

THE LONDON

The store of good taste unfurls its banner for spring tomorrow and invites you to call and inspect the largest line of men's and young men's fashionable clothing in this vicinity.

For months we have been selecting and comparing clothing until now we are confident that we have the nobbiest

Suits & Overcoats

Ever shown around here. We know we have scored a hit with the young men who want the extremely nifty clothes. Our Suits and Overcoats have that dashing, distinctive style that other makes don't have. The secret of this is in the

"L" System Clothes

We are also well prepared for the men of more quiet and conservative tastes, and selected the clothing for them from the one concern which has a national reputation for high grade workmanship and style.

L. ADLER BROS. & CO.

Of Rochester, N. Y.

All Moderately Priced

$15 to $30

Let us post you on the approved styles.
Nothing but the best finds a place here.

DUNLAP, STETSON and IMPERIAL
HATS

THE LONDON

Manhattan Shirts.
E. & W. Redman Collars
Everwear Socks

You
Know
Us

The Style
Center

The Fashion
Leaders

NEWS OF THE NEIGHBORS

(Continued from Page Two.)

cently, at her home in Silvio Wednesday evening. The hat trimming contest which the boys were compelled to take part, created a great deal of amusement. Roy McIlvain received a Michigan pennant for the most ridiculous looking hat. The girls had to guess the names of cigars and cigarettes, which the hostess had disarranged in a puzzling manner. Miss Anna Landee received a silver shot horn for having the most correct answers. A lunch was served. Mrs. Will Downing and mother, Mrs. V. H. Hockington, were in Moline

Wednesday to see their uncle and brother-in-law, Mr. Benson, who was taken to the hospital suffering with typhoid fever.

Miss Edna Pool of Iowa is visiting her brother, George Pool and wife. Mr. and Mrs. William Dericks have a new daughter at their home on First avenue.

HILLSDALE

Miss Bertha Baron has so far recovered as to be able to sit up. Little Kittie Brandt, who has been dangerously sick, is some better.

Charles Welmer, Roy Mercer, Melissa Orr, Ova Martin, Harry Walker, Leon Tompson, John and Aleck Astdown and the Bender and Black children are the last victims of the measles.

Albert Huncke, Monday evening, left for Oklahoma. Herman Sands bought the Jessie Walker Hillsdale house and lot at the sale Monday.

Mrs. E. L. Williams of Erie is staying in Hillsdale with her grand daughter Mrs. Justin Dailey, while her house in Erie is being repaired as the result of a fire Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Benjamin are rejoicing over the arrival at their home of a baby boy born Monday March 15.

The ladies of the Hillsdale Aid are planning for a bonnet and apron sale Saturday April 10. Ice cream and cake will be served.

Vena Conrad was quite sick last week but is better.

Justin Dailey was business visitor in Erie Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hudson in honor of their seventh wedding anniversary invited to their home Friday evening a few of their Hillsdale friends. Light refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. William White are visiting this week in Morrison with Mrs. White's mother Mrs. Hahn.

John Kuehl and wife spent Sunday in Clinton with relatives.

Mrs. Flora Johnson and son Harold spent a few days the last of the week near Joslin with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tinsman.

Mrs. A. B. Huston spent a few days last week in Roseville with relatives. Her son Lawrence who has been there for several weeks came home with his mother.

Mrs. D. E. Scott and Miss Lyda Peterson of Watertown spent Thursday with Mrs. Scott's daughter, Mrs. Maude Passmore.

Frank Dillon is visiting this week in Somanauk, Ill., with his brothers, Rollin and William Dillon.

Frank Joslin's little boy pulled a hot cup of coffee from the table Saturday noon badly scalding his face.

George and Walter Hill of Rock

Island spent Sunday at the Hillsdale home.

Mike Fitzgibbon visited last week in Rock Island with his mother.

William Mill, who was quite sick last week is again some better.

Charles Hawk and Henry Hutton each had a very sick child last week, but they are now recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. William Duglass and children visited over Sunday in Munson with Mr. Duglass' parents.

Dr. Charles Donohoo had business in Davenport Saturday.

Henry Fender of Rock Island spent Sunday in Hillsdale.

Grandma Higgins is quite sick with the grip and other complications.

Mrs. George Stanbro has a very sore foot. The foot is some better and she can walk around.

TO DO GOOD WORK—
Clear the brain—quit coffee and use

POSTUM

In every well-brewed, steaming cup, there's health and satisfaction.

There's a Reason.