KNOCKS OUT IMPROVEMENT

East Moline Case is Dismissed by Judge in County Court.

Judge R. W. Olmsted yesterday sustained legal objections to the petition for certain sidewalk improvement in East Moline. The principal grounds raised in objection to the work were that the ordinance did not establish a grade or refer to a grade already established, and that proper notice was not given to property owners within 10 days after the adoption of the ordinance.

DOES NOT PASS ON REPORT

Judge Gest Withholds Decision in the Koester Suit.

Judge Gest has taken under advisement the exceptions of John Looney to the master's report in the foreclosure suit of G. A. Koester. The court has directed the attorneys—Looney for himself and Searle & Marshall and J. L. Haas for the complainant—to file briefs of their arguments. The court today is hearing a demurrer in the case of John Hedberg against the Moline Stone company.

"His Father's Business"

Mr. Bobby Burnit inherits from his father a big retail business, but not, unfortunately, the early rising habit.

Bobby is game, but inexperienced. As the first step of going into business he telephones his tailor and orders two or three nice business suits.

Very extraordinary are the little gray envelopes which Bobby's father prepared before he died. They jar Bobby, and they will amuse you.

This series is by George Randolph Chester, and begins in this week's issue of THE SATURDAY EVENING POST, now on sale.

At the News-stands, 5 cents. $1.50 the year by mail. THE CURTIS PUBLISHING COMPANY PHILADELPHIA Our Boys Are Everywhere

FARMERS REPORT SEEING A FLOATER

Make Discovery of Growsome Object While Crossing Bridge at Muscatine Early Last Evening.

Three farmers who were crossing the bridge at Muscatine yesterday evening report seeing a growsome sight—the body of a man floating down the river. The waves were rolling it over and the face was often turned directly toward them. They hastened to inform the police, but darkness interfered with the search conducted by the latter and the floater could not be found. The authorities in the cities lower down on the river were notified to be on the look out and it is expected that one of them will recover it. There is no clue as to the identity of the floater but as there are several people reported as missing along the river north of here it will probably be identified when it is taken out of the water.

Finds an Argus Extra. C. L. Beardsley, while rummaging in some old papers, discovered an Argus extra issued July 4, 1881. It is but three columns wide and eight inches long and is entirely devoted to the condition of President Garfield who was then on his death bed following his assassination by Galtuso.

England's Navy the Best. England not only possesses the biggest and most powerful warships, but also has afloat the fastest fleet of destroyers in the world. They also make the claim that they are more nearly ready for war than any other nation. The claim that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a wonderful remedy for ailments of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels is clearly proven by its record of cures made during the past 54 years, but it will be more clearly proven to you, individually, if you will only try one bottle as soon as you notice any symptoms of sick headache, loss of appetite, dyspepsia, indigestion, costiveness, biliousness, kidney troubles, sleeplessness, female ills, general weakness or malaria, fever and ague. Insist on having Hostetter's, and don't accept any substitute. All druggists.

National Language For Jews. Jewish societies in London are agitating the problem of restoring the pure Hebrew of antiquity to use as the Jewish national language.
