

CANNOT REPAIR DAMAGES SUSTAINED IN A BATTLE

Therefore Russian Ships Will Not Be Harbored at Manila

UNLESS THEY DISARM

Admiral Enquist Expected to Take the Latter Course.

Washington, June 5.—Admiral Enquist will not be allowed to repair his ships at Manila. This government has decided that as the injuries to the vessels were not caused either by sea or storm they will be obliged to refuse permission for the vessels to be repaired there.

Wire Instructions.

Today Secretary Taft cabled the following instructions to Gov. Wright at Manila:

"Time cannot be given for repairs of injuries received in battle. Therefore, the vessels cannot be repaired unless interned until the end of hostilities."

Secretary Taft said if the Russian vessels agreed to leave Manila in their present condition they are welcome to do so.

May Intern Them.

Washington, June 5.—Secretary Taft today will cable Gov. Wright at Manila to inform Admiral Enquist that in strict pursuance of the international policy adopted by this government he will be allowed to intern his ships, the Aurora, Oleg and Jemtebug, at Manila.

Alternative to Put to Sea.

In case he does not adopt this course, his only alternative, after the period allowed by international law has expired, will be to put to sea. It is fully expected here Enquist will decide to intern his ships.

Togo Sends Fleet.

Washington, D. C., June 5.—The internment of the Russian cruisers which sought refuge Saturday at Manila will be the only thing which will save them from the Japanese.

Information has reached Washington that Admiral Togo has sent a superior fleet to lie off Manila bay, outside territorial waters, and attack the cruisers in case they come out. Rear Admiral Enquist, commanding the cruisers, asked permission to make repairs, coal, and provisions, which will occupy 14 days, and then he presumably will put to sea.

Naval Board Reports.

Manila, June 5.—The naval board appointed by Admiral Train to examine into the condition of the Russian warships held here reports that the Oleg will require 60 days, the Aurora 30 days, and the Jemtebug seven days to effect repairs.

Admiral Enquist has requested permission to repair here, saying he would be unable to sail except in a smooth sea on account of his vessels needing patching near the water line. The warships are so badly damaged they are forced to keep the pumps going continually.

Warships Near Shanghai.

Shanghai, June 5.—The flagship Tokiwa, under Vice Admiral Uriu, and two cruisers and two destroyers have arrived off Guttsuff Island, Hangchow bay. More cruisers are expected. Uriu came from Tsu Islands, around Formosa, looking for Russian vessels. During the battle of the Sea of Japan a shell passed through the Tokiwa's aft, but did not explode.

Non-Combatants Ordered Out.

St. Petersburg, June 5.—A dispatch received here says that all non-combatants have been ordered to leave Vladivostok. This is believed to mean that an early attack on the city is expected.

Russian Left Advanced.

Gunshu Pass, June 5.—The Russian left has been slightly advanced. Otherwise the situation is unchanged.

DIVER HELD UNDER WATER 24 HOURS

Apparatus Tangled in Pipes at Canton, Mo.—May Die From the Ordeal.

Canton, Mo., June 5.—After being imprisoned for 24 hours, loaded down by a diver's armor and under 15 feet of water, Daniel Hayes was brought to the surface at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon in an unconscious and almost dying condition.

He is a professional diver and had been employed to remove the brush and debris from the immense pipe which serves at times of low water to drain Lima lake and transfer its surplusage to the Mississippi river.

While at work Saturday afternoon Hayes was sucked under the pile of refuse and over against a boulder in a way which prevented him from loosening himself from the tangled hose which held him down. He was finally rescued by another diver brought from Burlington.

Washington, D. C., June 5.—As a part of the naval and army maneuvers 16 warships will attack the defenses of Washington and Baltimore at midnight on June 11 and continue their offensive operations for six days and nights. Meanwhile the fortresses along Chesapeake bay and the Potomac river, constituting the artillery districts of the Chesapeake, Washington, and Baltimore will put forth every defense of which they are capable.

Will Be Noiseless.

Besides being bloodless the struggle will be practically noiseless, and devoid of the spectacular, and intensely interesting only to the army and navy experts who are playing the game and know the constructive effect and the empty shells.

These exercises are to constitute the only joint operations of the army and navy during the year.

To Test Strength of Defenses.

In the present instance the object of each of the several forms of attack by the navy will be to demonstrate the strength or weakness of some particu-

BIG HALL BURNED

Skat Players in Peril at Fire in Milwaukee Convention Building.

ALL GET OUT IN TIME

Many Other Blazes Result—Platforms Fall With Crowd of Spectators.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 5.—Two fire panics in two nights, the second accompanied by the destruction of the great exposition building, have marked the congress of the North American Skat league in this city, in which over 1,600 players have participated.

Fire in Roof.

Yesterday afternoon's session of the congress was just closing, and there were 1,500 persons on the floor of the great building, when the roof of the structure was discovered to be on fire. Ten minutes later the great dome fell, and within 20 minutes from the time the fire was seen first the entire roof had fallen in.

It probably is due to the fact that the building has exits which permit it to be emptied almost instantly that scores did not perish. There were many injured in the rush for the streets. Four women fainted on the floor, but were carried out in safety.

Other Fires and Accidents.

While the building which has been Milwaukee's big show house for a quarter of a century was being destroyed, thousands of sightseers gathered on nearby streets. Four sections of a platform sidewalk gave way, precipitating scores into store cellars, but none was injured seriously enough to require hospital attendance. A hundred smaller fires were started at times by points by brands from the exposition building, the neighborhood being a residence district of wooden houses.

SETTLEMENT IS FAR AWAY

No Peace Promised in Chicago Teamsters' Strike.

MEN TO VOTE ON ISSUE

No Concession Expected and Result Will Be Further Extension.

Chicago, June 5.—Settlement of the teamsters' strike is not yet in sight. President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, is coming to Chicago again to supplement the work he did during his previous visit here.

Managers of the railway express companies will not yield and are still holding the key to the situation. The Team Owners' association continue to believe they will be permitted to make deliveries to boycotted houses.

Vote Tomorrow.

The question of permitting them to do so is to be acted on by the teamsters tomorrow night, but the vote is apt to be adverse, as it is understood the rank and file have been notified an affirmative vote will end the strike without granting any concessions to the strikers.

In event of refusal on the part of the teamsters to permit such deliveries it is intimated the team owners' association will discharge recalcitrant drivers, thus extending the strike.

Mulligan and Donahue Out.

Judge Grosscup today released on bail Mulligan and Donahue, of the Express Drivers' union, who were arrested for refusing to answer questions before the master in chancery taking testimony in the injunction proceedings. They refused on the ground they might incriminate themselves, and the judge intimated they were right in so doing in view of the investigation by the grand jury of the charge of conspiracy.

Albert Young Indicted.

An indictment against Albert Young, former president of the International Teamsters' union, was returned today by the grand jury. The charge is conspiracy to injure the business of Montgomery Ward & Co.

Shea Arrested.

Chicago, June 5.—Cornelius P. Shea, president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, was arrested late Saturday afternoon on a charge of criminal libel preferred by Robert J. Thorne, assistant general manager of Ward & Co. Shea was arrested on a capias issued by Judge Behea, of the United States district court, following the filing of the suit by Thorne, who in addition to making the charge of criminal libel asks for damages of $25,000 from Shea.

He Talked Too Much.

The suit is based on interviews given out by President Shea to newspapers and on statements he is said to have made to the effect that he had been offered $10,000 by Thorne to call a strike against Sears, Roebuck & Co., which is a large house in the same line of business of Ward & Co. Shea made the assertions against Thorne before the county grand jury in addition to making them to newspaper men, and as making them insisted, it is said, upon their accuracy.

Gives $5,000 Bonds.

Thorne denies all the alleged statements of Shea. Shea was arrested at his hotel, and later released on $5,000 bonds.

Fatally Beaten.

THREE KILLED IN OHIO HOME; CASE MYSTERY

Hillsboro, Ohio, June 5.—Madge Lyons, aged 14, Nettie Hart, aged 16 and George Baldwin, aged 18, were found shot to death in an upper room of the home of Ed Dines, a farmer, father of Madge, three miles out of the city late last night. The girls were slain with a revolver. The man's brains were blown out with a shotgun. A fourth person is suspected, but the identity of the alleged murderer and the motive are withheld.

Developments today led the authorities to believe the girls were killed by Baldwin who then blew off his head. Baldwin had been taken in as a tramp by Farmer Hines. It is supposed Baldwin attempted an assault.

FEUD IS RESUMED

Hargis-Cockrell Family War Again Breaks Out in Kentucky.

THREE DEAD, SEVERAL HURT

Battle Takes Place at Free Dinner at "Blind Tiger"—Lasts 20 Minutes.

Lexington, Ky., June 5.—In the edge of Breathitt and Morgan counties yesterday there was a renewal of the famous Hargis-Cockrell feud, in which three were killed and seven wounded.

The Dead.

Harlan Dykiss, Henry Freeman, Andrew Wilson.

The wounded: John Allen, shot in face and arms, serious; Lew Davis, shot in thigh, not serious; Letcher Davis, shot in leg, not serious; James Wilson, shot in leg, will die; three unknown.

At a Free Dinner.

The battle took place at a free dinner and fiddling contest given by Grant Reed at his "blind tiger," at which moonshine whisky was given in prizes for the best fiddler, dancer, banjo picker, etc.

Among the feudists in attendance was Harry Freeman, the man who swore out the warrants for the arrest of Judge Hargis on the charge of the Cockrell murder in order to prevent the cases being taken up by the Fayette county grand jury. Trouble started between him and one of the Wilsons, a Cockrell adherent, who lived in the neighborhood.

Andrew Wilson's enemy, Harlan Dykiss, took sides with Freeman, and soon the two factions were heavily armed and threatening open hostilities.

Battle Lasts 20 Minutes.

It is not known who fired the first shot, but for 20 minutes revolvers and rifles cracked in various directions. The bodies of Dykiss and Andrew Wilson were found within 10 feet of one another, and Henry Freeman was found crawling about on the ground and crying for help. Several of the men engaged in the shooting fled and some of them were dangerously wounded.

"NEWSPAPER ROW" AT THE LEWIS AND CLARK FAIR

Arrangements for Press in Annex to Administration Building Are Complete.

Portland, June 5.—The Lewis and Clark exposition has a "newspaper row," that name having been conferred upon the annex to the administration building which is to be used by the press. This structure, immediately at the left of the main entrance, is a long, one-story building with plenty of doors and windows. At one end there is a "L" above the entrance to which is a sign reading "Visiting Press." In this big room any visiting newspaper man, whether he comes for work or for pleasure, is invited to make his headquarters. There are desks, tables, telephones and writing material, to all of which any newspaper man is welcome.

The Associated Press occupies another room. Each of the three Portland dailies, the Morning Oregonian, the Evening Telegram and the Evening Journal, has a room of its own, in which its exposition staff will work. Each newspaper has placed an attractive sign, in facsimile of its title, over the door.

The general press bureau of the exposition also has quarters in "newspaper row," for its validating office. Those holding press admissions to the fair will present them here for validation. The working force of the general press bureau is upstairs in the administration building, occupying four rooms in the corner of that building at the point where it joins the annex. "Newspaper row" will be a highly interesting exhibit in itself during the fair, though the rooms are intended only for the workers or for actual newspaper men who may visit the exposition.

Dictatorial Powers Given to Trepoff to Quell All Disorders.

St. Petersburg, June 5, 2:10 a. m.—The Russian government has shown that it has not weakened in this hour of disaster.

Instead of yielding to the stormy demands which the radicals hoped Admiral Rojestvensky's defeat would force the government to grant, the emperor issued a ukase Sunday conferring greatly increased powers on Governor General Trepoff, making him assistant minister of the interior in place of Maj. Gen. Rydzefsky, who is made a senator, also chief of the department of police and commander of the corps of the gendarmery.

Authority of a Dictator.

This ukase, which intrusts almost dictatorial powers to the head of the imperial police to control the agitation now almost imperiously demanding a constitution, representative government and the surrender of the vital principles of the autocracy, and to put down the disorders with which the revolutionaries are threatening the country, makes him responsible to the emperor.
