DAVENPORT

Contract for Church.—The contract for St. Paul's Catholic church, which is to be erected on the northwest corner of Tremont avenue and Henry streets, has been let from the office of Architect A. H. Ebeling. The structure will be 44x74 feet, will be Gothic in style and will have a seating capacity of 320. Both the interior and exterior finish will be elaborate. The plaster work will be sand finished, the arched ceiling will be supported on a scissors truss, and cut stone trimmings will be used in the outside decoration. The windows will be of art

For Twenty-Six Years

Mrs. Lamaster, of Kentucky, Suffered with Internal Catarrh and was Finally Relieved by Peruna.

MRS. W. W. LAMASTER.

"I SUFFERED for twenty-six years with bladder and kidney trouble, and being advised to give Peruna a trial, I did so, and am thankful to say that eight bottles of Peruna and three bottles of Manalin entirely cured me of that trouble, and I am as well as ever."—Mrs. W. W. Lamaster, 3127 McAtee Ave., Louisville, Ky.

Catarrh Causes Kidney Disease.

Catarrh is a frequent cause of kidney disease. The pelvis of the kidneys, as well as the tubules, is lined with mucous membrane, and is therefore subject to catarrhal congestion. Sometimes the catarrh is so slight as to cause no attention. Other times it leads up to very serious conditions.

Any remedy capable of mitigating the catarrh is a much more rational treatment than to give palliatives that only relieve the patient of one or more disagreeable symptoms.

It is claimed for Peruna that it is an internal systemic catarrh remedy, and reaches the catarrh in whatever organ it happens to be located.

"I was cured of a severe attack of inflammation of the bowels by taking Peruna. I am glad to recommend Peruna to any one."—Mrs. J. J. Eross, 588 Water St., San Antonio, Texas.

glass. Above the entrance, extending the width of the room, a gallery will be constructed for the organ and the use of the choir. Brick is the material which will be used in general construction. The approximate cost of the church is $10,000. The general contract was let to Coen & Conway.

Dies in Barn.—The death of Chris Schmidt occurred yesterday while sleeping in the McCarthy company's barn at Front and Warren streets. He had been feeling ill Thursday and had consulted a doctor but his condition did not seem serious. Yesterday morning he asked permission of the foreman of McCarthy's barn at Front and Warren street, to rest a while in the building. He was found by C. P. Haigh about 9 o'clock still alive but in such a critical condition that an ambulance was immediately called. He was dead when it arrived.

Masons in City.—The school of instruction opened in the new Corinthian hall of the Masonic temple yesterday, and is attended by a large number of local and state Masons. Over 100 visitors from Iowa are already in the city and a thousand will be here by Tuesday of next week when the sessions of the grand lodge open. The school of instruction is preliminary to the degree work of the Masons which will be put on at the Grand Monday evening.

Boy Breaks Leg.—Harold Thuenen, the 13-year-old son of Attorney Henry Thuenen, Jr., met with a painful accident late Thursday afternoon in Mt.

Ida. The lad was riding his pony when the animal shied at a dog, slipped and fell, with the lad underneath. Harold had his right leg broken between the knee and ankle and was very fortunate that he was not more seriously injured. The injury, while a painful one, is not of a serious nature. It will, however, confine the lad to his home for a period of five or six weeks, and this is indeed a sad misfortune for any lad, especially when school vacation is hovering in sight. Dr. Preston is the attending physician.

Leaves $6,000 for Mausoleum.—The last will and testament of the late E. J. Babcock, founder and for many years secretary of the Security Fire Insurance company of Davenport, whose death occurred recently at Denver, was filed for record in the Scott county district court yesterday by Attorneys Lane & Waterman. The sum of $6,000 is set aside for the purchase of a lot and erection of a mausoleum thereon in Fairmount cemetery, Denver. The mausoleum is for the burial of the testator, his deceased wife, and daughter, Luella Darling, should the latter so desire at the time of her death.

Obituary Record.—Mrs. Nathan H. Johnston died at her home, 1907 Bowditch street, yesterday, after an extended illness with rheumatism. Mrs. Johnston was born near Adair, McDonough county, Illinois, April 4, 1851. She is survived by her husband and two daughters, Mrs. William A. Johnston of Davenport and Mrs. Charles Yetter of Beardstown, Ill.

MOLINE

Burglar Does Poorly.—One lone burglar, it is thought was the author of two attempted and one successful burglary which took place during the early hours of yesterday morning on Fifteenth street from Eighth to Sixteenth avenue. Success, though slightly crowned his efforts at the grocery store of Sanford Larson, 1423 Fifteenth street, and he was unsuccessful at the residence of John Schmidt, 1513 Fifteenth street, and at Youngren's cigar store, 811 Fifteenth street. He was seen at the last place, and was also sighted by Officer Walline as he jumped from a rear window of the Schmidt home and ran west on Sixteenth avenue. Walline gave chase and fired one revolver shot at him, but the darkness of the night enabled him to get away.

Arrests for Throwing Paper.—That Chief O. M. Bisant is in earnest in issuing his ultimatum to the public that the practice of throwing waste paper on the streets would be stopped there is no doubt. Yesterday afternoon he arrested two boys who had littered Fifteenth street from Fourth to Sixth avenue with 200 bills being circulated for advertising purposes.

Have Benefit Carnival.—A benefit boxing carnival was held at the South side club rooms Thursday evening and between 200 and 250 were in attendance. The benefit was for "Young" Teats and a fund of between $50 and $60 was realized from the entertainment. The carnival was arranged by "Boo" McGinley and "Micky" Pierce. The South side club kindly donated the use of its rooms for the affair. Three boxing bouts were pulled off. All were spirited, but there were no knockouts or decisions.

Put Up to Journeymen.—Boss barbers have decided to put the matter of Sunday closing of their shops up to the journeymen barbers. A meeting of the boss barbers was held Thursday evening and 18 to 20 were present. The bosses will send a petition to the journeymen asking their opinion on the Sunday closing proposition. If they decide in favor of it, the bosses will abide by their decision.

Obituary Record.—Mrs. Emily Sober Barnard, widow of Herman A. Barnard and one of the best known long time residents of Moline, passed to her rest yesterday from the family home, 1921 Fifth avenue, after a comparatively short illness. The cause of death was apoplexy, a stroke of which she suffered a week ago. She was the daughter of James and Clarissa Webster Sober, and was born on a farm near Salem, Mich., Aug. 3, 1832, one of a family of 11 children, of which one brother, Jerome Sober of Salem, survives. Mr. Barnard died three years ago. Mrs. Barnard was married to Herman A. Barnard in Salem Feb. 23, 1859, and came direct to Moline. She had been identified with the growth of the city and from a tiny hamlet, and was interested in its social and moral welfare. The home was for a few years after the coming to Moline where the plow company plant now stands and was later on Elm hill, one of the beauty spots of the city. Since the fire destroyed the bluff residence the home has been at 1921 Fifth avenue. Mrs. Barnard was the mother of six children, Frank, Harry, Edgar and Mrs. Ruth Hesler, all deceased, and Mrs. B. R. Towndrow and Mrs. Thomas E. Casady of this city, who survive. She is also survived by one stepson, Charles A. Barnard of this city.

Mrs. D. W. Johnson passed away at 10:30 Thursday from her home in Barstow, death being the result of liver trouble. Lucy Ella Wells was born in Zama township March 12, 1860, and was the daughter of Nelson and Harriet Wells. Her entire life was spent in Zama and Hampton townships. Her marriage to D. W. Johnson was solemnized Dec. 14, 1881, in Zama. Her husband and one daughter, Mrs. John Jacobs of Port Byron, survive.

Colored Man Dies.—U. S. Brown, colored, died at the city hospital after a week's illness with appendicitis. He was born in Greer River and would have been 24 years of age June 27. For some time he had been employed as teamster on a sprinkler wagon. He is survived by four brothers and five sisters.

Judge Church. Being called upon to take oath to a certain conversation which had an important bearing on the case, Mr. Medill declined to so commit himself on the ground that he could not recall the exact words used. The contesting lawyer pressed the query; Mr. Medill was cited for contempt, and in due time appeared for a hearing. His case came up one morning and had not been concluded at the noon recess. Court reconvened at 1:30, half an hour earlier than the regular hour in this county, and Mr. Medill was not on hand. Judge Church inquired sternly of the attorneys where Mr. Medill was, and the latter's lawyer answered he was not sure, but he believed the Rock Islander was dining with the chief justice of the Illinois supreme court, the late Judge Guy C. Scott, holding that position at that time.

A few minutes before 2 o'clock Mr. Medill strolled into the room and was much surprised to find that court had been in session half an hour. He VISITORS to Chicago, whose tastes in matters of decoration find preference in designs that are expressive of individuality and exclusiveness, are invited by the Commonwealth Edison Company to inspect the display of electric lamps at its show rooms, Electric Shop.

Whatever may be the keynote to the furnishings of the home, whether for an atmosphere of home comfort or for the strict lines of period decoration, the complete and varied display of lamps affords a range of selections—from the graceful to the massive; from the simple and severe to the highly ornamental—unsurpassed by any exhibit in the West.

COMMON SENSE

Would tell you, this man is making a mistake, yet many of us do things equally as foolish. Take, for instance, the man, who, being in need of some ready cash, applies to some friend for same. The friend not having it to spare, he goes to another friend, and so on, till eventually he gets the money, but in the meantime, all those he has approached are "on to" the fact that he is hard up, which is a matter he'd much better keep to himself. By our plan any one of honest intentions owning household furniture, pianos, horses, wagons, or such goods, will have no difficulty in borrowing all the money he may require, in strict confidence, by an arrangement that makes it easy to repay. If you need money—investigate today. Drop in and see us—or if you prefer, we'll send a man to see you, on request of phone or letter.
