DAVENPORT

May Make Cans Here.—President Belford of the American Corn Products company, otherwise known as the glucose trust, says that his company will build a can making plant in Davenport of a capacity of 80,000 cans daily. The statement is taken as indicating the intention of the glucose company to make the cans it uses at its plant here. At present it obtains them from the local plant of the American Can company, which turns out an average of 240,000 daily.

Says He Threatened to Kill.—Mrs. Theresa Hass is suing her husband, Fritz Hass, for divorce, and in her petition, which Attorney B. T. O'Neill filed in the office of County Clerk Harry McFarland yesterday, she charges him with threatening to kill her daughter by a former husband, brandishing a curtain pole over her head as the threat was made. She says he beat the daughter without the slightest provocation. She charges him with drunkenness, and asks for a divorce, alimony of $10 per week, and a restraining order to prevent him from drawing his money from the bank. They were married Aug. 2, 1900.

Nurse Falls Down Stairs.—Mrs. Meier, 513 West Thirteenth street, while nursing at the home of A. A. Westlund, 514 West Eleventh street, met with a very painful accident yesterday. At a curve in the stairway Mrs. Meier slipped and lost her balance. She fell forward and sustained a severe fracture of the right leg.

Buys Valuable Corner.—The most noteworthy real estate transaction of the past week is the sale of the Doyle-Munro drug store corner, formerly the Nadler store, at Fourth and Brady streets. It has been owned by the Pendleton estate since the days of the extensive Pendleton-Gaylord interests here, which included the Davenport Gas works and electric lighting plant of 15 to 20 years ago. Joseph Ochs is the purchaser of the corner, for $30,750, and is understood to represent out-of-town parties to whom the investment looked attractive.

Motorman Sues.—Thomas L. Stewart, the motorman whose car was crushed near the Sixth and Warren street switch March 23, has begun action against the Tri-City Railway company, asking judgment for $10,000 for personal injuries received. The action is brought through the firm of Ely & Bush. The car which Stewart was operating was run into by another car, the motorman of which was blinded by the sunlight. Stewart was caught in the vestibule and crushed, his hip being hurt and his body being badly bruised. The pain, the mental anguish, the loss of time, and medical services the injured man declares are worth $10,000.

Obituary Record.—Henry Edzards, a saloon keeper, dropped suddenly dead yesterday in his home in the flat above his place of business at 707 West Second street. Mr. Edzards rose at 5:30 o'clock, and was dressing himself when the stroke came, and he fell without warning to the floor. He expired almost immediately. A wife and an infant daughter, Leonora, aged 7 weeks, survive Mr. Edzards' death. He was born in Reepsholt, Germany, and came to America when 16 years old. He had resided in Davenport for four years, and was about 31 years of age.

Ernest M. Lamer died Thursday afternoon at 205 West Second street, from tuberculosis. He was born Nov. 17, 1880. His wife and mother were with him at the time, and are sole survivors. The body was shipped to Eldora, Iowa, for interment.

CAME HERE TO MEET THE LORD

Aledo Man Claimed He Had an Appointment—Planned Triumphal Return Home.

An aged man who says his name is Isaac Artz, and claims his home is at Aledo, came to Rock Island today as he says to keep an appointment with the Lord. He is an old man, and his one of the saddest cases of mental derangement that has developed here in some time. Apparently Mr. Artz escaped after preparations had been made to have him taken care of. According to his story, he left the home of his son late last night, and came to Reynolds, coming from there to this city by rail. This morning he declared that the Son of God had agreed to meet him at 2:30 this afternoon at the Rock Island house and would go back to Aledo with him at the head of a procession of big, white automobiles. The old man was still patiently waiting at the Rock Island house at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

NO VERDICT IN ARP SPONGE CASE

Jurors in $50,000 Damage Suit in Davenport Ask Discharge—One Holds Out.

No agreement had been reached in the Johannes Arp $50,000 damage case this afternoon. The case went to the jury yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock, and this morning the jurors asked to be discharged, stating that they were hung 11 to 1 against the three physicians who are defendants and who it is alleged left a sponge in Arp, causing his death. The amount of the damages the 11 favored was not stated. Judge Jackson sent the jury back for further consideration.

LONGEVITY.

Its Deadliest Foes Are Excitement, Hurry and Worry.

What is the secret of longevity? We answer: The surest guarantee is a genius for it, a bodily and mental predisposition to a long life. There are persons who are "prefigured unto a long duration." Those who have this gift, which is inherited from long lived ancestors, will generally reach old age, even though they trample on the laws of health, because, although they draw more largely on their vitality than careful lives, they begin life with a vast capital.

Bitten by a Spider.

Through blood poisoning caused by a spider bite, John Washington of Bosqueville, Texas, would have lost his leg, which became a mass of running sores, had he not been persuaded to try Bucklen's Arnica Salve. He writes: "The first application relieved, and four boxes healed all the sores." 25 cents; guaranteed at W. T. Hartz's druggist, 301 Twentieth street.

Caught Cold While Hunting a Burglar.

William Thomas Lanigan, provincial constable at Chapleau, Ontario, says: "I caught a severe cold while hunting a burglar in the forest swamp last fall. Hearing of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, I tried it, and after using two small bottles, I was completely cured." This remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds. It will loosen and relieve a severe cold in less time than by any other treatment and is a favorite wherever its superior excellence has become known.

MOLINE

Molders Quit Again.—Union molders who returned to work in the Moline Pump company foundry during the week walked out again Thursday night, the report being that the new agreement under which the men returned to work was not satisfactory to the Tri-City Manufacturers' association. It is understood any agreement made by a member of the association which compromises the individual contract system will not be recognized by the association, and that to effect such an agreement the member must sever relations with the association.

Souses the Officer.—Ben DeJaeger, day desk sergeant at the police station, was given a cold shower yesterday for which he had not contracted. Mrs. Ella Fell, who was detained at the station till a commission could be secured to inquire into her sanity, was handed a cup of water by the accommodating officer in response to her frantic demand for a "drink." She indignantly spurned the potion and tossed the contents of the cup over the obliging bluecoat.

MIRTH AT MEALS.

Flip In Jokes Like These Between Each Mouthful.

A doctor says, "Don't allow a meal to pass without a joke between each mouthful." This will enhance the value of humor to a great degree. Dinner will move along something like this: Mouthful of soup—screams of mirth, flakes of laughter and breadcrumbs pervading the air. Mouthful of roast duck reminds domestic humorist of something.

"Do you know why a duck goes into the water?" Long silence and more extensive eating. Domestic humorist answers it himself as follows:

"For divers reasons." More bread, vegetables and general good feeling.

"Why does he come out?" No answer and no sound but that of an old joke under the table cracking its knuckles.

"To liquidate his bill." Yells of laughter, screams of delight and astonishing feats of digestion promoted by mirth.

"And why does he again come out?" More thought and mastication;

then the gastric jester says, "To make a little run on the bank," and amid a great shower of vest buttons and mirth

the genial, all round tonic humorist and joy promoter goes on.—Pearson's Weekly.

The Best Dressed Man.

Of course the best dressed man in the world is the English gentleman. If you enter the royal enclosure at Newmarket or visit the lawn at Goodwood on the day of a classic race; if you attend a fashionable orchid or horse show when some great personage presides, you will hardly see any one dressed otherwise than perfectly. But take the hurrying passengers in the city, on the street cars, trains or buses, go freely among the men in the street, and you will share the conviction I have arrived at—namely, that the American is in general dressed more stylishly and in better fitting and better cut clothes.—C. M. S. in Derrick's Trade Report.

Mme. de Staél's Reply.

Mme. de Staél is responsible for a contribution to the woman suffrage question which may interest those who have done and suffered for the cause.

"I have no taste," said Napoleon in talking to her, "for women who meddle with politics."

"You may perhaps be right," replied Mme. de Staél, "but since people have taken the freedom to cut off their heads on account of politics they ought at least to be allowed to understand why."—Westminster Gazette.

The Blue Jay.

There is a belief current among the negroes in the south that the blue jay visits the infernal regions every Friday. This belief varies somewhat in different parts of the south. For instance, in South Carolina it is supposed to be carrying sticks for the devil's fires, while in Mississippi and Louisiana the bird is supposed to report to his satanic majesty the status of his affairs on earth.—New York Tribune.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspaper is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need.

It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble.

When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Home of Swamp-Root sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Issue is Publicity.—Two tickets are being voted on in the school election today. These are: Regular ticket, A. M. Beal, president; John Swanson, A. M. Minteer, G. A. Carlson, Mrs. H. D. Browning. Publicity ticket, A. M. Beal, president; John Swanson, G. H. McKinley, Jr., A. E. Foyd, Mrs. H. D. Browning. The only issue presented is that of proposing more publicity in publishing the proceedings of the school board. It is desired that the minutes be given more in detail, and while the board has no authority to appropriate money for this purpose, the publicity ticket favors the devising of some plan for detailing the board proceedings in the newspapers.

Eiks May Send Delegation.—An effort is to be made by the Moline Lodge of Elks to send a representative delegation to the grand lodge convention in Philadelphia next July. The proposition came up for a lengthy discussion at the regular meeting Thursday evening and all present were favorably impressed with the idea.

Elks Lodge Quarantined.—Dorothy, the 3½-months-old daughter of Officer Anderson and wife of East Moline, is confined at home with scarlet fever. The house was quarantined yesterday, and Ted will not be permitted to visit his home for some time. Mrs. Anderson's mother is with her and will assist in taking care of the little one. Mrs. Anderson's other three children are also quarantined in the
