as rearranged by Mr. Smith. A few of the specially strong bits are "I'm a Little English Daisy," "The Moon, the Moon, the Little Oortoon," "Spin Again," "Scenes in the Music Hall," "Saucy Sally," "Big In-a-Chief," "April Showers" and "Wine, Wine." They are songs that rise to your lips, thoughtlessly perhaps, yet persistently.

Cleverly Told Story. At the Illinois theatre Monday evening, "Sweet Clover," a beautiful wholesome comedy drama, will hold sway. It is a charming story of the "Charity Ball," "Caprice" and "Hazel Kirke" order. It is the first dramatic work of two clever newspaper and magazine writers, the Misses Pauline Phelps and Marion Short. They have been successful far beyond their expectation. It is a pretty story cleverly told and with the cast headed by Otis B. Thayer and Miss Gertrude Bondhill, should be an entertainment of much merit.

Old in Name; New in Novelty. Manager Yale's claim that the "Devil's Auction" is the oldest in name yet the newest in novelty, can well be substantiated in this, the 23rd edition of this famous spectacle, as everything is new from the time the curtain rises on the first act until it is rung down on the beautiful transformation scene "Amor" (Love) at the close of the performance. Every act, novelty and feature being new, all the scenery, properties, etc. In fact, not one old feature is retained and the theatre-going public of Rock Island have a treat in store for them tomorrow afternoon and evening.

When your back gives out; Becomes lame, weak or aching; When urinary troubles set in; Your kidneys are "in a bad way."

Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you. Here is local evidence to prove it:

F. J. Wivill, of 1511 Seventh avenue, carpenter, says: "I was so sore and lame across my back that I could not stoop over far enough to tie my shoes. When I was obliged to pick up anything from the floor I had to get down on my knees to avoid the sharp shooting pains through my kidneys. There was a dull, heavy pain in my back and also weakness of the kidneys, which was very annoying. I used many remedies, but I got little or no benefit until I tried Doan's Kidney Pills, obtaining them at the Harper House drug store. They effected a complete and permanent cure."
