GAMES MONDAY.

Senatorial dignity was spilled again yesterday at the Island City park. There were great gobs of it lying about the green after the fracas. Being volatile most of it evaporated but Billy Neal managed to put a little in a bottle to keep on his curio shelf. When the matinee closed the Hon. William Ludwig, Hon. J. Ruby, Hon. Richard Smith and Hon. Roscoe Thornton were visibly tamed, though still nursing a desire for revenge, and it was plain that if they don't get it here they will seek to hereafter.

Some contested that the Davenport hoodoo, which is said to be still lurking about across the river, had planted its insidious germ under the hide of one or more of Kinsella's gladiators while they slept in a Davenport hotel, but to the average observer it was a plain case of Neal and the whitewash brush. Even had the young hoodoo incubated successfully they could not have got out through two coats of time as thick as the Senators are wearing.

Fox Is Good Natured About It.

The only one who took the drubbing in good part was the Hon. Mr. Fox, master of the mound, who pitched a very good game, except once. Evidence of bad humor which came to the surface consisted in a refusal to give Berger a runner, though he is badly crippled, an unnecessary jab from Ruby's spikes which Tighe sustained when the runner was thrown out on a grounder, and a general tendency to beef. Berger got beautifully even by stealing second and making one of Rock Island's runs.

The visitors were not found wanting when there were any circus stunts to pull off. Once Scharnweber speared a warm grounder Neal pounded over second when there were two on base and retired the side without a run. At another time Hughes raced back and another Texas leaguer from Cook's, but when there were two out and a man coming home, Novacek robbed a team of a three-bagger that would probably have done some business had it gotten away.

Rock Island also came to the scerata beautifully in all emergencies.

Gets Out of Corners.

But the chief feature was the manner in which Neal got out of several corners. In the third Thornton made a three-bagger after two were out and it was necessary to grind Ruby into the dust to save the day. In the sixth Herbert and Smith hit. Novacek and Hughes up next the outlook was not reassuring. However, both were made to weakly pop out and then Neal whiffed Scharnweber. In the fourth the infield got busy and preserved the bacon after nearly throwing it away. Herbert was out, but Smith hit. Novacek rapped into what seemed a sure double play. Berger tossed the ball for second but Wanner was not there. The sphere hit Smith and rolled away while the runner took third. White Hughes was up Novacek started to steal but O'Leary whipped the ball down and he was chased back. Smith attempted to come in, and then started back. Wanner headed him off at third and he cut for home, only to find the ball waiting in O'Leary's hands when he arrived.

Missed Some Chances.

Rock Island had several opportunities to tally before one was realized upon. In the second Berger hit and a pass to Dowers put two on with two out. Neal's hot grounder to Scharnweber retired the side. In the fourth Tighe walked, Berger forced him and then made amends by stealing. Here Hughes turned out the light by nailing Cook's low fly that went far back of his station.

The thing was done in the seventh when Berger rapped out a neat single and Cook offered himself on the sacrifice. All Dowers broke one over Scharnweber's head and Berger beat Ruby's wide throw to the plate. Dowers going to second station. Neal was out but Swain produced his hit as this juncture and Dowers tallied. Wanner's roller retired the side. Score:

Diamond Dust.

Jack Wilkinson injured in major league style yesterday.

The Davenport contingent picked Tighe out as a target. Sour grapes. The outfield had little opportunity to shine yesterday but the infield worked with clockwork regularity.

All the Islanders kept cool and agitated strictly to their knitting. That's the way to win games.

Again Cook was in the batting bee that broke up the game. His perfect sacrifice had something to with the scoring.

The roofers were there again yesterday reinforced by nearly every lady fan in town, for it was ladies' day.

Rock Islanders Win Consolation, Directors' Team and Low Score Prizes

IN BIG GOLF TOURNAMENT

Legg and Abbott Playing Magnificent Game in Finals for Transmississippi Championship.

Rock Island players landed three prizes in the Transmississippi golf tournament matches which closed this morning. Ardo Mitchell won the consolation prize and the low score prize, while W. B. Mixer captured the director's prize. These, and the fact that Ardo has made the best all-around showing of any player, indicate that he would have won the championship if a technicality had not deprived him of it, together with the winning of the team match by the Rock Islanders yesterday shows that the calibre of local talent is equal to any in the west.

The tournament closes this afternoon with the last round of the finals for the championship between H. G. Legg of Minneapolis and Sprague Abbott of Omaha. Denver is the only bidder so far for next year's tournament, the location of which is left to the officers of the association.

In the consolation class this morning Ardo Mitchell defeated Decker French of Davenport 5 up 4 to play. W. B. Mixer defeated E. P. Gates of Minneapolis in the director's class 4 up 1. Mixer made the last hole in 2, rolling down a long approach. The match was close throughout. In the secretary's class J. W. Hill, Jr., of Omaha defeated J. C. Fennel of Kansas City 2 up and 1 to play after being 4 down at the end of nine holes.

One of the Best Ever Played.

NEARLY SAME TEAM
WE HAD LAST YEARH. E. Casteel Attributes the Difference
Mainly to the Manner in Which Men are Managed.

"One of the most significant phases of the baseball situation as I see it," said H. E. Casteel to an Argus representative today, "is the fact that we are now playing practically the same team we had last year at this time. The only great change is in the management and yet look at the difference in standing. Tighe is a manager who never loses courage and who fights every inch of the route. He understands the essentials of generalship on the ball field and I attribute the contrast in standing this year and last largely to his superior management and his training and control of his men. He has a faculty of putting ginger not only into his own playing but into that of every individual on the team. The present series of games at home has shown the value of his own presence in the game. He plays hard himself and naturally it reacts with the others to follow his example."

Even the tin "rooters" were working. Neal saved the corners off the plate yesterday. Seidman did he lay one down the groove where it would make an easy target. His control was nearly perfect.

Ruby was sore as usual yesterday afternoon and used some inelegant language. He tried to step on Tighe at first, and because the manager got out of the way it made Jess real mad.

has reinstated Catcher Ludwig so that he can get into the game at Rock Island. Springfield is desirous of taking more than half of the games with the Tigers and needed Ludwig in the game, so made a penitent plea to the league president. A fine of $5 was given and the man ordered back into the game.

Tomorrow promises to set a new mark for attendance in Rock Island. Interest in the Springfield series is at fever heat and Moline, Davenport, and the surrounding country have caught the fever.

Bloomington Pantagraph.—The double defeat of Springfield by Rock Island created no surprise among the Bloomington fans who saw the Senators play here this week. Bloomington should have had them but for a little hard luck in various directions, principally the umpiring.

CROSS COUNTRIES AT ORION

Crack Rock Island Amateurs Go Against Hard Proposition.

The Cross Country ball team left this afternoon for Orion, where they are scheduled to play this afternoon. Orion is said to have one of the fastest independent teams in this part of the state. The batteries for the Orion team will be Anderson and O'Leary. Anderson is counted the crack pitcher of Henry county, and O'Leary is a brother of Danzig O'Leary, the Islander catcher, and is said to be a coming leaguer. The battery for the Cross Countries will be Anderson and Mitchell. Tomorrow afternoon the team is scheduled to meet the Moline West Ends at Athletic park, Moline.

MR. CHAS. STAILEY, Warrensburg, Mo., says: "I suffered for years with indigestion and stomach trouble and tried many remedies without benefit. Your Bitters, however, cured me in a short time. I cheerfully recommend it."

MRS. L. GOLDBACH, Chicago, Ill., says: "I suffered terribly from Cramps, Headache, and other stomach troubles and doctored a long time without relief. I commenced taking your Bitters and I am entirely cured. I cannot praise it enough."
