SHERMAN'S SELF REPROOF.
"The Chair Will Be In Order," He Announced After Sneezing Loudly.

For the first time that any member of the senate can remember the president of that body called himself to order the other day. Both "the offense" and "the reproof" were received by the ordinarily quiet statesman with unrestrained laughter, and Mr. Sherman made no effort to check the applause that came from the galleries.

The routine business of the morning hour was dragging along monotonously when the vice president, yielding to an irresistible impulse, sneezed. It was a tumultuous sneeze in three syllables.
