

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight and Saturday, probably becoming unsettled by Saturday night; not much change in temperature.

J. M. SHERIER, Observer.

In its movement to the lake region, the storm of yesterday has caused high rain from the Mississippi valley to the Alleghenies and in the Gulf states. It has been succeeded by clear weather and rising barometers in the Missouri and Mississippi valleys, with lower temperatures from the Dakotas to Oklahoma and northern Texas.

Temperature at 7 a. m. 36; at 3:20 p. m. 45. Minimum temperature in the past 24 hours, 31; maximum, 48. Velocity of wind at 8 a. m., 11 miles an hour.

WOMAN CAN KEEP THE DOG Case Against Ruth Fairchild for Larceny Is Dismissed. Ruth Fairchild, who has been a keeper of one of Rock Island's notorious dives for some time, was dismissed by Justice G. Albert Johnson this afternoon from the charge of larceny brought against her by Frank Ford of Davenport, the woman being represented in court by John Loomis. The charge was that the defendant had Ford's dog in her possession and refused to give it up when asked for by him. The evidence consisted of conflicting statements of the two persons interested. John K. Scott prosecuted. BUSHY DAY FOR THE WAGON Cells at Police Station Are Filled With Drunks.
