THE ARGUS.

Published Daily and Weekly at 1624 selves to be in war. Second avenue, Rock Island, Ill. [Entered at the postoffice as second-class matter.1

By THE J. W. POTTER CO.

TERMS - Daily, 10 cents per week. Weekly, $1 per year in advance.

All communications of argumentative character, political or religious, must have real name attached for publication. No such articles will be printed over fictitious signatures. Correspondence solicited from every township in Rock Island county.

Mondey, December 16, 1907.

DO IT NOW.

The delay of the Christmas shopheavy strain on the nerves and strength of the young girl clerks and other employes of the storeshow great a strain is little realized by those who gather around the glittering Christmas trees.

That this condition may be changed is the ardent wish of every charitably inclined person. It can be changed by the buyers of Christmas presents doing their shopping

They will not only benefit the clerks and employes of stores by so doing, but will also grently benefit themselves by avoiding buying in a hurry and getting the pick of the holiday goods.

The Argus' advice to Christmas shoppers is to do it now.

Just so no one wishes Bob Evans care of yourself.

The biggest failure thus far is the Jamestown exposition

Don't wait until bye and bye but de your Christmas buying now.

After reading the president's latest Wall street is trying to be happy.

Here's to the big fleet. May it send back good tidings, whate're betide.

This will be a busy week in mercantile lines. The clerks as well as the Christmas shoppers will have their hands full.

Now that the president has made his final grandstand play in personally sending off the big fleet, the public will anxiousla await news of his next

While all this fulsome praise is going around about those people who aided in checking the panic, why not say a word for the man who had both Superior, Wis., grain elevator the courage and the sense to leave his money in the bank?

When Kansas City has a blue Sunday, a red light district and a great white way, all at one time, it does look as though the patriots might have located the convention there, be cause of her patriotic colors,

American Fleet From English Viewpoint.

Archibald S. Hurd in Cassier's Magazine says: The United States navy has not only attained the position of the second sea power of the world, as judged by statistical methods, but it has reached a high standard of efficiency, as is shown by the gunnery records. It is one thing for a nation to possess a number of ships of vari authorities that they have always recwar. Consequently, the ships of the port, United States navy represent actual fighting power and are not inert masses of material, which can be translated into terms of war only after months of delay-even provided the enemy gives sufficient opportunity to put a war edge on the tools which have been provided at so much cost. The ships of the United States stand for real sea power, a form of sea power which is characteristic of the republic, energetic, thoroughly alive and resourceful. It has not the same rule of thumb disciplinary veneer as is to be found for instance in the German navy, but about the whole fighting machine there is an assurance that on the day of battle it will give a good account of itself.

The ships, in fact, are ships of war, and in examining the standing of the navy in vessels of various types, no European fleets whose men-of-war appear more formidable on paper than they will, or can, even show them-

An Optimistic Club.

The city of Aurora is nothing if not original and progressive. The latest thing developed there in a social way is the "Optimistic Club," with a large and rapidly increasing membership. Its basic tenets are as follows:

"There are more people dying for he lack of a kind word than from "A smile is potential, magnetic and ispels trouble.

"The man who never makes any mistakes never makes anything; else. "Hard luck stores are the overdue

"Before money was invented some cople were happy. "Nobody can really harm you

"A smile is God's own medicine. "In the realm of birds the lark is he optimist, the crow is the pessimist. Why be a crow? "Clearing house certificates and ight financial conditions have afforded That makes me your guardian, moralmore people who never had a dollar anything that has happened since the civil war. "The optimism of the optimist detroys the last hope of the pessimist; "A grin is a counterfeit smile and heart stamp is not on it. "Any one is eligible to join who will agree to smile every time he sees trouble ahead from now until the close of life.

"Dues are payable in scrip. "Step in and join now. Don't

November Fire Loss

having one, and Canada for the month of November, as compiled by the New York Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin from carefully kept records, Farewell Admiral Bob. Take good $3,000,000 more than the sum chargeable against the same month of the preceding year. The following table 1906:

o	Jan.$ Feb.	16,378,100 25,591,000	$ 17,723,600 18,249,350	$ 24,064,000 19,876,600
	Mch	14.751.400	18,727,750	20,559,700
	Apr	12,736,250	292,501.150 16,512,850	16,286,300
d	June	11,789,800	13,950,650	14.765,000,
8	July Aug.	13,175,250	9,641,600	18,240,1501
	Sept.	14,715,250	10,852,550	11,449,400
	Oct.	12,267,000	13,872,450	13,350,250
đ.	TT -	16,178,200	10,245,000	19,122,200
	11 m $ Dec.	159,919,200 15,276,600	$440,708,550 19,001,450	$199,887,500

Read The Argus advertising columns Tls $175,195,800 $459,710,000 before starting out on your holiday During November there were no less purchasing expedition. It will pay than 330 fires where the loss reached or exceeded $10,000. For comparison we give the following classification as to destructiveness:

20,000 to 30,000 to 50,000 to 75,000 to 30,000 50,000 75,000 100,000 00,000 and over ...

November from an insurance loss standpoint were these: Brockton, N. Y., wine cellars. . $ 250,000

Louisville, Ky., stock yards Muncie, Ind., wholesale gro-Harrisburg, Pa., meat packing plant Salt Lake City, Utah, storage building and other Peoria, Ill., business block...

Los Angeles, Cal., ice and cold In view of the heavy fire loss of the year, fire insurance companies are no expecting remarkably favorable, bal ance sheets at the close of the present year; still we presume they can and will make the usual dividends to then stockholders from their surplus accumulated in former years,

Rheumatism Cured in 24 Hours. T. J. Blackmore of Haller & Black more, Pittsburg, Pa., says: "A short time since I procured a bottle of Dr Detchon's Relief for Rheumatism. ous classes which look impressive got me out of the house in 24 hours. when set out in an official statement I took to my bed with rheumatism of strength, and it is quite another nine months ago and Dr. Detchon's for it to spend large sums on pay for Relief for Rheumatism is the only officers and men, coal and stores of medicine that did me any good. all kinds to enable those ships to keep had five of the best physicians in the the seas and thus enable the person-city, but I received very little relief nel to become proficient by continua! from them. I know Dr. Detchon's Redrill in the essential war duties. It lief for Rheumatism to be what it is is one of the virtues of the American represented and take pleasure in recommending it to other poor sufferers." ognized the supreme importance of Sold by Otto Grotjan, 1501 Second expenditure upon the fleets at sea avenue, Rock Island; Gust Schlegel which are the training centers for & Son, 20 West Second street, Daven-

> Take DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. They are for weak back, inflammation of the bladder, backache, and weak kidneys. Sold by all drug-

The Argus Daily Short Story

"Millie's Strategy."-By W. Crawford Sherlock. (Copyright, 1907, by P. C. Eastment.)

not to come here any more." Mrs. Thompson purred rather than spoke the words, but her keen black eyes were fixed intently upon her niece as if expecting the news would provoke a storm. She was not mistaken.

"What do you mean, Aunt Hetty?" child and can see no reason why you should object to his visits if I don't."

"You forget yourself, Millie," returned Mrs. Thompson in the same soft Heity and not wait five years either. purring tone. "I am your aunt, your father's sister, and he requested in his will that you should make your home with me until you are either married or have reached the age of twenty-five. an excuse for their hard luck than duty to break up your intimacy with Mr. Mitchell."

permit him to call here time and again after we met? Why did you wait undoes not pass current because tite ill we are engaged to be married before you offered any objections to his visiting me?"

Millie had arisen and faced Mrs. Thompson. Her voice was calm, but incisive, and each question was emphasized by a sharp rap on the ebony table beside her.

"I am not compelled to answer such There is room in every community questions, Millie Gray, especially when for such an organization and every asked so disrespectfully." purred Mrs. community would be the better for Thompson, "but I will do so. I hought Mr. Mitchell was a very esimable young man when you first et him. This impression remained The fire loss of the United States with me until lately, when I have had her in his arms. "Here's the Rev. Mr. segson to believe him otherwise."

What is your reason?" demanded the girl sharply. "If any one has maligued Jack, I have the right to know, so may give him the opportunity to shows a total of $19,122,200, or nearly defend himself. What have you heard about him. I wish to know."

"Tedecline to tell you," replied Mrs. Thompson. Her voice was still soft gives a comparison by months of the and low, but her thin fingers twitched losses this year with those of 1905 and nervously as if she was imbued with a strong desire to scratch the girl so bolding confronting her. "Mr. Mitchell shall, not come here again. That is all I have to say. Of course, as you are of age I cannot prevent you from meeting him clandestinely, but so far as my bwn home is concerned I shall endeavor to do my duty." The suggestiveness of her aunt's words przzied Miliie, but their purport became dearer to her as she reflected. "I think I understand it all now, father, who hated the very mention of marriages, provided that 1 must be married at your home if I am married before I am twenty-five. If I am married anywhere else, one-half of my fortune will go to you. My father made this strange provision, be-lieving it would prevent me from eloping with any one before I had reached years of discretion. You introduced The more important fires during me to Jack Michell and encouraged him to come to see me. Now when we are almost ready to be married you trump up some objection to him in the hope that I will rull away and get married, thus allowing you to become possessed of half my fortune. Aunt Hetty, I have never loved you, but I did not think you were capable of such a scheme." "Believe what you please," retorted Mrs. Thompson, purring no longer, but speaking harshly and discordantly. "Mr. Mitchell shall not come here again. You may do as you please." "I am going to marry Jack Mitchell." replied Millie quietly, "and I shall be married in your home. That is all I have to say." And, turning, the girl walked to her own room, leaving her aunt to reflect over the last words.

Bolting her door to guard against any intrusion, Millie reflected, over the situation. She was now twenty, and by waiting five years until she came into possession of her fortune it would be possible to prevent Mrs. Thompson from obtaining any of the property. but the girl's mind revolted at the dea of waiting so long. She had known Jack Mitchell for two years and been engaged to him six months. Pive genrs seemed a lifetime, and she die missed all thought of such a plan. Aunt Hetty should not profit by her marriage to Jack-upon that at least Mille was resolved-but how could she to the New York American. She is possibly be married in her aunt's home? Aunt Hetty, having been discovered in her scheme to secure a part of the fortune, would spare no effort to prevent her niece's marriage in her home, and Aunt Hetty, small of stature and not overly strong, usually accomplished what she started out to do.

"What a jolly row there would be if Jack and the minister would come here and try to go ahead with the ceremony," laughed Millie as the ludicrous side of such a possibility appealed to her sense of humor. "I can imagine Aunt Hetty taking Jack by the coat collar and putting him out, despite his six feet of length and 200 pounds weight. Annt Hetty would do it somehow, so I must be married here without her knowledge, but how is that to be done?" There seemed no way to solve the problem, and Millie arose to take a walk, thinking the fresh air might bring some relief to her troubled mind. As she stood before the mirror arrang-Ing her hat she noticed the reflection of men moving about the adjoining house, and she turned to investigate. Men were taking up the carpet and

"Millie, I have requested Mr. Mitchell , opposite bers, while others were on the floor below, similarly engaged. Could it be possible that the Jacksons were going to move? If they were the adjoining house would probably be for rent, and- Millie raised her window quickly and reached out her hand. It almost touched the window of the adjoining house. The houses were joindemanded Millie, her blue eyes flash- ed together in front, but in the rear ing and her voice quivering with a small space less than three feet anger. "Why should you tell Jack not wide separated them to admit light to call upon me again? I am not a and air. A solution of the problem flashed across the girl's mind as she lowered and fastened the window. It might be possible to frustrate Aunt

During the next week Millie spent much of the time at home. Aunt Hetty, always on the alert, viewed this unusual proceeding with suspicion and remained indoors herself to guard against any possible invasion by Jack ly if not legally, and I deem it my Mitchell. Instructions were issued to the servant to admit no one, and Mrs. Thompson felt confident of being able "Why did you not object to Jack to frustrate any attempt on Millie's when I first met him? Why did you part to marry according to the provision of her father's will.

Millie smiled complacently, but said nothing, as she noted her aunt's actions. Things were progressing finely, and at last the plan was ready for execution.

Locking and bolting her door, she pent two hours in putting on her pretliest gown. When this task was completed to her satisfaction she raised the curtain and opened the window.

A moment later Jack Mitchell's handsome face peered out of the window of the adjoining house.

"All ready, Millie?" he asked, restraining a strong desire to spring across the intervening space and take Walker, an old friend of mine, and two witnesses, Bert Latimer and Frank Long. We are all ready if you are."

Millie nodded, and the minister directed them to join hands across the space of separation. The marriage service was read in slow, measured tones, and they were pronounced man and wife. Jack would have come over to join his wife, but she preyented

"No, no, Jack; this is Aunt Hetty's house, and she has forbidden you to come here. Just wait for me at the

Mrs. Thompson, listening, as was her wont, at the keyhole, had heard the sound of voices and feit that something was wrong. Vigorously and viciously she had pounded on the door of Millie's room, demanding admittance during the ceremony, but the Rev. Mr. Walker, previously apprised Aunt Heity," she said slowly and of the situation, had not heeded the scornfulled "You have deliberately interruption. As Millie unfastened the planned wals thing, knowing that my door Mrs. Thompson's appry face contoor Mrs. Thompson's angry face confronted her.

"Who is in your room, Millie?" demanded the aunt, glancing around in quest of the intruder. She found no one in the room, but caught sight of Jack's face across the way. The bridegroom had waited to see what developed when the door was unfastened.

"What is that man doing in the Jackson house?" continued Mrs. Thompson angrily. "I shall request Mrs. Jackson to forbid him coming there." Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Thompson were excellent neighbors, and the threat seemed sufficient to prevent any further visitations of Jack Mitchell to the adjoining house. "Mrs. Jackson has moved. Aunt Hetty," said Millie calmly. "But you have been so busy watching me that you failed to notice it. I, or, rather, we, have taken the house."

"We! What do you mean?" inquired Mrs. Thompson excitedly. "I have nothing to do with that house." "I mean Jack and myself, aunt, We have just been married. I stood in my room and Jack stood in the room of the house next door. I was married in your home and have complied with the condition of my father's will. Goodby, Aunt Helty. Come over and see us. We will be at home on Tuesdays of next month."

But Mrs. Thompson was too much discomfited by the defeat of her well laid plan to make a reply.

CHICAGO'S POLICEWOMAN.

Kindness and Lace Handkerchief Miss Dorothy Stewart's Only Weapons.

Chicago's first and only policewoman was on duty the other day at the Auditorium theater, says a Chicago dispatch Hiss Dorothy Stewart, whose motto is, * kind word does more than a club; patience does what handcuffs can't." in blue jacket and helmet and gold wearing a star, Miss Stewart patrols the Jobby and fover of the theater, protecting women and children. She Is only twenty-two years old, sweet faced and equally sweet tempered, but fully equipped with official determina-

"I think it is a grand position for a woman," said Miss Stewart, "and as for the costime-well, it's just too dear for anything. Honestly, now, don't you think it very becoming?

"My only weapon is a lace handkerchief. I don't carry any club," she laughed, holding out her hands. "My

As last as she could get to them and soother them with her lay.

"School Days" and "I Love You," And he lies quite contented there the tuneful hours through. me that it is easy to handle women and children at the ticket office and deaf and domb.

throughout the theater simply by kind
James J. Montague in New York Amerness. Women, you know, don't like to stand in line before a box office, and this often angers a policeman. Some moving the furniture out of the room | roughly than they think! That just! Husband-Peace.

Hang Up the Baby's Stocking! Be Sure You Don't Forget!

Gladden the wee ones' little hearts. They don't understand about this lack of money. Plenty of time for them to find out about that. Maybe there is more than one of them. Don't forget the wife, either. Make it "A Merry Christmas" for all. Why shouldn't you?

The money-that's easy. See us. We'll loan it to you. We make it easy to borrow and easy to repay us, too. Get what you need now-repay us a small sum that you know you can easily meet each month-that's our proposition.

We take a lien on your furniture, plano, horses, wagons, and other personal property, to secure us, but the property is not removed or disturbed in any way.

Everything confidential. Low rates, easy terms, long time, and a square deal from start to finish. Can you ask more? Call, write or phone us today,

FIDELITY LOAN CO.,

MITCHELL & LYNDE BLOCK, ROOM 38, ROCK ISLAND.

Office hours, 8 a. m. to 6 p. m., and Saturday evenings. Telephone west 514; new telephone 6011.

makes matters worse. But a kind word has the proper effect in every case.

"Here, of course, we are not troubled by flirts, but, then, should one by any chance appear he would find me after him in a jiffy. It wouldn't take me long to hustle him out, I assure you."

This latest acquisition to Chicago's force of peace guardians has thrown an air of mystery about herself. It is said she is the daughter of well known parents, that she is a Chicago girl and has done some private investigating at times, although she never met a real, proved. sure enough habitual lawbreaker in

VOICE OCTAVE ABOVE PATTI'S tory filed and approved. Certificate

by Her Singing.

Striking with ease and sustaining the high F which Adelina Patti merely by a succession of trills, then ascend- will filed. A. H. Kohler sworn and ing purely and sweetly to the F one examined touching heirship. Final reoctave above Patti's and to the G port approved as no notice appears above it. Vilma Schaefer, nineteen necessary. Executor discharged. years old, of Oshkosh, Wis., is creat. Estate of Isabella Kelly. It appears ing a sensation in musical circles, says that no lawful hearing has been had a Milwaukee (Wis.) correspondent of on the claim of Bertha Kelley. Hearthe Spokane Spokesman-Review.

Her remarkable voice, with its range of five full octaves, has astonished Milwaukee musicians, who have refused to believe the claims made for it until they have heard her run the record breaking vocal scale which Moline. $2,300, stops five notes from the end of the piano's keyboard. This voice has been under cultivation only a few weeks.

An Antifog Plan For London.

M. Maggiora, who purposes to abolish fog and has submitted his explosive scheme to the London county council, seems to have no doubt of the efficacy of his method-the shooting of strong and searching currents of air out of section 36-18-2w. $1. huge cannon or projectors, says the London Globe. Eight or ten of these weapons would, he says, be needed as a permanent antifog apparatus for London. "Twenty explosives, costing sevenpence each, will dissipate any fog in twenty minutes," he says.

Belinda's Patients.

[A Washington doctor has all his hospital nurses treat their patients by sing-

Belinda was a gentle nurse who wore frock of blue And labored long and lovingly to pull her patients through, But some were peevish and perverse, and, though she tried and tried To heal them, just to spite their nurse the ingrates went and died. And so she brooded night and day upon her grievous wrongs

ently was laid.

Until she heard a doctor say, "Why don't you cure with songs?

Belinda's soul then knew content. She jettisoned her woe. And everywhere Belinda went a song was Beside the bed, where parting life appar-

She warbled softly. "Get a Wife!" and, trembling and afraid,
The patient suddenly upont and, picking up his grip.
Departed through the window at a Lusie bruided blue skirt, white gloves and Belinda next tried timidly the "Merry Widow" waltz Upon a man whose bones were full of fissures, flaws and faults Resulting from a fracas with an elevated train, From which, a badly broken man, the pulled him forth again. When first the languorous notes he heard · he wore a puzzled air. Then blinked, then, late fury stirred, he went away from there

Belinda has one patient now; the others fled away

As fast as she could get to them and brief experience has already satisfied She's sung him all the latest hits, and that is going some, But he appears to like them all, for he i deaf and domb.

Wife-Yes, it was I who brought all hot headed ones are lable to take a the money into this household. What woman by the arm perhaps more did you have before I married you?

RECORD OF COURT HOUSE

COUNTY COURT. Judge R. W. Olmsted presiding. PROBATE.

Estate of Peter Tindall, Waiver. In reclaim of John Kipping and Thomas and Margaret Quilty, appeal bonds of said John Kipping and of said Thomas and Margaret Quilty filed and ap-

Estate of Edward G. Tindall. Invenory filed and approved.

Estate of John A. Hanson, Invenof publication of notice to creditors Wisconsin Girl Astonishes Musicians on file of the date of Dec. 15, 1906. Proof of posting notices to creditors filed, Final report filed, Receipt and waiver of notice by Christina Hanson, touched for a second after reaching it widow, of all property in estate under ing on same set for Dec. 18, 1907, at 2 o'clock p. m.

Real Estate Transfers.

Charles A. Wahlgren to Freda Nelson, lot 9, block 1, Frick's addition to Jane S. Cable to Frank E. Robbins lot 11, Allen & Fleming's addition South Rock Island. $275.

Edward Van Hecke to Theophiel Herpelynch, lot 7, block 1, Blackman's addition, Moline, $1,225.

Adair Pleasants to Sophia Reger-

Erika Wahlgren to Freda Nelson, lot your food distresses you, your kidneys 9, block 1, Frick's addition, Moline, $1

LARSON & LARSON Grocers

Corner Seventh Avenue and Fifteenth Street, Rock Island. Old Phone 741-L. New Phone

If you spend a dollar here you have the satisfaction of knowing you get your money's worth. A trial will convince you.

"A PENNY SAVED IS A PEN-NY EARNED."

Trade with us, and you will save dollars by sharing in our dividend plan, and you will earn satisfaction in the quality of our

The dividend plan is as fol-

With every cash purchase we will give the customer a receipt issued by our new National Cash Register showing the amount of the purchase. Return $10 worth of cash receipts and get 25 cents in trade or cash free.

Yours truly,

LARSON & LARSON

You know as well as any one when you need something to regulate your system. If your bowels are sluggish, pain, take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. It always relieves. 35 cents, berg, lot 54, part southeast quarter tea or tablete. Harper House phar-

When it comes to the Choice of a PIANO Temember leaves no reason for dispute or difference of opinion.

It is so well known that

THE MERE NAME CONVEYS

all that is best in workmanship, finish and tonal capacity.

The infinitely careful attention to minutest details makes the Knabe

WORLD'S BEST PIANO

Totten's Music House SOLE AGENTS, 1726-28 SECOND AV ENUE,

ROCK ISLAND, ILL.