Before the petition is signed and ready to assure the people that the He'd learned as men had learned belocal option proposition will be an issue at the next election there is very little interest in the meetings. We owe it to ourselves to use the local option law for the benefit of the Christian people of the state.

Repeal if Unused.

"If we do not use the local option law it will be repealed. If we keep on making use of it, it will never be repealed, and some time we will gain the victory which we are striving so hard to win. The local option forces of this state are one army. By making the fight in your own town or city you help the rest of the state. We began this fight two years ago and won come territory. Of course, the easiest towns in the state were won to our cause, and the more strongly intrenched of the towns are still 'wet.' Ask your grocer. occassary for everyone in the state to fight for the local option cause, I will tell you what happened in Jacksonville in November, Jacksonville went iry two years ago and the saloon forces tried to make it a wet town. They used as one of their leading arguments the fact that people were leaving the town in squads. At the election in November we had an increase of 23 votes for our side, while they had an increase of 500 votes. The place was becoming depopulated at a great rate. The increase in their number of votes was due to a large force of 'floaters' flockelection to make the town wet again, books this will help. -"Rock Island's Response"-

To our January Clearance Sale announcements demonstrates convincingly that the people of this city and the surrounding vicinity appreciate a real sale in which are advertised and given real values. Mosenfelders know no half way measures. When we start something we finish it. Our intent is to clean out every dollar's worth of goods before the first of February, which means stock-taking time. We must sellsell-sell. We are doing it, too-but we must sell faster. And we've slashed the prices still deeper in order to accomplish our purpose. We take the loss now and dispose of the goods rather than have them on our counters later on .Come now and take the goods away. And when you note the prices, and the way the goods are going, you'll see that they unquestionably
